Evening Star Lodge Serves Refreshments

The staff and residents of Halyon Manor are indebted to a number of ladies who belong to Evening Star Rebekah Lodge No. 52 of Milton, for valuable assistance in preparing and serving the refreshments at the official opening of the new addition on Thursday afternoon, September 21. Eight of these ladies came to the Manor in the morning to assist the chef and his staff in preparing the sandwiches, and were joined by several other ladies in serving the refreshments after the ceremony.

Mrs. I. Cuthbertson, Noble Grand and Mrs. H. Woodley, Vice Grand of the Lodge, poured tea and coffee during the tea hour and were assisted by the following ladies: Mrs. J. Hopkin, Mrs. M. Teasdale, Mrs. P. Maxwell, Mrs. M. Wilson, Mrs. J. Reid, Mrs. P. Strout, Mrs. S. McLenan, Mrs. D. Hadley, Mrs. Nellie McKinnon, Mrs. M. Brownridge, Mrs. M. Childs and Mrs. Jean Randall.

Arrangements for the valuable assistance given by these ladies were made by the social convener of the Lodge, Mrs. J. Hopkin, and this assistance was very greatly appreciated.

Area Delegate
Mrs. George Robertson will attend the Guelph Area Convention in Guelph on September 28 and 29 as the delegate from Dublin W.I.

Area Delegation
Mrs. G. R. Somerville outlined the 10 resolutions that will be introduced at the Area Convention this week and after a discussion on each, a vote was taken and they were confirmed for rejected and Mrs. George Robertson, the official delegate, will vote accordingly.

An invitation from the Acton Night School Committee to attend classes this fall and winter, was received.

Members were requested by Mrs. Alex Near to bring a piece of quilt block, 12 1/2" square to the next meeting so that another quilt may be made.

Wine Trip
The president announced that Miss Jean Britton had been chosen as the lucky winner of a trip to Washington for a week, leaving on September 24. Miss Britton has been a hard worker in the interests of A.I. and Junior Fair work, and on the strength of her diligence, she has been awarded this splendid trip. Congratulations will be extended to her, and also to the leaders, Mrs. Duncan Moffat and Mrs. Mansell Nellis.

Guest Speaker
Mrs. Melvin McCullough as Health Convener introduced Mrs. R. West of Acton as guest speaker. Her subject was about the work of the Canadian Cancer Society and was most interesting. She extended an invitation to volunteers to help make dressing of their rooms in Acton. With her, Harold Denny also of Acton, showed a film on "Sword of Hope" which was much enjoyed. Later he showed a film of the St. Lawrence Seaway.

Mrs. Alex Near expressed the thanks to Mrs. West and Mr. Denny.

A dainty lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. Frank, assisted by her daughter, Shirley, and her sister, Mrs. B. McGregor and by Mrs. C. Britton and Mrs. C. McIntyre.

Teacher: Give me a sentence with the word 'eclipse' in it.
Junior: When my brother sees a funny joke in the paper, eclipse it out.

30th ANNIVERSARY 30th

For 30 years Bells have been on the same location in Milton and under the same management. It was in September of 1931 that Bells rushed their service station to completion for the opening of Milton Fall Fair. During those intervening 30 years the firm has grown from the original wholesale and retail gasoline outlet to include modern garage and service station facilities and the Chevrolet, Oldsmobile, Corvair, Envoy and Chevrolet truck dealership.

WE WANT TO EXPRESS OUR THANKS FOR THE PATRONAGE THAT HAS RESULTED IN THE GROWTH OF THE BUSINESS. IT HAS BEEN APPRECIATED AND AS WE LOOK FORWARD TO THE YEARS AHEAD WE RESOLVE TO CONTINUE TO EARN THAT SUPPORT AND PATRONAGE.
