Radio Used First At Esquing Fire

Acton firefighters made a dusty run early Tuesday afternoon when they raced down the fourth line of Esquing to battle a stubborn grass fire at McDonald's dump.

Apparently flames from rubbish burning at the dump spread to dry grass nearby and before long were cracking across two fields to nearby trees.

Radio Career Starts
The new fire radio system in the fire truck was used for the first time when the men at the fire reported back to the hall. They also heard on the radio the Georgetown firemen calling back to their fire hall for more men to help battle the Stewart town blaze which was destroying a house.

Moving Speaker Rev. A. Stein At Baptist Church Crusade

The Spiritual Life Crusade at Acton Baptist Church all this week is held in conjunction with the "Simultaneous evangelism" campaign in all Baptist Churches in Ontario and Quebec.

Special speaker is the Rev. Alexander B. Stein who was the Rev. J. Ruidl's own pastor in Niagara Falls when he decided to go into the ministry. Mr. Stein went from there to Hamilton where he is pastor of Phillips Memorial Church, Hamilton. He speaks often at Bible conferences, and is noted for his evangelistic speaking. He has travelled recently to the United States to speak.

Praise In Music
There is special music each evening Monday the choir led by Mrs. Helen Landborough with Charles Landborough playing the organ, sang "Love Your Eyes upon Jesus" and "The Father's Shepherd." For day before yesterday played the euphonium, and Mr. and Mrs. Ruidl sang a duet. On Wednesday the choir again had two special numbers.

The crusade continues tonight and Friday concluding at the two services on Sunday.

Mr. Stein did not announce his subjects. A very forceful and capable speaker, he has clearly inspired those who have heard him so far.

Everyone Invited
The congregation and pastor have invited everyone to come to these inspiring services. Cards were delivered door-to-door to assure everyone of a welcome.

Mr. Ruidl hopes this crusade will reach people for Christ and knows it is deepening Christians in their faith and broadening their vision in regard to the needs of the world for Christ.

A swimming pool project has been started in Milton, with the Legion Branch and other service organizations cooperating to raise the necessary funds.

Specially-Composed Poem Read To Mrs. E. J. Hassard as Farewell

On Tuesday afternoon of last week, as Mrs. E. J. Hassard in answer to an invitation, stepped over the threshold at the home of Mrs. D. J. Moran, Arthur St., she was very much surprised to find the living room filled with people. Recovering from her amazement, she recognized, one by one, her friends from the Women's Missionary Society and Ladies' Aid of Knox Presbyterian Church, who had come to spend the afternoon with her, before she departs to her new home in Oakville.

After enjoying an informal "togetherness", Mrs. Hassard was addressed by Isabel Anderson who read the following:

POEM TO FRIENDSHIP
Today we've come together to bid you as you go,
To trade the scent of leather for mighty oaks that grow;
But though we know you're leaving 'tis not forevermore,
So there must be no grieving, but simply "au revoir".

Though not within our hailing, and not within our sight,
You're on our list of waiting, in our prayer each night,
For friendship's ties are holding, each link is firm and true,
And mortised in a moulding that makes a frame for you.

So, though the way seems dreary and though the road looks long,
Take courage and be strong;
For loved ones gone before us are walking with us yet,
Their love is ever over us, and love will not forget.

The rose is all the sweeter for the dew which on it lies,
And life can be completer for a few nostalgic sighs,
Each day the sun rises, until the journey's end,
And there'll be glad surprises, just waiting 'round the bend.

Accept this little token of friendship and of love,
These words, so easily spoken, hide knowledge we would provide.
