

"Hallowed Precincts" Invaded By Ladies Just Once a Year

The words of the old song say, "Man Lorne Deberthien who was that 'Every day in Ladies' Day" received of this position on the but that is not true. The occasion is that a fine was di- meetings of the Active Ladies' Club. The meeting was held in the club room. The ladies were invited to the meeting by the club members. The occasion is the annual Christmas party of the Y. Men's Club.

For the present year this happy event took place on Thursday, December 14, when the members and their friends gathered at the Y. Men's Club. The party was a most successful one and was enjoyed by all present. The Christmas tree, decorated with lights and ornaments, was the center of attraction. The Y. Men's Club members and their wives were present in large numbers. The occasion is the annual Christmas party of the Y. Men's Club.

The Christmas message was delivered by the Rev. Mr. W. M. Deberthien. The Y. Men's Club members and their wives were present in large numbers. The occasion is the annual Christmas party of the Y. Men's Club.

At approximately 7 p.m. they sat down to a beautiful turkey dinner complete with all the trimmings. The first course was the evening who found little time to partake of his meal, was Y. Men's Club.

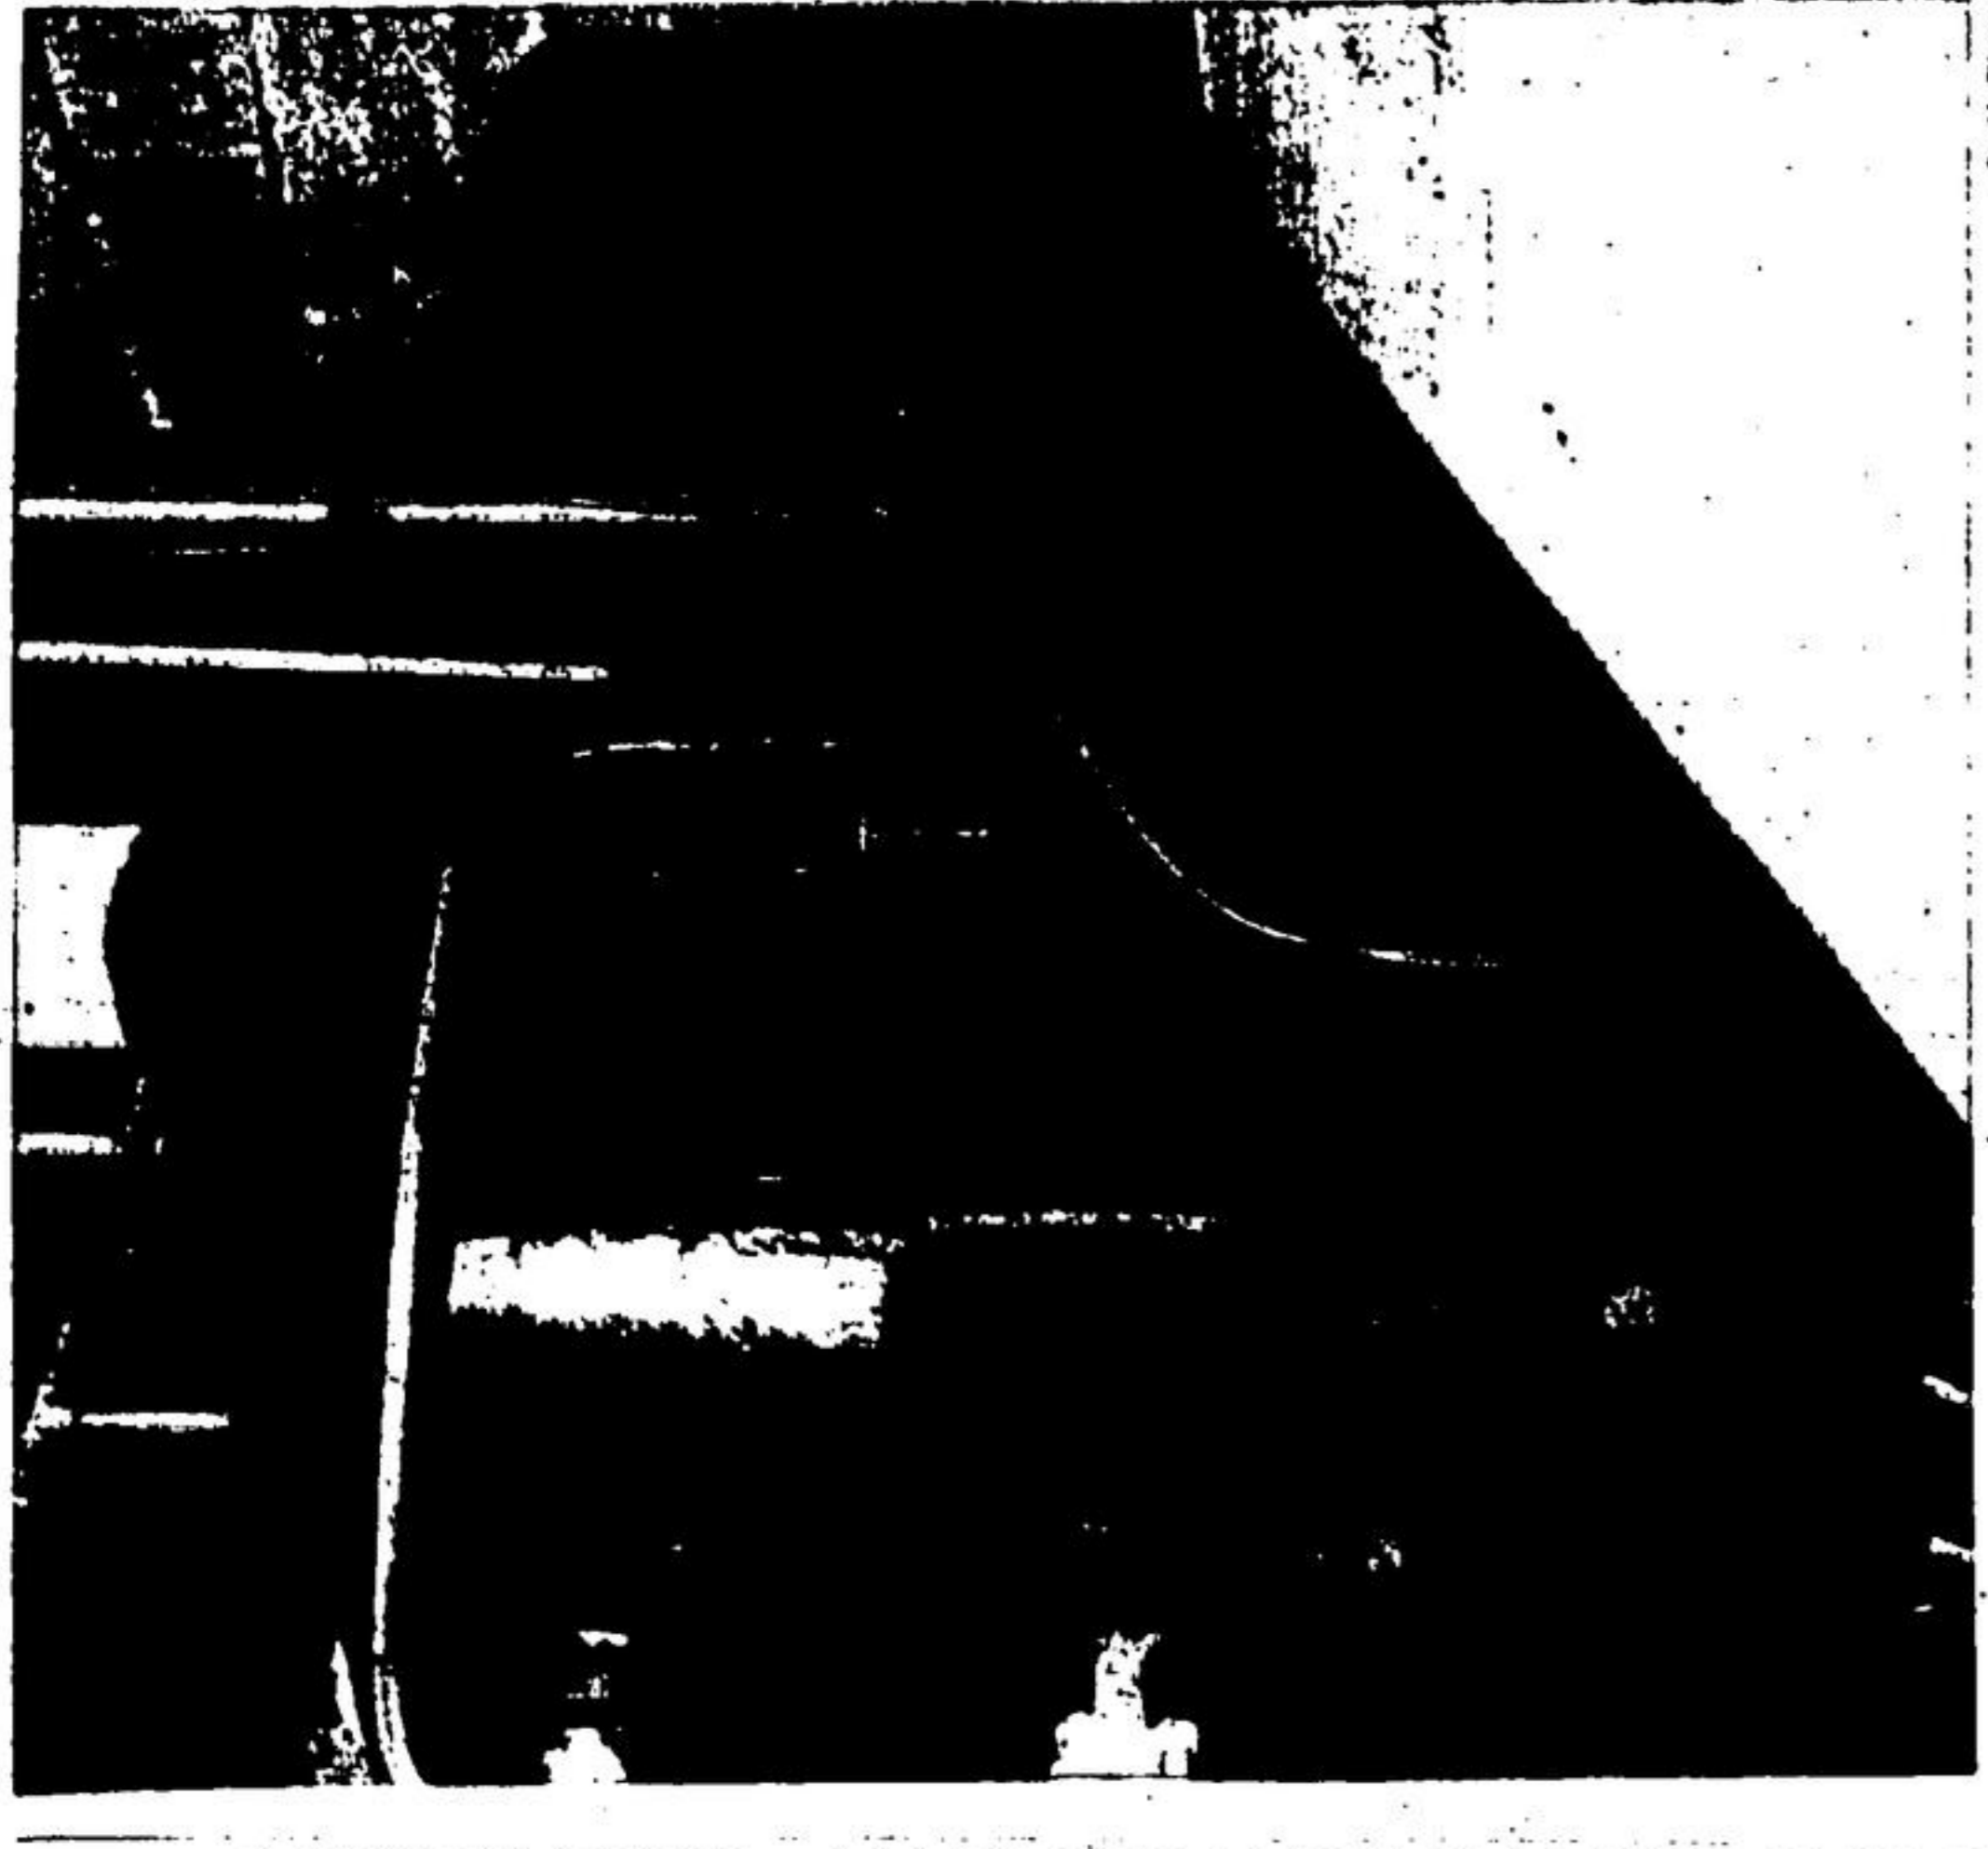

As we celebrate the New Year, our fondest thoughts turn to you!

ACTION CITIZEN'S BAND

—One report from the Robert Little school kindergarten party: "There was a big boy there dressed up with a mask on—and Santa Claus!"

Many meetings are cancelled this week.

ARTIFICIAL ICE at Action arena is allowing children and adults plenty of winter amusement and responsible for the equipment running smoothly is Jim Ralston, retired engineer. Mr. Ralston spends a great deal of his time at the arena checking the valves and wheels to make certain everything is in top running order. From all reports received from the hockey players the ice is good and hard and a sharp pair of skates is required at all times.
