While there they had a happy reunion with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dredge and family of Sagawey, now living at Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.

Five-Year-Old Wins TV Pony

Tomorrow five-year-old Jimmy Lynch will be the proud owner of a pony.

He won the purebred Shetland pony on Hamilton television station CHCI's Captain Andy Show Tuesday and it is being delivered to his Meadevale Road home Friday.

He is the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Lynch and the whole family is thrilled about the prize, even though they don't know yet where they'll house the animal.

New Dog, Too
And just last Saturday they brought home a hound dog. Jimmy is in the morning kindergarten class at the M. Z. Bennett school.

He was phoned Tuesday during the television show when his name was drawn. A spin of a wheel would determine the winner, and he was asked how he'd like the wheel spin. His voice was heard over television directing, "Spin it fast!"

They had many phone calls afterwards congratulating them.

Stewardship Director Describes Allotments

Members of the Brotherhood of Anglican Churchmen were hosts for the congregational meeting Wednesday evening of last week which followed Holy Eucharist at the church of St. Alban the Martyr, Tom Lynch, B.A.C. president, chaired the meeting in the parish hall and coffee was served afterwards.

Guest speaker was the director of stewardship for the diocese, Harold Llewellyn of Hamilton who spoke of the appointment of church money. He especially referred to the missionary allotment and church expansion.

Men's Wear Store Opens

Ken Mann, owner of the Cameo Shoppe for ladies, is branching out into the men's clothing business. Tomorrow (Friday) he opens the "Ken Mann Esquire Men's Wear" store adjoining the Cameo Shoppe on Mill St. The new store is located where Adams Furniture store was and will have a door leading through to the Cameo Shoppe. A new, modern front has been added, shelving and dressing rooms installed. Lloyd Gohn will manage the store for Mr. Mann and has been in Toronto the past week gaining more experience in the business. The store will feature student's clothes as well as boys' and men's.

Mr. Mann just began his business venture in Acton when he purchased the Clansman Restaurant. After selling out he bought the ladies' store owned by the late Ralph Pallant. He is also office manager with Baxter Laboratories, formerly of Acton, and now in Alliston.

For his opening, Mr. Mann is holding a treasure hunt and the winner will receive a prize.

Plan Milestone Tea, Bazaar During Ladies' Aid Meeting

The home of Mrs. N. McKenzie was the meeting place recently for the March meeting of the Ladies' Aid.

The devotional "Faith makes people strong" was taken by Mrs. C. Jackson. In this was emphasized that Christ is the Light of the World. We are always in need of good cheer; for God, whose power makes the holdest faith look small, never fails.

The roll call was in the form of a Question Box. This not only proved interesting but very enlightening to the 16 members present. Final plans were made for the Milestone Tea and bazaar to be held in April.

Motto and program which were prepared by Mrs. Howard were taken on Saturday. Recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. M. Jackson, Mrs. Barden, Mrs. Lansley, and Mr. C. Storey, West Hill, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Middleton of Acton; Mrs. M. Jackson's guests during the week included - Mrs. Wm. Nevills, Orton, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Donaldson, Waldemar; Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Watson, Mrs. George C. Dickshank, Miss Gertrude Watson, Hillsburgh; Mrs. Clark Winter, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Murray Millson and family of Guelph.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Boersma and family of Huttonville spent the weekend with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. Klooster. Mr. John Van der Vliet returned home on Saturday following a fourteen day visit with relatives in Holland.

KATHY MCKENZIE won the public speaking contest sponsored by the Robert Little and M. Z. Bennett public schools Monday. The 13-year-old winner is a grade eight student at the Robert Little School and will compete against Milton speakers for a chance at the Halton County championship. She is pictured above with a pen and pencil set presented by Acton Hydro Commission, co-sponsors of the contest. Her topic: Sir John A. Macdonald.

Star Performer in Best Quartette Norman Elliott Gets Top Prize

Last Friday evening the double parlors of Knox Mansie were filled to capacity with games tables, to accommodate the members of the choir, with their husbands and wives, who were gathered in a farewell party for Mr. and Mrs. Norman Elliott who are leaving at the end of the month, having purchased a farm near Arthur, Crakinole, scrabble, checkers - old-time and Chinese - and other games tested the skill of the participants.

The final event was a quartette contest, each entry being composed of the four who happened to be at that time, at each table. Ted Hansen accompanied on the piano, as each quartette sang the chosen number. Of course the prize went to the group which included Mr. Elliott, whose fine baritone voice and faithful attendance have been such a source of inspiration and delight in the service of praise.

Special Prize
Three members of the quartette received packets of hastenotes, while Mr. Elliott the star performer, was presented with a fine leather billfold, by Hugh O'Rourke, president, on behalf of the choir.

Mr. Elliott expressed the pleasure he had experienced in his association with Knox Church choir and promised return visits. After a delightful lunch, Clarence Coles conveyed to Rev. and Mrs. McKenzie the appreciation of the guests for the use of their hospitable home.

On Sunday morning, in answer to requests from the congregation, Mr. Elliott sang the beautiful solo, "How Great Thou Art."

Members of the Canadian electrical appliances trade mission to Europe left last week. Mr. Harold R. Force among them. They were briefed in Ottawa before leaving.

Lilting Waltzes Revived by Band

Adult skaters Sunday evening enjoyed the music of Acton Citizens' Band for the first time this season.

During the evening the band received a request to play a medley of old time waltzes. The music for the waltzes was dusted off and rehearsed only briefly by the bandsmen before visiting the arena and president Ted Tyler J. reported it was the first time the once-popular music had been used for some time.

Following the skating the Adult Skating Club treated the band to coffee and sandwiches.

Distribute Daffodils Mothering Sunday

The Rev. Donald West is instituting a traditional observance of Mothering Sunday at the 11 a.m. Choral Eucharist Sunday - the blessing and distribution of flowers to mothers. Children will come to the front to bring the blossoms back to their mothers and the rector will distribute them to mothers whose children are not there.
