

Society Being Disbanded W.M.S. Hold Final Meeting

The December meeting of the W.M.S. was held at the home of Mrs. Black. After singing a hymn through the forest on foot or on prayer, the minutes were read and the secretary read the reports of the year's work.

Other pictures were of school children and school nurses and school children. Mrs. F. W. Shortall gave the scripture and with mission boys on board. Reading gave the pointing out some amusing and sad things which occur in Christmas time.

Mrs. Hill gave an account of the mission work down through the year.

BACK IN 1941 Taken from the issue of the Free Press, Thursday, January 1, 1942

Arthur Fields, 21-year-old C.N.R. employee of Georgetown, was instantly killed the day before Christmas when he fell from a train. He was struck by an Algonquin-bound through train on the tracks near the station. He was inspecting the train when the accident happened. The train struck him on the head and he fell from the train.

Sugar and Spice ... BY BILL SWELEY

My wife had a good year, too. For some reason, she decided to stop pushing me. But I suspect that I didn't know any better, in 1941. We were both more than 40 years old. She was a good mother and a good wife. I was a good father and a good husband. We were both good people.

Candlelight Service Sunday Grandparents Cubs' Guests

The Grandparents Cubs' guests were Mrs. Wood and Mr. Miller. They were both 70 years old. They were both very nice people. They were both very good people. They were both very kind people.
