Mr. Gordon Aitken in company with friends from Kitchener spent the weekend at Parry Sound duck hunting. Miss Joan Aitken, Dundas, John and Sherlock Aitken of Western University, London, were home for the weekend. Mrs. Byron Bruce was guest soloist on Sunday morning at Hillsburg United church, and Mrs. Gordon Aitken was her accompanist. Word was received of the death of Mrs. Annie Beamish at Owen Sound hospital, the funeral was from Acton with interment at Everton Cemetery. The Beamish family were one time residents of the village, where they resided on the farm now owned by H. R. Howard on the highway. The baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Milton, First Line, is confined to the Guelph Hospital with pneumonia. Mr. and Mrs. Carman Griffin returned home on Sunday evening following a ten day visit to their home at Mishawaka, Indiana. They were accompanied on the trip by Mrs. T. Finlay and Doris. Visits were also made with relatives at Kalamazoo and Detroit, Michigan. Mrs. J. D. Robertson and Mrs. M. Cummings of Preston visited on Saturday with the former's nephew, D. G. and Mrs. Robertson. Many Visitors Mr. and Mrs. George Grundy had numerous visitors during the weekend, among whom were — Mr. and Mrs. John Lettard, Toronto; Mrs. Savitza Grundy, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Kant; Mrs. Flintoff of Stratford; Mrs. Lotte Ferguson; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Slater and family; Miss Cecile Bilton; Mr. Lloyd Bilton; Miss Betty Grundy all of Guelph; Mr. Murray McKirick and sister Marlene Waldemar; Mr. and Mrs. Bender of Hanover; Miss Helen Carlton of Fergus; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Bilton and family, Puslinch Lake; Mr. Ralph Barber; Misses Sandra and Isabelle Cripps and Cecil Cripps of Acton; Mr. Bill Wright; Fergus; and Mr. and Doug Hilton and Murray of Rockwood. Mr. and Mrs. K. Klooster had as their guests on Sunday, newly-weds, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Klooster and family, Drayton. Several from here attended the 100th anniversary of Everton Church of Christ Disciples and also the Turkey supper on Tuesday evening. Turkey Dinner Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Robertson entertained members of their immediate family at a Turkey dinner at their home recently, those attending included Mr. and Mrs. George Young and Marilyn, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Robertson of Acton; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. C. Heimler, Guelph; Mr. and Mrs. Reg Carter, Laverne and Karen, Stratford; Mr. and Mrs. Ken Robertson, Lynda and Donna, Rexdale. Unable to attend were Mrs. E. Pfann of Buffalo and Mr. and Mrs. Doug Robertson and family of Guelph.

1 IN 50 HAS PHONE
It is reported that Russian visitors to the United States exhibit considerable interest in American telephones. This is understandable, since under Russia's government-owned system, only one person in 50 has telephone service.

Postmaster Receives Award Under P.O. Suggestion Plan

Congratulations to George Day, postmaster at Rockwood, who is the recipient of a pair of binoculars from the post office department. Representatives made the award under the Public Service Suggestion Plan Award. Officials who made the presentation were Ira Jones, area superintendent, Walkerton; Cy Davies, assistant postmaster, Guelph, and the district examiner from the London district office. The award is George Day's third under this plan, which was inaugurated in 1953.

Wiener Roast

Friday evening, parents and friends of St. John's Church Young People's held a successful picnic and wiener roast on the grounds of the Grand Valley Conservation Area. A very sincere vote of thanks is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Monty Root and the W.A. for organizing the successful event. Weather conditions were ideal for the occasion.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Gordon Swanson, R. R. 3, Rockwood, Mr. W. J. Osmond Oakes, Guelph, R. Bruce Freure of Guelph, Dr. Frank Oakes and Miss Hazel Oakes of Acton, on the passing away of Mrs. Oakes, September 18, at St. Andrew's Nursing Home, Fergus, following a lengthy illness. The funeral service took place in St. Alban's Church, Acton, with Rev. D. H. West, rector, conducting the service and officiating at the committal in Fairview cemetery, Acton.

Anniversary Service

Last Sunday, the 99th anniversary services were held in the Presbyterian church, with large congregations present both morning and evening. Rev. George Vais, B.A., of St. Giles' Church, Galt, was the anniversary minister. Special music was contributed by the choir. Vocal numbers were enjoyed by Mrs. Harry Binner, accompanied by Mrs. John Freeman. At the evening service members of the Reformed Church choir, Guelph, contributed three numbers, which were very much enjoyed by those present. Following the service, the visiting choir were entertained with refreshments and coffee in the Sunday school room by members of the local choir and Young People's. Weather conditions were favorable for the occasion.

OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS!

It's Not What Opportunity Does to a Man...
It's What a Man Does with Opportunity!

To
The Citizens of Acton:

There are many of you who will read this advertisement who have experienced lay-offs or perhaps felt they were spending too much time each day driving back and forth to work, who have at one time or another wished they were in business for themselves.

There will never be a better opportunity to remedy this situation than NOW!

THE SUN OIL COMPANY will make its service station in ACTON available for lease on the most favorable terms. We have a guaranteed income plan for the right party and also provide a six weeks' training program with salary and expenses.

A Sun Oil representative will be available for personal interviews all day Saturday, September 30, at Acton's Sunoco Service Station on Highway No. 7 at the 3rd Line.

Please drop in and contact,

John Laitar

For anyone unable to take advantage of a personal interview on Saturday please telephone Hamilton, JACKSON 7-2901 or Ancaster, Miller 8-2656 for complete information.
