

Pounding the SPORTS BEAT

AN EGG went sailing from out of the crowd, fluttering momentarily under the lights in the community centre recently. Then it landed in a big blob of white and goo at the foot of a man in a striped shirt.

Shaken, the whistle toiled, looked down at the remnants of the brittle shell. He scanned the splattered remains of what had been the white of the egg. He returned the unblinking gaze of its big yellow yolk. He looked for evidence of egg on his striped tunic.

Pulling himself together, he skated over to the penalty box, a picture of sartorial splendour fixed a jaundiced look at one of the officials and then said in effect, "Aren't there any police in this house? Someone has thrown an egg at me."

But, unknown to this charged referee, a youth WAS on him. The official in the penalty box whom he addressed, his remarks were Corporal Ray Mason, head of the local detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police, in civies.

ALSO PRESIDENT of the immediate hockey club, Corporal Ray did not divulge his identity to the state referee. He quickly assessed the face power that every means would be employed to stop further dropping of the egg.

And, in the end, he was there, there, there.

The incident was a thorn in the side of the Lions, scoring a pair of markers for Oakville while Bantams, Holmes and Blake kept the string on the market.

Who would have thought an egg thrown would cause the trouble at the community centre. He was there however, moving forward among the spectators.

Suddenly an egg catapulted amongst the referees and landed not far from the net of Acton's agile Jackie Marshall. The game was delayed until Herb Doods trotted out and scooped up the remains with a shovel.

FANS WERE aghast. Those of Scottish ancestry mentally calculated the waste. The corporal of police scanned the noise, thinking for a possible clue to the culprit. Players wondered if they were getting the old razor.

Then, lo and behold, ANOTHER egg bounced high in the beams and landed on the penalty box, spraying a visiting Breslau official with splatter. It was the third yellow stain in the new community centre.

Who is this mysterious egg thrower? Keep your eyes open at the next intermediate hockey game. He may be standing beside YOU.

LAST WEEK, this column carried some adverse criticism of a recent Juvenile hockey game which saw the Acton club beaten by second place Hespeler.

In rebuttal, one of the Lions officials sent an official standing to the keeper of this page which shows the minutes in penalties served by each team. We were glad to see that the Lions in six games, were last in the league. Some teams had double the amount in penalties served by the Acton club.

The Lions were in fifth place as of December 31. They had a chance to better their position tonight (Thursday) when fourth place Orangeville plays here.

World troop observers in other Tri-County towns say that the Lions have the potential to be the best team in the league — but none. They can skate, check score goals. They're well balanced.

We'll go along with their estimate of the club. However, we don't feel the club has lived up to the promise they showed last season. It may appear yet, it may be tonight. Drop down and see. Game time—9 p.m.

BEAT BITS: Middlesex has tournament applications for the Squirt hockey tournament to be held in Brampton. Anyone interested can dial Eddie and be glad to supply information. Eugene Elvers overcame his burgh twice in the past week 2-1 in Ferguson and 1-0 in the polo-country Knox and Dubois passed the five attack on both games. Ferguson is still undefeated. Question cutters are asking if Paul Nielsen never uttered belief how come all the medals on the chapeau? Perhaps it's a Top Topper. Rumor still circulating that Guelph Royals Junior B hockey club will locate here next year.

17 players, and, two coaches were either fined or suspended in a recent Niagara district Junior B game at St. Catharines. Both the St. Catharines and St. Catharines coaches were suspended a total of 303 minutes in penalties were handed out for the frolic-all which involved nearly all the players. A team from Guelph is interested in enrolling in an intermediate baseball

Elora, Tanners Battle to 5-5 Tie

Although they trailed the host Elora Rocks 5-1 in the early minutes of the second period, Acton's strong thinking Tanners wound up with a 5-5 tie in Monday's W.O.A.A. intermediate contest in Elora. A 10 minute overtime period failed to produce a winner.

Showing a form they never displayed in Acton appearances, the Rocks delighted home fans with a fast skating, aggressive attack that caught the Tanners off balance in the first few minutes of the first and second periods. Only, reminding a shade less than spectacular by goalie Jackie Marshall kept the Acton club close.

Untrack in Second: About midway through the middle chapter the Tanners seemed to untrack and they steadily impressed. The third period saw them take the initiative and the game. Both clubs had opportunities in the dying minutes of regulation time to salt the game away but superlative goal tending at both ends left the score intact.

In the overtime period neither team demonstrated any scoring ability. They preferred to play it cautiously, waiting for mistakes by the opposition. The

Oakville Junes Whip Lions 5-2

Acton Lions put on a spirited display of hockey but Oakville's Juvenile A club was a cut above them in Thursday night's Tri-County league fixture at the community centre here.

The Oaks slipped into a 2-1 first period lead, the teams traded goals in the second stanza and a pair in the final period gave the visitors a 5-2 victory.

Pat Fairbairn was a thorn in the paw of the Lions, scoring a pair of markers for Oakville while Bantams, Holmes and Blake kept the string on the market.

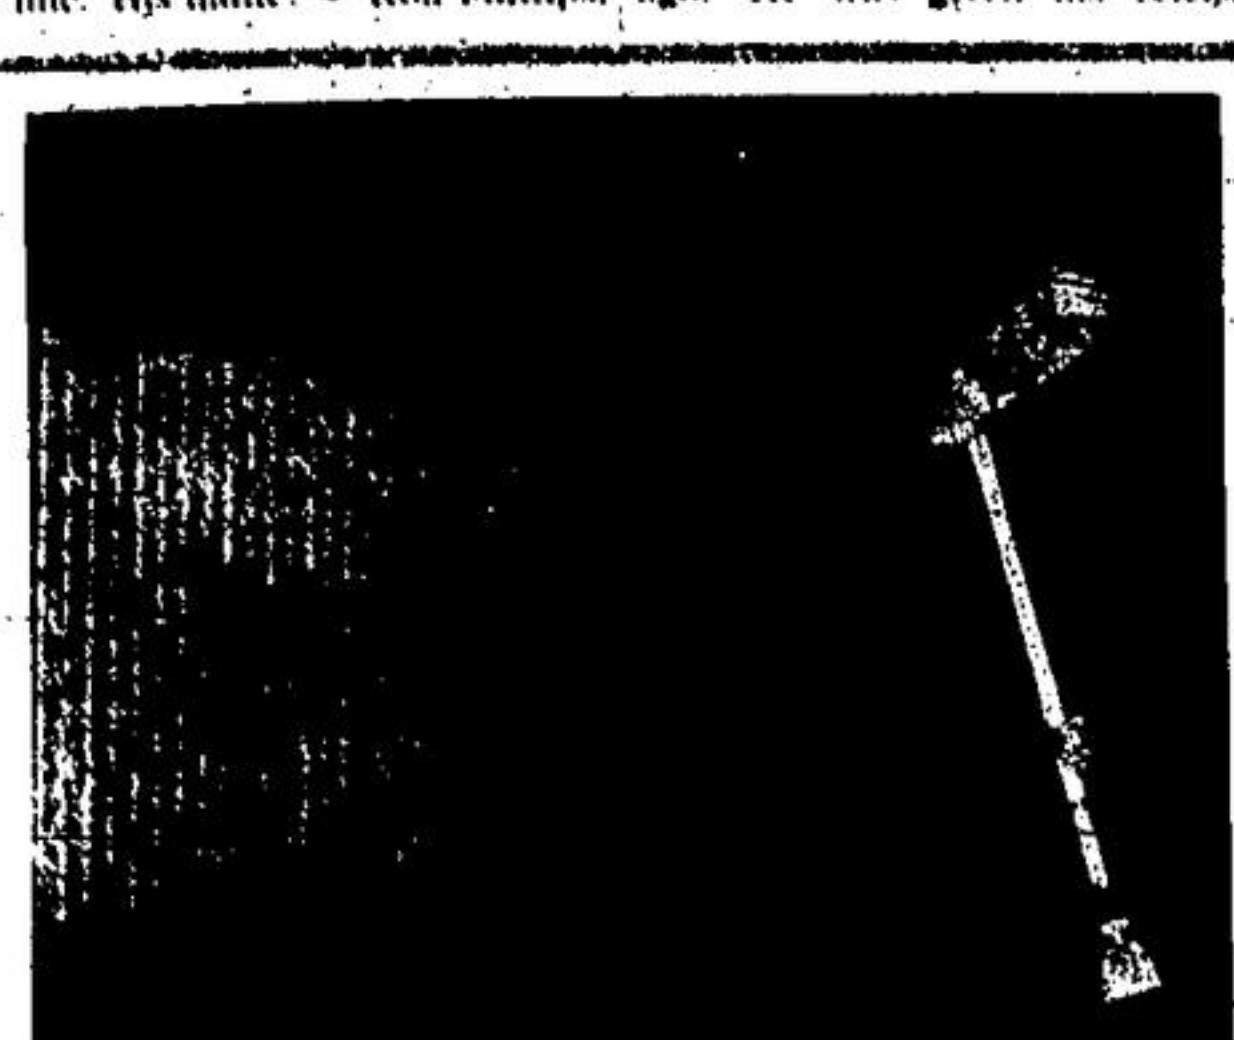

Who would have thought an egg thrown would cause the trouble at the community centre. He was there however, moving forward among the spectators.

"SWEEP! SWEEP! SWEEP!" is a familiar call as curlers take to the ice at Acton's Community Centre. Monday evening was the gala opening for the curlers and an estimated 120 turned out for instruction and trial. Pictured above is Mrs. Jessie Galloway, one of the ladies' instructors, as she attempts to coax the stone along a little further.

Oakville Midgets Win 3-1 T-C Team Tops Town Loop

Oakville powerhouse of the Tri-County midget hockey series, chalked up a 3-1 win over Acton Midgets in a scheduled contest last Thursday in the community centre.

The visitors banged in three first period goals, scored six more in the sandwich-session and finished off with four in the final. Schmidt rattled in the only Acton counter in the latter stages of the second period, assisted by Dunn.

Three Oakville players, Armstrong McLeod and Turkoz, scored hat tricks while Arnet packed up a pair of goals. Sanderson and Smallman had a goal apiece.

Play was not as lopsided as the score, the Acton club scoring on themselves on two occasions. Oakville was awarded the large part of the penalty parade, serving seven to Acton's three.

Falls, Buffalo, Montreal Win Town League Games

Hamilton fully recovered from the pasting they took at the hands of Pelee Valley's Guelph team last week, held the Royals to a 3-3 deadlock in the novice section of the town league Saturday afternoon.

In other league action, Niagara Falls edged a win over St. Catharines 4-3, reversing last week's score. The Pelee Wee section in the Bantam series, Buffalo came out with a vengeance and was swept Rochester 6-1. The teams drew last week.
