Kilts, Clan Tartans Gay At St. Andrew's Dance

Kilts and clan tartans added traditional atmosphere when Acton Scottish Dance Club held a most successful St. Andrew's dance in the Legion auditorium on Friday, November 17. The key note of the whole evening was one of enjoyment and relaxation.

Visitors from Toronto, Hamilton, Kitchener, Guelph, Milton and Orangeville were formally welcomed by Dr. Robert Buckner, president of the Acton Scottish Dance Club. The duties of MC for the evening were carried out by Bill Wilson and Bob Toy.

Modern square and Scottish dances were included in the program organized by Terry Slaven and Bob Toyers. The Gungahny band from Toronto provided the excellent music. The lady pianist with this band at one time played piano in the famous Jimmy Shand band in Scotland.

During intermission a group from the Guelph Scottish Country Dance Club gave a most graceful display of two Scottish country dances, The Windy Road, and Hamilton Rant.

Spot dances were won by Mr. and Mrs. Len Howe of Acton, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Hogan of Toronto, Rae West of Acton and Mrs. C. Fraser of Acton.

Refreshments were provided and served by the ladies of the Acton club. The delightful evening was brought to a close with the singing of Auld Lang Syne.

Two O'Clock Rush at Beginning Of Lakeside Bazaar Saturday

Two o'clock rush at the Legion Hall-Saturday afternoon, saw the first of the crowd attending Lakeside Chapter 1075's annual bazaar ready at the door.

One of the many attractions for them was the baking table which was sold out before long. Booths and tea tables ringed the room.

Again the bazaar was considered very successful financially.

Christmas Setting

The tea tables at one end of the hall were attractive with Christ- mas decorations and candles. Mrs. Helwig convened the tea. Weeds, sprayed with paint and glitter, knitting, aprons and "specialty" gifts were bought for Christmas. The parcel post and touch and take tables were particularly popular.

Conventers were, for the baking Mrs. C. Leishman and Mrs. C. Perkins, knitting, Mrs. R. Spigelvogel, aprons, Mrs. George Fryer, Mrs. M. McCullough, stuffed toys and gifts, Mrs. W. Spruston, touch and take, Mrs. G. Golden, weeds, Mrs. H. Helwig, parcel post, Mrs. D. Rydell, candy, Mrs. W. Middle- ton, rug draws, Mrs. G. Somerville. Other members assisted.

The hooked rug made by Miss Florence Wilkinson for which many tickets had been sold in advance, was won by Mrs. D. Lar- sen.

Miss Millie Rowles won the dressed doll with complete wardrobe made by Mrs. J. Mann. There were separate draws at each table. Mrs. Osborne won the candy, Mrs. Bill Coon the apron, Mrs. W. Watkins the Christmas cake, Mrs. C. Brown the table centre, Mrs. Fanning the trilly seat cover.

General conveners of the bazaar were Mrs. Helwig, Mrs. J. Dowling and Mrs. W. Lalor.

St. Alban's W.A. Plans Yule Bazaar

The monthly meeting of St. Alban's W.A. was held in the Parish hall on November 9. The meeting was opened with prayers by the president, Mrs. G. Fourn- lain. The minutes of the last meeting were read and the monthly reports of the officers were given.

Arrangements were made for refreshments for the Induction Service for the Rev. Donald West.

Plans for the Christmas bazaar which is to be held December 2 in the Parish hall were finalized. Mrs. J. Creasey is to take care of the signs advertising the event. Conventers are to be Mrs. C. Nel- son, Mrs. H. J. Holmes and Mrs. S. Snow. Members were also provided with books of tea tickets to sell.

It was decided that the flowers for the Altar on the Sunday nearest St. Andrew's Day be provided by the W.A.

Three days next week the tuberculin test clinic of the Ontario government will be set up in the town hall, and Halton Tubercu- losis and Health Association pres- ident Bill Benson says every sin- gle person in Acton is urgently requested to attend.

Had a chest X-ray before? This time the test will be different the same kind, all the public and high school students have already had. It's a painless skin test.

Some factories in Acton are already done. But for their own protection (as well as others'), each man and woman who has not been tested within the last few months should go to the clin- ic.

Dates are Wednesday, Novem- ber 29, Thursday, November 30 and Friday, December 1. Hours: 2 to 3 p.m. and 7 to 10 p.m. each day.

No appointments are necessary. Nurses come with the unit. They are from the Department of Health of the Ontario Govern- ment.

Clerks are local volunteers un- der Mrs. Olga Somerville. Next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday... here's to your health!
