Bank Manager Active in Town

C. D. Anderson will be the new manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia branch here in Acton, succeeding W. A. Woodburn, who goes to the bank's executive offices in Toronto.

Chester Anderson was born in Edgeley, Ontario, and joined the bank in nearby Weston. Most of his earlier banking experience was gained in the Toronto area; in 1952 he was appointed accountant at the bank's Dundas and Brock branch in Toronto. Since 1955, however, he has been manager at "one of those important parts of Ontario that lie outside the big cities" as the radio program puts it— Blind River, on the north shore of Lake Huron.

While at Blind River Mr. Anderson, who is a World War II veteran (Royal Canadian Ordnance Corps) was treasurer of the War Memorial Building Fund as well as working for the Masonic Lodge, C.N.I.B., Home and School Association and other such community organizations. Mrs. Anderson, who was born in Hillsburgh, Ontario, was secretary of the Public Health Association, the Horticultural Society, Treasurer of the Girl Guides Association and also active in the Home and School Association and in church work. The Andersons have two children, Beverly and Neil.

—Hunters will be heading north this weekend for the deer season which opens Monday.

Arena Boast Bee With Volunteers

Electrical workers under the supervision of the Hydro department staged a work bee at the rear section of the arena Saturday and almost completed the wiring in this area.

Left to be done is connecting the wires into the lights over the arena ice surface. This is being done by the hydro workmen. Volunteers, including local contractors, Beardmore electricians and one fireman, blitzed the arena and spent the entire day wiring and re-wiring.

On Wednesday, town workmen hauled additional loads of sand to fill the arena floor to the required level prior to laying the pipes to carry the brine.

During a special meeting of Council last night (Wednesday), the wiring contract for the front section of the Community Centre building was awarded to Reimer Electric of Acton.

CHURCHILL
Young People Hold Banquet on Friday
Young people of the three congregations held their banquet at Ballinatal on Friday evening with a large attendance. Mr. James Stockton was guest speaker. His talk was on Africa and he showed slides.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Turner of North Bay are spending a few days with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Turner.

Carry Gospel by Houseboat To Needy Villagers in India

The Baptist Women's Mission Circle held their Fall Thanksgiving meeting Thursday evening, October 26, in the church auditorium. President Mrs. H. Helwig opened the meeting with the hymn, "Publish Glad Tidings" and prayer. A cornet solo by C. Landsborough, accompanied on the piano by Miss H. Landsborough, was one of the evening's highlights.

A short devotional was given by Mrs. C. Landsborough, who chose for her scripture reading, Philippians, chapter four, stressing Paul's admonition to the church at Philippi—the fellowship of the spirit, lowliness of mind and being mindful of the needs of others. She closed with prayer.

A duet rendered by Mrs. J. Rudd and Miss Alice Pilkington was much enjoyed and appreciated. Hymn 268 was sung.

Work in India
Mrs. J. Chapman introduced the guest speaker, Miss E. Brothers, who had served many years in India. Miss Brothers spoke on her work there and the great need of more missionaries and also showed beautiful colored slides of schools, churches, farm work and the lovely houseboat, which was the means of travel up and down rivers, carrying the gospel to the villages.

On behalf of the Circle and visiting friends, thanks was given by Mrs. G. Harrap. Rev. J. Rudd closed the meeting with prayer.

PORTRAIT BURNED
The famous and frequently reprinted portrait by Robert Harris of the Fathers of Confederation was destroyed in the 1916 House of Commons fire. It is the original full-size charcoal sketch that now hangs in the House.
