Plan Bee Before Manse Sale Minister Reports Busy Month

The Board of Management of the Church of Christ Disciples held their monthly meeting at the home of D. G. Robertson on Monday evening. In the absence of the chairman the vice-chairman, William Stewart, presided. Rev. Byron F. Howlett gave the opening prayer, and conducted a short worship service, the theme being "My Divine Commission".

The secretary's report, prepared by Mrs. Duncan Kingsbury, was read, followed by the treasurer's report by Mrs. D. G. Robertson.

The minister's report showed a very busy month, in addition to regular duties, Mr. Howlett was busy engaged in the New Life Mission, where he was chairman of the counselling committee.

Manse for Sale
Duncan Kingsbury reported for the trustees, and a clean up job at the manse in Everton was planned, prior to the listing of same for sale.

Plans were also made for the holding of the midweek Bible Study and Chi Rho classes in the various homes for the next two months. Note was made of the Framosa township Sunday school rally to be held at Everton late in June.

Next month the meeting will be the "Ministers' Cabinet" when all functional committees will meet to review their program in connection with the work of the church.

T. D. McCutcheon pronounced the benediction and lunch was served by the hostess.

Wager can be dangerous at this time of year.

School songsters are practicing for the music festival.

Only way to be sure of your footing would be to wear spike golf shoes outdoors these days.

Please let the Free Press know if you spot the seasons' first robin. That's good news we want to spread.

The people who know about these things say spring is coming a day early this year - March 20. The sooner the better.

Grades 10A, 10C, 11 and some grade 12 students were taken to a tour of the College Royal at the O.A.C. in Guelph on Wednesday.

Crusade Taxes Mem. Gardens Rev. I. Chambers Preaches Here

Sunday morning the congregations of Stone Church, Centre Inn, were favored with the presence of Rev. Irvine Chambers of the Billy Graham Crusade Association and also congregation in Guelph here in Rockwood.

At the Presbyterian Church, the absence of Mrs. John Freeman, organist, Richard Helmer of Guelph supplied music for the morning service. His musical ability was much appreciated.

In connection with the closing of the New Life Mission in Guelph on Sunday evening, the Guelph Memorial Gardens was pretty well taxed for attendance.

FLIPPING PANCAKES can be a lot of fun but when it comes to cooking for a large crowd most people would back down. Not in the case of the pancake supper Tuesday night sponsored by the Limehouse Presbyterian Women's Association and Mrs. Jack Crichton is pictured above as she flips the pancakes in the kitchen while a hungry crowd waits at the tables.
