F.O. PETER SCHOLZ, Limehouse, was among 10 graduates to receive their wings during an impressive ceremony at the R.C.A.F. Station at Portage La Prairie recently. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Scholz, Limehouse. The ceremony marked the completion of almost 170 years flying for the young airman.

EBENEZER

Meeting, Dedications, Presentation Highlight District News Events

Ebenezer W.A. were guests of the Town Line Missionary Group for their September meeting, which was held at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. William Croft, R. R. 1, Moffat.

Mrs. W. Croft, president of the Town Line, opened the meeting with a short poem and Mrs. R. Hadlock led in prayer. Mrs. I. Campbell read the scripture from Luke 18.

Mrs. G. Dunlop (from Barrie Hill) brought a special message on the power of prayer. She said if we could get enough people to pray for fellowship and an understanding among the nations, it would be mightier than all the nuclear weapons on earth.

All were delighted to hear a message from a minister's wife from the Hague, the royal city of Holland, who was visiting this community in the person of Mrs. Drost. She told a little of the work in Holland in a parish of 6,000 members, which was very interesting to all.

Mrs. D. Hume sang a solo and everyone enjoyed fellowship together after the meeting. Refreshments were served by the hostess and her helpers.

The anniversary services at Eden Mills United Church and Arkell United church the past two Sundays were well attended. Ebenezer church was closed for both Sundays in order to let everyone celebrate together at these services. Ebenezer anniversary services will be September 24.

At the evening service at Eden Mills new choir gowns were dedicated and at the evening service at Arkell, the new Christian Education building was dedicated. The Rev. K. Guthrie of Brussels and the Rev. A. F. Black of Guelph were guest ministers.

A presentation was held in Brookville Hall recently in honor of the Richardson family, who have sold their farm and have moved to Guelph. This family has been active in all community activities and will be greatly missed.

The chicken barbecue at Ebenezer was a success even though it poured rain in the afternoon. The committee members arranged tables in the basement of the church to accommodate the crowd.

The W.A. held a short business meeting in the church to make plans for the Fall tea and sale to be held October 17 and also to make arrangements for a golden wedding anniversary they have been asked to cater for.
