High School
 March 19: Wink "Ducky" Harris setting a hot pace with a 721 triple, plus Vic Roach's 221 single, Dunblowins grabbed a two and totals win from the top place Hot Dogs and are sharing the top spot as a result. Ted Waltho and Mike Rogers both checked in with a 245 single for Hot Dogs. Electras are crowding the leaders when Rockets failed to take off and Electras, with Terry Masales' 675 pacing them, took a seven-pointer. Jill Hurst tried to set off the Rockets with 205-209, but no go. Foulers were getting it but good from Comets and Comets, with the first two games to their credit, were all set to win the third but Foulers got it by 17 pins. The high triples and singles were a minus quality in this affair.
League standing: Hot Dogs 94, Dunblowins 94, Electras 92, Comets 91, Rockets 81, Foulers 52.

Boardroom
 March 19: Him that hath gets, or something. Anyhow, the front running Hep Cats picked up another seven points, this time at the expense of the lowly Untouchables. Ermo Favro was the happiest of the Cats with a 734 (333) triple. This was helped out by Millie Fabian 250 and Joyce Masales 237. Incidentally, that 333 of Ermo's is a new single record for the men. Fred Cripps soloed for the losers with 231. Strike Aheads were another seven point winner when they tangled with Lucky 7 and we question the lucky part. Roger Murray 639, Al Pavli 686, Steve Flisnik 205 and "Wild Bill" Howell 201 were striking 'em for the winners. For the "Seven", Pat Waldie 655, Eva Williams 602, John Dennis 604 and Helen Yateman 204 were up for better or worse. Mugwumps came up with a two and totals win from Primroses with Tinnie Masales 672, Sonny Townsley 648, Bill Buchanan 200, Ben Anderson 243, Don Woods 240-204 and Bert Fowler 264 swamping the pins down. Primroses had the share of good scores: Agie White 745, Dennis Crooks 600, Harold Fabian 208, Hec Lambert 201. Hi Hopps hopped on Johnny's Crew for the big part of a 5-2 go with Phil LeSueur 699, Ben Bayliss 216 doing the chief hopping. Hi Hopps would have grabbed three games but the Crew sneaked in a second game win by eight pins. Joyce Buchanan's 236 solo was the yoner for the Crew.

League standing: Hep Cats 117, Primroses 99, Mugwumps 97, Strike Aheads 94, Lucky Seven 73, Hi Hopps 72, Johnny's Crew 63, Untouchables 57.

Legion Ladies
 March 19: Mighty close race in the Legion Ladies. Two points and two points only separate the first and last team. Watch Outs were the big winners of the night when they made every game a winning one from Flip Flops. Sylvia Foley's 228 solo for Flip Flops was top trundling in the affair. Despite a 603 tricount from Ivy Martin, No Blows had to be content with a one game win from Jets. Lil Bradshaw with a 205 solo was Jets' best individual effort. Not crowding Martin for high triple honors, but next in line, were Phyllis Angell 531 and Sylvia Foley 521.
League Standing: Flip Flops 85, Watch Outs 84 1/2, Jets 83 1/2, No Blows 83.

Blue Springs
 March 20: Mums are still grimly hanging onto their one point lead for first place. It took a two and totals win from Violets to do it. Mums were packing in the scores for their wins. Adele Nolan 677, which included a new league single record of 315, Nancy Jensen 654, Audrey Urquhart 225, Betty Hardie 231, Willa Hewitt 236 and Peggy DeBruyn 202 were the packers. Mary Daley 204-225 and Cheryl Phillips 215 were Violets' best. Carnations stayed on the heels of the leaders with their two and totals win from Asters. They had a chance to take over the top spot, but dropped the all important third game by eight pins. Millie Stitt 625, Wanetta Smith 213-218 paced the Carnations. Asters had a couple of solos. Lois Brown 208 and Beryl Jordan 218. Roses were not exactly blooming in beauty, but they blossomed out with a three game win from the Glads, who took it on the chin, despite Sophie Oehrich's 635 and Thelma Vale's 229. Heading up the Roses' win were Eleanor Goy 211, Marg Woodhouse 213 and Janice Withers 208.
League standing: Mums 108, Carnations 107, Violets 94, Glads 81, Roses 77, Asters 58.

Micro Plastic
 March 20: Hi Impacts got by with a 17-pin win in the first, dropped the second, and bounced back to annex the third and totals, to hang-onto-their-top-spot. "Boots" Grischow 653, Mary Cooney 640, along with Paddy Dick's 209 single, spotlighted the Impacts' win. The losing Geons came up with a couple of solos, Andy Pidone 241 and Joan Knight 202. Bell Ringers rang up a two game win from Flexibles, but lost out for the singleton for totals when Flexibles came up with a hot middle game. Leo McGilloyway 657 and Jack Cooney 652 were the hot shots for Bell Ringers. Jim Gibson cracked out a 731 (330) for Flexibles. Fred Mellor backed it up with a 617. Scrappers beat the Die Beaters. For three games with the middle chucker being mighty close. One lonely little pin was the margin of victory. Hank Earle was the big man for Scrappers with 702. The solos of Herb Cook 222, Orval Darby 229 (finally made it, huh, Orv?), Hugo Schmidt 217 and Earl Waller 212 came in handy. The singles of Heinz Schubert 211, Rosemary Cook 223 and Cyril Leighton 209 were worthy efforts for Die Beaters, but not enough to get them into windland. After looking over the scores, maybe Fred Allen was right when he said he should "have stood in bed".
League standing: Hi Impacts 94, Bell Ringers 90, Scrappers 89, Geons 87, Die Beaters 83, Flexibles 83.

Industrial-Commercial
 March 21: Al's Snack Bar regained top spot, courtesy of Firefighters, who failed to win a game. Don Grein 747 and "Wily Willo" Near 711 did not harm the Snack Bar cause. Eric Lawson stood out for the Firefighters with 610. A-1 Delivery were in a fair way to hang onto the top spot but Ledger's I.G.A. got the word in the third canto and powered home a big one, to win one and totals. A-1's top triple shooters crapped up in Bob Agnew 704 (300), Carl DeForest 698 and Had De Forest 680. In the triple ledger for Ledger's were Jim Baulough 732, Frank Irvine 712 and Bill Shannons 645. The fourth playoff spot continues to be a tussle between Paul's Men's Wear and Reliable Taxi, with Reliable Taxi taking over this trip with a two and totals win from the "Haberdashery Crew". Fred Kentner 778 and Jeff Fryer 714 hopped up the Taxi with "Scutch" McCutcheon was there in the clutch for Paul's with a 629 triple. For the rest of the Paul's, it was a case of "Car 54, where are you?".
League standing: Al's Snack Bar 116, A-1 Delivery 115, Ledg-er's I.G.A. 112, Reliable Taxi 103, Paul's Men's Wear 101, Firefighters 20.

Action Ladies
 March 21: It's Lovell Brus. back in first place with a two and totals win from Prouse Motors. Norma Robinson set the pace for Lovell's with a 663. The Prouse outfit singled a couple of solos — Charlotte Holmes 203 and Stef Pechka 235. Camcoos came off the top rung when they got the short end of a 5-2 go with Lamb Real Estate. Lambs' individual scores were on the up-grade with Dodie McGilloyway 633, Kitty Allen 211, Pauline Her-rington 212. Despite being on the short end, Camcoos flashed a trio of triples — Marie Mellor 615, Joan Barr 608, Helen Ottebein 617. The Vets grabbed off some needed points with a two and totals win from McCallum's Service. A trio of solos helped the Vets — Peggy Lawson 207, Laverna McEachern 200 and Verna Arbie 274. Marion Storey cracked the triple barrier for McCallum's with 629 and on the single plateau were Peg Ballentine 236 and Pat Patrick 215.
League standing: Lovell Brus 92, Camcoo 90, Prouse Motors 88, McCallum Services 87, The Vets 84, Lamb Real Estate 84.

Action Major
 March 22: With Jeff Fryer running up 330-299-308 (937) for a new league triple record and Leo McGilloyway packing in a 538 double, Action Billiards continued their headlong pace and won all games from TenPro. The last season's champs tried to get even in the second when Ivy Martin chalked up a 226. Martin rounded out a 607 triple with a 218 in the third and it was a two and totals win for Hopefuls. Nancy Jensen went on the prowl for Tiger Cats with 200 and the Cats were in for the first win. Verna Arbie came up with a 228 in the second, but Blowers made it by cleaning the pin-decks. The Cats got behind Jensen's 221 in the finale, to round off a two and totals win. Camcoos gained ground on the leaders with a two game win from the Busy Bees. Eleanor Goy singled a 224 for the Bees and it gave them a 21-pin margin for the odd point for totals. Next in line to Ivy Martin's 607 for triple honors were Nancy Jensen 551 and Pudge Jordan 546.

League standing: Wishful Thinkers 108, Camcoos 105, Tiger Cats 98, Busy Bees 93, Happy Hopefuls 93, Blowers 91.

Thursday Toppers
 March 22: Eve Cooper's 203 paced Wishful Thinkers to a first game win over Happy Hopefuls in the first. Hopefuls got even in the second when Ivy Martin chalked up a 226. Martin rounded out a 607 triple with a 218 in the third and it was a two and totals win for Hopefuls. Nancy Jensen went on the prowl for Tiger Cats with 200 and the Cats were in for the first win. Verna Arbie came up with a 228 in the second, but Blowers made setback when they lost one and totals to Mavericks. Flintstones are up for a third place tie when they plucked the Eagles for a two-game win. Eagles stood a chance in the second, but fell shy by 10 pins. The boys took over top spots in the "Big Ten" this week. Making it were Terry Churchill 233-140 (373), Bob Turkosz 215-135 (350), Rita McCre 129-162 (291), Gail Breen 103-186 (289), Cavell Marshall 121-153 (275), Wendy Almond 119-154 (273), Sandra Slingerland 140-130 (270), Sandra Franklin 130-135 (265), Bob Browne 141-120 (261), Barbara McEachern 133-122 (255).

League standing: Devils 86, Lucky Strikes 70, Mavericks 68, Flintstones 68, Eagles 51, Reptiles 47.

Headpin Hillies
 With the inter-county bowlers, it was the Acton Merchants travelling to Brampton, where they won a two and totals go from the Brampton Briars. Acton Combines, at home to the Georgetown outfit, came off with a zero count. The Actonettes jaunted to Dixie Plaza Bowl and were the best for two and totals from the Dixie Debs. Adele Nolan scored a double in the matter of awards. Her 667 triple, which included a 315 single, won both the Streetsville
