

Flower Display Enjoyed by W.I. Induct Rev. Maxwell Friday

(Intended for last week)
After a month's recess, the Women's Institute held their fall meeting on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. D. G. Robertson with 17 members and three visitors present.

Mrs. E. Archibald presided and Mrs. K. Stubbington read the minutes and numerous business letters.

Business Session
Mrs. Awrey was named delegate to the Area convention at Guelph.

Due to lack of lenders, it was decided not to have a 4-H Girls' Homemaking Club this fall.

A rug display is being entered at the Area Convention and Mrs. C. Storey and Mrs. E. Archibald are to be in charge. Mrs. E. Fisher, Mrs. W. MacPherson and Mrs. S. Fuller were named a committee to arrange an exhibit at Erin Fair.

Resolutions to be presented at the Area Convention were read by Mrs. E. Fisher and discussed.

Suggest Community Meeting
A letter received from council, recommunity lot was discussed at length and it was to be suggested to council, they will call a community meeting at which all interested might air their views.

Flower Display
Mrs. Haines Root of Mimosa was a guest and gave a very interesting demonstration on the making of artificial flowers. She pointed out anyone with material, wire, scissors, etc. and a creative mind could produce beautiful flowers that are hard to detect from real ones.

A few pieces of wood fibre, a little plastic gadget and a few turns of the hand and a very real carnation was made and also a big red rose.

Mrs. Root also showed several other bouquets she had made including oriental poppies, apple blossoms, African violets and geraniums. Mrs. Taylor extended thanks to Mrs. Root for her novel demonstration.

Resume Eucures
It was agreed to resume the bi-monthly eucures starting in October. Mrs. G. Aitken, Mrs. C. Sharples and Mrs. A. Tansley assisted the hostess in serving refreshments.

Local Views

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Martin Van der Heide on the arrival of a daughter on Saturday at Guelph Hospital.

Car Accident
Jim Tansley was involved in an accident in the village on Thursday evening when his car collided with a telephone pole when he swerved to miss a cat. His father, Albert, who was a passenger in the car, received a head cut which required several stitches. Considerable damage was done to the front of the car.

Induction Service
The induction service for Rev. Thomas Maxwell was held Friday evening in Knox Presbyterian Church with a large congregation from both Erin and the local church present.

The inter-moderator Rev. Mills of Caledon and Toronto, was in charge of the service and was assisted by several ministers of the Presbyterian. Rev. D. Sinclair of Dundalk, led in prayer and addressed the minister and congregation stressing the part each must take for a successful and happy marriage. Rev. Nate of Grangeville, preached the sermon and Rev. Mills narrated the steps to the calling of a minister and also conducted the induction.

The junior choir with Mrs. G. Stunter at the organ sang "The King of Love my Shepherd Is". Rev. Maxwell pronounced the benediction. Rev. and Mrs. Maxwell and three children were introduced to all present after which, the ladies served refreshments, and a social time followed.

Rev. Maxwell will be holding open house at the Manse on Friday afternoon and evening and an invitation was extended to all to attend.

Large Congregation
Rev. Maxwell commenced his ministry on Sunday morning at the local church, when a large congregation was present. Communion Service was observed.

Foster Child Photo, Report Highlight W.I. Monthly Meet

(Intended for last week)
The September meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. John Snow, the president. Mrs. Ernie McEnery presided. The meeting opened with the W.I. Ode, Mary Stewart's Collect and the roll call, answered by "One advantage of rural living".

Two minute reports were given by the different conveners. Several items of business were dealt with. The secretary read a letter regarding the little girl the W.I. are sponsoring. Her picture was enclosed. Current events were given by Mrs. Archie McEnery.

Motto Given
The motto was given by Mrs. William Kirkwood, "Man is native to the soil, the further we stray from the soil, the further we stray from God". Mrs. C. E. Snow gave a reading on 4-H Club calf training. Mrs. Jesse McEnery reported a good response in organizing a 4-H Home Economics club. Mrs. Elwood Snow is to be her assistant.

The meeting closed with The Queen. The social committee, Mrs. Wm. McLean, Mrs. Roy Swinthehurst and Mrs. Leo Jamieson, served lunch. All enjoyed a nice treat of shortbread and rock candy. Each received a sprig of heather brought from Scotland by Mrs. Leo Jamieson, who has just returned from visiting her family in Scotland.

Congratulate Newlyweds
Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hamilton, who were married in Ballinacree United church on Saturday. On their return from a wedding trip, they will reside in Georgetown.

Mrs. Joe Matthews has been confined to Georgetown Memorial Hospital for the past week. At last report, she is improving.
