

Spilling Five Pins

AT THE ACTON Bowling Lanes

by Ken Hiltford

High School
April 9: Electras needed their two and totals win from Hot Dogs to stay on the top rung. At that, they have to share it with Comets, who won three games from Rockets. Turning on the winning switch for Electras were Terry Masales 629 and Donna Pendleton 273. Donna's single, incidentally, is a new single record for the girls. Keith Andrews with a hot 716 tricon was a one man gang for the Comets in their triple win. Gary Masales fashioned a 207 single for the Rockets. Dunblowins made it a two and totals win from Foulers and singles. Foulers annexed the misdeed chukker by 10 pins when Murray, Smith by name, unleashed a 207 solo.

League standing: Electras 109, Comets 109, Hot Dogs 104, Dunblowins 101, Rockets 85, Foulers 59.

Beardmore
April 9: Ernie Favro 607 and Eddie Jank 602, plus Lyle Cripps 219 solo, paced Hep Cats to a two and totals win over the Hi Hoppers who, on the strength of Phil LeSueur 686, Ben Bayliss 243 and Harry McFadden 210, had to be content with winning a single. Primroses hung onto second place with a two and totals win from Lucky Seven. Almost won the three but missed out in the third game by 16 pins. Arlie White 654, Frances Crooks 653, Helen LeSueur 202 and Dennis Crooks 205 tripled and singled for Primroses. Pat Waldie 626, John Dennis 221, Helen Yatenam 226 and Jake Vandervooy 232 were in a like category for the Seven. Mugs wumps bumped Strike Aheads out of second place when they came off best in a 5-2 go. Tinnie Masales 778 (315), Bert "Fireman" Fowler 666, Bea Anderson 230-205 and Sonny Townsley 200 headed up the Mugwumps' win. Strike Aheads were not amiss for triples and singles. Roger Murray 650, "Big Al" Pavil 615, "Wild Bill" Howell 210, getting 'em. Johnny's, crew cake-walked to a seven point win from the short-handed Untouchables, with Howie Janks' 282 solo standing out. Archie Papillon 208 and Chuck Sunter 239 gave it the old college try for the losers.

League standing: Hep Cats 132, Primroses 110, Mugwumps - 109, Strike Aheads 108, Lucky Seven 85, Hi Hoppers 81, Johnny's Crew 70, Untouchables 61.

Legion Ladies
April 9: Flip Flops cut Watch Outs down to size when, after dropping the first game by nine pins, they swung into high gear and won the next two and totals. Helen Jockue's 233 solo was Flip Flops' best. Phyllis Angell tripled for Watch Outs with 656. No Blows were also on the two and totals kick, with Jets being the victims. Ivy Martin's 685 triple and Doris Angell's 211 solo, along with Jean Bullough's 213, blew up the No Blows' pinfall. Jets' third game win was headed up by the solos of Marg Coker 207 and Fern Shultis 208.

League standing: Watch Outs 96½, No Blows 95, Flip Flops 95, Jets 91½.

Blue Springs
April 10: Carnations are still leading in the stretch run, two and totals win from Violets keeping them three points ahead of the Mums. Jennie Clendenning and Millie Stitt were the top flighters for Carnations with 612 and 651 in that order, with Wanda Smith singling a 221 for good measure. The Gough girls did their sister act for Violets, with Maxine getting a 216 and Marj a 272. Cheryl Phillips rounded out the trio of solos with a 236. Glads are still making a bid for the fourth playoff spot. They won the first from Mums, but Mums shut them out in the next two of the big share of a 5-2 go. Adele Nolan's 687, Audrey Urquhart's 620 and Nancy Jensen's 280 for Mums didn't give Glads much of a chance. Sophie Oehrich 636 and Verma Churchill 209 tripled and singled for Glads. Asters did their best to clip the Roses, but after winning the first game, fell by the wayside, and it was Roses for two and totals, with Joanne Triscoe 208, Shirley Hunter 200 and Janice Withers 210 sparking the win. Asters' top scores did not make the "mentionables".

League standing: Carnations 123, Mums 120, Violets 103, Roses 92, Glads 88, Asters 62.

Micro Plastic
April 10: Hi Impacts are in high gear for that first place finish and a two and totals win from Die Beaters keeps 'em rolling. Mary Cooney 635, Kurt Haefer 236, Herman Bessam 7 and Elsa Macke 238 were Impacts' highs. Herb Schubert 234-206, Cyril Leighton 211 and Bill Eling 258 were on the single pin team for Die Beaters. Elsie Schmidt's 229 solo was Flexibles' top score, but they made it a two and totals win from Geons. Geons had the scores but not the games. Joan Knight 681 and Bob Drinkwater 225. Bell Rangers rang the win-bell for two games against the Scrappers, but Scrappers had the pinfall for the odd totals point by 29 pins. Lea McGiloway winged a 797 (358) for the Ringers, with Bob Altonby soloing a 204. In a like vein for Scrappers were Hank Earle 657, Ena Gibson 250 and Hugo Schmidt 206.

League standing: Hi Impacts 106, Flexibles 100, Geons 100, Bell Ringers 97, Scrappers 94, Die Beaters 92.

Industrial-Commercial
April 11: It was a rip snorting finish with the Industrial-Commercialists. Ledger's I.G.A. grabbed off seven points from the Firefighters to finish in a top spot tie with Al's Snack Bar, who went for a two and totals win from Reliable Taxi. A-1 Delivery and Paul's Men's Wear, who started off the night in third and fourth spot respectively, finished all snarled up in the second round when the "Haberdashery Boys" slammed the A-Oners down for a no count loss. This necessitates a special roll-off to decide first, second, third and fourth spot. Seems as there is some financial rewards in the order of the finish. To dwell upon the individual performances, in the Ledger's Firefighters go, it was Bill Shannon 743 (308), Martin Oehrich 618 and Wayne Kelly 620 copping the tricon honors. With the Luncheon and Taxi outfits' affair it was Don Grein 717, Bill Williams 707 (321), Russ Morton 652 and Jeff Fryer 621 for top triples. Hitting the triple plateau in the A-1 - Paul's Men's Wear hassle were "Ducky" Harris 682, "Scutch" McCutcheon 723 (316), Leo McGiloway 663, Carl DeForest 609, Bob Taylor 604, Had DeForest 641.

League standing: Al's Snack Bar 128, Ledger's I.G.A. 128, A-1 Delivery 120, Paul's Men's Wear 120, Reliable Taxi 114, Firefighters 20.

FLASH: In a special three-game roll-off - First place Al's Snack Bar beat Ledger's I.G.A., 3320 pinfall to 3044; third place, A-1 Delivery beat Paul's Men's Wear, 3091 pinfall to 2727.

Action Ladies
April 11: It's still anybody's race in the Action Ladies and Cameos regained the top spot with a two game win from McCallum Services. Cameos grabbed the second chukker by two pins and McCallum's, with a big first game, annexed the odd point for totals. Pat Frizzell 656, Marion Stoney 216, Peg Ballentine 219 headed up the "Mats" scoring. Cameos went on a solo hop, Marie Mellor 200-217, Jean McPhail 249, Marg Toth 246-223. Prouse Motors did a little free wheeling at the expense of the Vets, with Nan Hurst 200, Stef Pyscha 218-200 singling. Verma Arbic soloed for the Vets with 214. This'll please Sydnev K. Lamb - his "little lambs" were the big winners of the night with a seven-point win from Lovell Bros. Ina Mellon

League standing: Cameos 101, McCallum Services 98, Prouse Motors 98, Lamb Real Estate 98, Lovell Bros. 97, The Vets 96.

Action Major
April 12: Action Billiards already had first place sewn up, but that didn't stop them from winning a two and totals go from the Firefighters. The "hose boys" surprised the "cue boys" when they won the first canto by seven pins. Fred Kenner 680, Leo McGiloway 682 and Jeff Fryer 675 were the top-flighters for Billiards. John Krapek 720 and Jack Pink 625 were up for Firefighters' triples. Tiger Cats made it a two and totals win from TenPro, with Bill Williams 814, Jack Bullough 686 and Norm Morton 640 heading up the win. TenPro were not adverse to the triples, with Phil LeSueur 711, Gord Coughlan 706 (301) and Ken Johnson 616 getting 'em. Larry Nolan gave his Soccer Club a show of leadership with 669, but it was to no avail. They dropped the works to Dominion Hotel, who had Hank Earle with 660 pacing the win.

League standing: Action Billiards 173, Tiger Cats 146½, TenPro 112, Dominion Hotel 95, Firefighters 84½, Soccer Club 19.

Action Friends
April 12: Popovers are popping off the points and they picked up another seven points at the expense of the Yakkety Yaks. Had-DeForest 247, Beth Brears 200 and Stella Brunelle 205 singled up the win. Ernie Lawson soloed a 209 for Yaks. Bell Buys were a two game winner from Untouchables, but they dropped the odd point for totals by 20 pins. Harold Ferguson with 276 was top soloer and the only one to Bell Buys. Untouchables did better. They had Bonnie Blackley 207, "Beaver" Baxter 272 and Ray Atkinson 206 - 219. Sugar Jets grabbed a 22-pin win from Slowpokes in the first, won the second by plenty and then dropped the third. John Cunningham 630 and Anne Thomson 242 tripled and singled for the Jets. On the solo kick for Slowpokes were Gary DeBryun 203 and Ken Thomson 225.

League standing: Popovers 124, Untouchables 106, Sugar Jets 103, Yakkety Yaks 99, Bell Buys 97, Slowpokes 80.

Thursday Toppers
April 12: Tiger Cats' three game pinfall of 2409 gives them a nice edge to carry into the final three games. Verma Arbic 616, Nancy Jensen 224-203 and Marg Guest 225 highlighted the roll. Cameos, with 2307, hold down second spot. Ada Peal's 203 solo topped Cameos' efforts. Wishful Thinkers, sans the triples and singles (big ones, that is) are in the third slot with 2211. Happy Hopfuls' 2040 roll gives a slight edge for the fourth place. Ivy Martin's 212 single headed up their trundling. Not too far behind are Blowers with 2020, who failed to crack the triple or single barrier. Last, but not least, are Busy Bees with a 2015 count who, if they can only get the triples and singles they are capable of, will give a better account of themselves in the final three games.

Action Mixed
April 13: A close finish in the Action Mixed - seven points difference between top and bottom. Raiders grabbed the top spot with a two game win from Clippers, who added the odd point for totals to their one game win. Sparking the Raiders' win were Sophie Oehrich 643, Gerry Funk 624, Les Gidman 212-224, Pearl Jackson 215. Spotlighting the Clippers' bowling were John Foley 729 (308), Don Earle 206, Jerry Martin 214 and Dot Thompson 213-208 look care of Forbes Cole's 203 and Stragglers made every game a winning one. They had a close shave in the second, six pins being the winning margin. Eagles were doing some high flying, winwise. They won the first two from Turtles, but missed the brass ring in the third. George Gidman 663, Bob Lazenby 633 triconed for the Eagles, with Betty Cole getting in for a 208 solo. Mavericks plucked a few feathers from the Eagles in the first, seven pins deciding the issue, then completely defeated them in the second, to win all the marbles. Reptiles finally found themselves and came up with a double win from the Lucky Strikes, who were wondering what it was all about. LETTER TO THE EDITOR
Seek Donation to Send Retarded Off to Camp
55 Stevens Cresc., Georgetown, Ontario, April 12th, 1962.

Dear Sir:
Holiday time will soon be here and we of the North Halton Association for Retarded Children are making arrangements for pupils of the Sunshine School to attend summer camp. Previously we have shared the facilities of Camp Bellwood, Guelph, but due to the many communities sharing Camp Bellwood only two pupils have been able to attend from North Halton for a fee of $75, each for a three week period. Owing to the fact that only two pupils have attended in the past it has not been too difficult to meet this cost.

This year, for the first time, we are invited to send as many pupils as we wish to Camp Westall, Ayr near Paris, Ontario. This Camp boasts a water front for safe bathing and a sandy beach. Excellent supervision is provided with one councillor to every three campers. Activities include swimming, crafts, dramatics, games, and nature study. There is plenty of free time and rest. Chalet type accommodation is available, with all food linen being supplied by the camp. Laundry is done when necessary and good food in plenty at an inclusive cost of $60. for a three week period. It is our intention to send as many pupils as we can afford.

As everyone is aware the Association is presently engaged in furnishing the new school which is now under construction on the Seventh Line. Due to these circumstances may I, on behalf of the Association make a plea to all service clubs, church groups and individuals to make a donation. If full sponsorship for one child is not possible any contribution no matter how small will be greatly appreciated.

Contributions will provide not only immeasurable happiness, but a chance to swim; give them a measure of independence an opportunity to develop good social habits; and provide further opportunities to develop muscular co-ordination.

These children need and will certainly appreciate the opportunity of such a beneficial holiday. Will you please help?
(Mrs.) P. Hurst, Public Relations, Chairman for N.H.A. for R.C.
P.S. Contributions may be sent to the above address.

Headpin Hillies
Cleaning the cuff in short order, Adele Nolan scored a double Her 687 triple, which included a 286 single, won the Streetsville Dry Cleaners and Ledger's I.G.A. awards. "Big Red" Williams hit the high spot with his 814 triple to pick up the Paul's Clothing award. With the Teen-n-Unders, in the matter of bowling best over their averages to win the refreshing refreshments of Coca-Cola, Seven Up and Reinharth, it was Bryan Dunn, Gary Turkosz, Jeanette Spires and Karen Perkins. With most leagues winding up their schedules and hitting the playoffs, bowlers' thoughts are turning to their banquets and tournaments and there is gold in "them that tour-nament". If a bowler can get hot. A favorite with the sharpshooters from Acton is the O'Connor Bowl Open, which goes May 12 to May 26. It's a five-pin scratch singles, with $15,000 up for the taking. That winds it up, amigos. Adios.
