

Festival Service, Baptism, Party Highlight Community News Events

Services at St. John's Anglican Church on Sunday morning were largely attended on account of Harvest Festival. The edifice was well decorated for the occasion with products from gardens and farms. On the altar, a loaf of bread and grapes were in evidence, symbolizing the bread and wine of communion. During the service, a baptismal ceremony was celebrated. The Right Reverend C. R. H. Wilkinson, D.D., addressed the congregation.

Mr. Fred Austen of Hamilton conducted the service on Sunday at the Presbyterian Church. Synodally extended to Mr. Fred Moore and sister Miss Myrtle Moore of Rockwood and Mrs. James D. McPherson and family of Guelph in the sudden passing of Mr. McPherson in Vancouver, B.C., last Monday. The family were former members of the Presbyterian church while they lived in Rockwood some years ago. The funeral took place Friday at the Wall funeral home, Guelph, with Rev. D. Crawford - Smith of Knox church, Guelph, conducting the service and also officiating at the committal in Rockwood cemetery, where interment took place. A number of floral wreaths bore silent tribute to the memory of the deceased.

Brother Passes
Sympathy is extended to Mr. Clifford Talbot of Oakville in the sudden passing of his brother, Alfred H. Talbot, Everton, last Wednesday. Sympathy also goes to brother-in-law Roy Hindley, Everton.

Funeral service took place Saturday with service at the Rummy-Shoemaker funeral home, Acton, with Rev. R. R. Connor, Rockwood, conducting the service. Interment took place in Everton cemetery.

Anniversary Party
Monday evening, October 2, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas McNabb entertained at a wedding anniversary party for Mr. and Mrs. Albert Shultz. Euchre was played and during the evening, a gorsage and boutonniere, along with a gift of money, was presented to the happy couple. Supper was served at a late hour when wedding cake, ice cream, tea cup reading and card fortune telling brought much merriment to the guests.

On Wednesday evening, October 4, the W. A. of St. John's church held their first bi-monthly euchre in the parish hall.

Eight tables were played. High score, ladies, Mrs. Fuhrman; lone hands, Mrs. Norman Wilson; gent's high score, Harvey Justin, Everton; lone hands, Oswald Meadows. A fine lunch and tea was served by the committee in charge. On October 25, the W.A. of the church will be hostess at another euchre.

Birthday Celebrated
Mrs. Harvey Shultz entertained at a dinner party in honor of her mother, Mrs. Douglas McNabb, who recently celebrated her birthday. The "Six Old Timers" euchre club were guests for the evening. Gifts were opened and cards read. Lunch was served by the hostess.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Duby will regret to learn Mr. Duby is a patient in the military hospital in London, and Mrs. Duby is in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph.

Talk on Bolivia, Missions Highlights Baptist Meeting

The Baptist Women's Mission Circle held their October meeting, Thursday evening, October 5, at the home of Mrs. Henry Cripps, Mill St. The president, Mrs. H. Helwig, opened the meeting with a reading entitled, "Living Our Thanksgiving" and prayer.

Mrs. C. Landsborough chose the scripture reading from Ecclesiastes, chapter II, "Cast your bread upon the waters", and spoke of the need for a deeper interest in missions.

Work in Bolivia
Mrs. G. Harrap gave a most interesting and informative talk on her work in Bolivia and the beginning of Peniel Hall Farm. The land was a gift from an Italian miller named Antonio Chiriatto, who, being deeply interested in missions, decided to go to Bolivia.

The purchased the land and although he lived only a few months, he left his entire fortune for the establishment of Peniel Hall Farm. Now, the Southern Cross radio station at La Pas carries the gospel message to all corners of the globe.

Business Session
A session of prayer followed, led by Mrs. J. Rudd, Mrs. G. Ralsbom, Mrs. H. Helwig and Mrs. L. Bulmer. The secretary, Mrs. G. Wagner, read the minutes of the previous meeting and called the roll.

Correspondence was dealt with and all business was discussed. After the singing of a hymn, "Take Time to Be Holy", Mrs. J. Chapman closed the meeting with prayer.

During the tea hour, with Mrs. Murtha and Mrs. Harris acting as tea hostesses, Mrs. D. Hutchison brought some of the highlights of the missionary rally held in Walmer Road Baptist Church, Toronto, to the members' attention. The rally was

Socks — Betty Stierritt, $2.00. Cream Set — Janet Wilds. Two Voucher from Camera Shoppe. Jean Thompson. Saucepan — Mrs. Lionel Hurst. Sugar and to Mrs. Cripps for the use of her home for the meeting. Mrs. L. Hilsley thanked the program committee and Mrs. Murtha and Mrs. Harris for the delicious tea served.

W.A. Gives $100 Donation For New Bulletin Board

The W.A. of Acton United Church met Tuesday October 3. In the absence of Mrs. Wilderspin the president, Mrs. Shoemaker presided.

Mrs. F. Cleave was in charge of devotion. The topic, "Jesus Christ the Light of the World" in the Church's service. Hymns 21 and 579 were sung with Mrs. Heller accompanist.

The roll call was answered by 20 members with a verse containing the word "Fruit". Forty-two calls on the sick and shut ins were reported.

A motion was passed to donate $100.00 for a new bulletin board for the outside of the church.

In November, the W. A. are sponsoring a pageant on "Switzerland's Pattern for Peace" in word, color and picture, in the United Church. This film is a travelogue of color, music, folk song and dances, two hours long. The narrator will be Mr. Anton R. Lendi.

The Mizpah benediction was repeated in unison. A lunch was served by Mrs. McAuley and her group.
