The late Mrs. J. B. Mackenzie of Georgetown was their sister.

Wedding Trip to Great Britain For Jean Manes, Stewart Dryer

A wedding trip to England and Scotland followed the marriage on Saturday, October 14, of Jean Elizabeth Manes and Stewart Henry Dryer. The Rev. A. H. McKenzie officiated by candlelight for the ceremony at 6 p.m. while E. A. Hansen played the wedding music.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Manes, was employed at the Ford Motor Company. The groom is a marketing and advertising assistant at the Rowntree Company, Toronto, and is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Dryer of Edinburgh, Scotland.

The couple exchanged rings in a setting of white and pink mums. Soloist was the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Tom Manes.

Traditional Gown
The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a sweeping full-length gown of traditional white organza over satin trimmed with lace. An organza-gardenia-held her illusion shoulder-length veil. On a white bible she carried pink roses and stephanotis with rosebuds on streamers.

Maid of honor was her sister, Miss Patricia Manes of Acton; bridesmaids were Mrs. Harold Manes of Streetsville, sister-in-law of the bride and Mrs. James Nov, Stratford. They wore shimmering pink pearl de soie dresses and shoes. Their white chrysanthemums were backed by satin.

Flower girl was a niece of the bride, Karen Manes of Streetsville, who wore a very charming bouffant dress of white with a

Fire Call

Firemen made a rush call to Lightman's Department store on Mill Street, Wednesday evening around 4:30 and doused a blazing piece of cloth within seconds.

Damage might have been more extensive had the fire caught on a box of plastic nearby. It is believed children were responsible for the fire.

Firefighters had to push through a mob of children before entering the building and within seconds a large crowd had gathered only to see the fire equipment rounding the corner and heading for the fire hall again.

Pulp is the name for wood fibre.

Miss M. Z. Bennett Speaker At Alert Thankoffering Meeting

Mrs. George Young, Church St., was hostess for the Fall Thankoffering meeting of the Alert Evening Auxiliary of Knox church. Mrs. John L. Davidson presided and opened the meeting with a poem, "The Crown of the Year", followed by the singing of the Doxology.

The president welcomed the guests from the Baptist and United churches and Atterton Auxiliary and Daughters of Knox of Knox Presbyterian church. Mrs. H. L. Bennie led in prayer following the singing of the hymn, "For the Beauty of the Earth."

Impressive Thoughts
The highlight of the program was a delightful message from Miss M. Z. Bennett, who based her talk on the Pilgrim Psalm, the 121st, which was read by Mrs. James Inglis and all joined to sing "Unto the Hills", both closely linked with the topic.

Miss Bennett chose four frontiers, the heights, steps, days and doors. She gave a most impressive thought at this Thanksgiving season. She was introduced by Mrs. F. Anderson, who like several others present, had received valuable instruction as a pupil in former years.

Mrs. George Missoselle expressed to Miss Bennett the appreciation of all and also thanked Misses Ruth and Connie Coles for a lovely duet, "Jesus Loves Me", accompanied by their mother.

Mrs. Clarence Coles, who was pianist for the meeting.

Dedicatory Prayer
At the presentation of the offering, Mrs. A. H. McKenzie made the dedicatory prayer.

The closing hymn, "Jesus, Master Whom I Serve" was sung, followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison.

A period of social fellowship was enjoyed by all during the serving of lunch. Mrs. H. Helwig brought greetings from the Baptist Circle and invited everyone to their meeting on Thursday evening.

Attendance Trophy Won by Fair Reps
Acton Agricultural Society placed third for attendance at the annual meeting of District Five of the Ontario Association of Agricultural Societies in Beeton all day Tuesday. Markham came first, President Nino Brandt gave the Acton report.

Others attending were Mrs. Wilfred Willie, Mrs. Ralph Bennett, Mrs. Stan Matthews, Mrs. Don Matthews, Mrs. Charles Leathersland, Mrs. Fred Kentner, Mrs. William MacDonald, Mrs. R. L. Davidson, Mrs. C. W. Swackhamer, R. L. Davidson and William Thompson.
