BALLINAFAD

Discuss Tenders, Projects At Community Hall Meet

A meeting was held on Thursday night in Ballinafad United Church basement to make further plans toward a new community hall. Several items of business were dealt with regarding plans for the building and ways and means of raising the money.

Quite a number from this community attended Milton Fall Fair and report a good fair and crowd. Some patrons were very unfortunate in being victims of pickpockets.

Presentation Made
A presentation for Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hamilton (nee Donna Smith) was held in Erin Hall on Friday night, when a large crowd attended. Dancing to the music of Jeff Barry's orchestra was enjoyed.

Richard Shortill called everyone to order and asked Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton to be seated, at the front. Mrs. Reg. French read a very fine address and the couple were presented with a coffee table and two step-up end tables to match, an electric toaster and a tea kettle. Both very graciously thanked all for the lovely gifts.

After singing "For They are Jolly Good Fellows", dancing continued. In charge of arrangements were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Shortill, Mr. and Mrs. Reg. French, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Swindlehurst and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Snow.

Improving Road
Workmen have been working on No. 5 Sideroad between the sixth and seventh lines. They are making a big improvement, which should keep the snow from piling up as in the past.

Mrs. Annie Vannatter of Georgetown and Mrs. Margaret

Lang of Orangeville attended church here Sunday and had lunch with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Shortill. Mrs. Lang called on Mr. and Mrs. Robert McEnery later.

Quite a number from this community attended the centennial and rededication services at Limehouse Presbyterian church on Sunday night. They enjoyed a wonderful sermon by Rev. Ross Cameron, M.A., D.D., and heard the Acton Male Quartette sing.

Communion services were held in Ballinafad United church on Sunday morning with Rev. D. Foster of Caledon officiating, assisted by Mr. Beaton.

CHURCHILL

Communion Service, Baptism Of Interest in Community

Communion service was held on Sunday with Rev. Mr. Foster as guest minister. A baptismal service was also conducted when Earl Douglas, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson (Bud) Anderson was christened.
