

Bell Telephone workmen are busy preparing cables for the new dial system.

Monday is Thanksgiving and most residents will enjoy a holiday for the occasion.

Some children have already donned mittens — is this a sign of cold weather or are they hoping for snow?

A large number of blue jays have been seen in the gardens of Acton this fall — more than are usually seen at this time.

Members of the Beaver Patrol belonging to the Acton Scout Troop spent a weekend camping at Blue Springs recently.

Department of Highways workmen painted white centre lines on No. 7 highway on the outskirts of Acton this week.

Frost this week ruined quite a number of foliage. Anyone not fortunate enough to procure slips for next year's planting is out of luck.

Acton Library Board resumed regular meetings following their summer recess when they met for their first fall session Thursday evening, September 28.

A group of Acton scouts sponsored a typical camp layout at Milton Fair, Saturday. It was identical to the one displayed at Acton Fair, two weeks ago.

Visiting motorists in town should have little trouble locating the names of streets in certain sections of town now that new street signs have been installed.

Acton firemen were kept busy over the weekend with pots of red and yellow paint as they retouched fire hydrants throughout town. Unfinished hydrants will be completed as soon as possible.

Acton High School football squad suffered a 6-0 defeat at the hands of Georgetown last weekend. Coach W. Coyle is rounding the players into condition before the end of the season the Acton lads will prove quite tough opposition.

Acton Y's Men held a successful turkey shoot at the Flynn Farm, Saturday with top marksmen being Wayne Shepherd, who took home three turkeys and a number of chickens. Quite a number of shooters were present and Y's Men report a successful event.

GIRL GUIDE NEWS

The meeting opened with God Save the Queen and roll call which also includes inspection. Immediately upon dismissal the girls were arranged in tent, lot and second class to study their tests and badges.

For recreation, we played a rousing game of rat-trap which preceded the campfire and evening taps.

Baptist Group Formed Hold First Meeting

The first session of a Baptist Fellowship organization was held in the Y.M.C.A. Sunday, when 30 scholars and teachers gathered. A new organization formed in September, it is affiliated with the fellowship of Baptist churches of Canada. Members of the new group welcome anyone to join and meet weekly for bible study and prayer in various homes of members.

Night School News

He jumped at the chance to enroll for "Arm Chair Travelogue" at Acton Night School.

Applications are still being received for Night School classes and president Mrs. J. C. Creighton is looking forward to a large enrolment again this year.

The last opportunity for anyone desiring to take a course this year is Thursday, October 13, and everyone is reminded to have their applications completed and handed in before this date.

Some of the courses offered this year which are proving popular are:
