

Spilling Five Pins

AT THE ACTON Bowling Lanes

High School

March 12: A new leader has taken over the top spot in the league. Hot Dogs, without a mentionable, still outboxed the Foulers and made it a three game win. It was a five pin win for Rockets over the Dumbblows in the first, but the latter got even in the second when "Ducky" Harris set them up with a 264 solo. Rockets made it a win in the third canto by three pins with "Galloping Gary" Masales rolling a pace setting 227. Dumbblows grabbed the odd point for totals. Electras and Comets followed the same pattern. Electras grabbed a first game squeaker by 24 pins, then got clobbered in the second and rallied to win the third, with Comets getting the odd point for totals. Terry Masales' 221 solo was the Electras' best trundling, with John Foley tripling a 620 and Keith Andrews soloing a 211 for Comets.

Dumbblows

Dumbblows' 89, Comets 86, Electras 85, Rockets 81, Foulers 50.

Beardmore

March 12: Second place Mugwumps did not have much success in beating the front running Hep Cats. They dropped the works. Hep Cats, with Joyce Masales 649, Lyle Cripps 617, Ken Papillon 205 and Ermo Favro 206, did not leave much to chance. Bea Anderson 630, Timmie Masales 210-218 and Bert Fowler 214 tried hard for the losers. Primroses lived up to Dennis Crooks' pre-game prediction that ere the night was done, Primroses would be in second place. In a convincing three game win from Johnny's Crew, Bob Snyder 646 (309), Helen Le Sueur 642, Dennis Crooks 215 and Arlie White 258 made it a sure thing for Primroses. Ed Parent's 688 and Johnny Robson's 210 went begging for the Crew. Lucky or no, Lucky Seven got seven points from Untouchables, who found it hard to touch off a winning string. Pat Waidie 620, John Dennis 253, Eva Williams 237-203 and Helen Yateman 211 for the winners. Bob Brown's 207 solo looked lonesome for the losers. Strike Ahead got into the all or nothing theme and parlayed Harry Roger's 609, Bill Howells' 628, Jan Vliestra's 200 and Al Pavli's 215 into a three game win. The losing Hi Hoppers tried to avert the zero count with Phil LeSueur 628, Sheldon Bennett 208 and Harry McFadden 226, but no dice.

Legion Ladies

March 12: Flip Flops rang in two fast wins on the Jets and were headed for the third win when someone threw the switch on for the Jets and they zoomed up with a last game win, to avert a shut-out. In this affair, it was a 232 solo by Lil Bradshaw of Jets that stood out. Paced by Ivy Martin's 220 in the first, No Blows grabbed a four pin win from Watch Outs. Watch Outs tried for the second with Phyl Angell's 208 heading 'em up, and Martin was in again with a 213 and No Blows snared their second win. Phyl Angell led off with a 223 for Watch Outs in the third, but Doris Angell paced the Watch Outs with a 208 and No Blows were in for a third win. The triple win was No Blows in second place. Top trio of triple trundlers for the evening's roll, Ives were Phyl Angell 650, Ivy Martin 625 and Lil Bradshaw 570.

Blue Springs

March 13: Glads, with Sophie Oehlrich hitting a 249, took the first game from the Mums. Oehlrich came back in the second with 230, but Mums had Nancy Jensen 259, Adele Nolan 207, Audrey Urquhart 209 and Willa Hewitt 248, to get the equalizer. Oehlrich was in again, rounding out a 709 triple with 230, but Mums sewed up the win plus triple plateau. Dominion Hotel totals with Nolan getting a 203 gave Tiger Cats a run for their for a 600 tricoount. Carnations, money, but when it was over, got toppled off the top rung Tiger Cats had three games with Violets taking them for two. Top in triples for T.C.'s were 619, Marjorie Gough with 231, Don Grein 773, Pete Homer 775 gave Violets the lift. Millie Stitt (308), Bill Williams 722, Mike

Bennett also rated with a 714. Firefighters caught the short-handed TenPro off base and picked up a seven-pointer. It's quite possible the tricoounts of Harry Lawson 757, Jack Pink 678 and Bill Spielvogel 648 had something to do with it. A couple of the TenPros were around - Dave Johnson 681 and Gord Coughlan 632.

League standing: Action Billiards 152, Tiger Cats 129 1/2, TenPro 100, Dominion Hotel 82, Firefighters 70 1/2, Soccer Club 12.

Acton Friends March 15: Sheila Boehme's 669 and Jack McCutcheon's 623 were all in vain for Popovers and Yakkety Yaks were a three game winner. Yakkety it up for the Yaks were Don DeForest 623, Ernie Lawson 231. The triple win moved the Yaks from fourth to second spot. Sugar Jets lost out in the first to Slowpokes, grabbed the second by 20 pins, then barreled home with the third and totals. Cooking for the Jets were "Big Jaw" Cunningham 602, Syd Lamb 226, Audrey Allison 233 and Anne Thomson 222. Going well for the Slowpokes were Orv Chapman with 743 and Edith Jennings 209. Nine pins was the margin of victory for Bell Buoys in the first with Untouchables. They stepped up their pinfall for their second win, then fell off the pace in the third, but had enough to win totals by four pins. Harold Ferguson 776 (313) was the big boy for the Buoy. Ray Atkinson 712 and "Beaver" Baxter 237 tripled and singled for Untouchables.

League standing: Popovers 101, Yakkety Yaks 93, Sugar Jets 92, Untouchables 91, Bell Buoys 77, Slowpokes 71.

Thursday Toppers March 15: Busy Bees were humming and buzzed a three game win from the Happy Hopefuls. After dropping the first two, Hopefuls made a determined bid to avert a shut-out in the third when Ivy Martin rolled up a 313 count, but fell short by three pins. Martin's 687 tricoount and Agnes Holmes' 201 single were Hopefuls' top trundling. Highlighting the Bees' win were Ruth Masales 615, Eleanor Goy 223, Edna Nellis 229, Lil Marshall paced Wishful Thinkers to a first game win with 202. Joan Schipper sparked 'em for their second win with a 201, but they dropped the third when Tiger Cats clutched enough points to avert a shut-out. Jennie Clendenning and Ada Deal with 251 and 212 in that order headed up the Cameos' two and totals win from the Blowers. Cameos grabbed the middle chukker when Mary Harness and Kate Turkus rolled a 263 and 233 in that order.

League standing: Wishful Thinkers 106, Cameos 101, Tiger Cats 93, Busy Bees 90, Blowers 89, Happy Hopefuls 88.

Sophie Oehlrich with 233 in the second and Chris Jensen's 214, plus Les Giddeman's 240 in the third, were Raiders' pay-offs. Atoms failed to spill enough pins, solo or triple wise. Turtles showed a reversal of form and instead of losing 'em all, won 'em all with Bob Martin 750, Ron Whitlam 646 and Ben Rody 200 highlighting. John Forney 225, Frank Maloney 204 and Nancy Jensen 266 clipped off the solos for Clippers. Stragglers had Eagles grounded in the first two, then the Eagles went into full flight and flew off with the last game and the odd point for totals. Another case for a ScotiaBANK Home Improvement Loan Maybe a loose shingle started it. Or worn-out weather stripping. Or a gnawing band of termites. Whatever it was, plugging a leak properly can be expensive—and, of course, the longer it's left, the more costly a repair becomes. This goes for peeling paint, crumbling concrete, and missing mortar too. Yes, keeping a house in shape sometimes costs a lot of money, and occasionally it may cost more than you have on hand. What then? The answer may be a ScotiaBank Home Improvement Loan... money you can borrow at low interest for repairs... or for extra bedrooms, a garage, a carport, modern heating, new and up-to-date plumbing—things that maintain or improve your home as an investment. Just call at your nearest branch of The Bank of Nova Scotia. See the manager. He will welcome the opportunity to discuss how a ScotiaBank Home Improvement Loan can help you.
