FIREMEN HAD a busy weekend fighting grass fires and one chimney fire, Tuesday evening they doused what started out as a grass fire and ended up a blazing inferno of old telephone poles. The fire started from burning rubbish and caught on to the grass and spread to the poles, at the farm home of O. Moffat, fifth line. Capt. Alf Doby is pictured above as he used the booster line on the blaze.

600 Congregations Included In Church Chain of Prayer

Easter service at the local Church of Christ Disciples commenced Wednesday morning, when the local congregation joined in the chain of prayer, sponsored by the churches throughout the Brotherhood in Canada and United States. This commenced New Year's eve and concluded at Easter, at which time over 600 congregations participated.

The sanctuary, open from 6:00 a.m. to noon for prayer and meditation, was especially arranged—a small cross entwined with Easter lilies was the focal point behind the open Bible; baskets of white and yellow mums added to the beauty.

A large congregation attended the Easter Sunday morning service with the minister, Rev. Byron T. Howlett in charge.

Special music included a vocal duet by Mrs. Byron Howlett and Mr. Don Black of Guelph, and a number by the Junior Choir, "The Day of Resurrection" with Miss Marilyn Kingsbury at the organ.

Theme of Mr. Howlett's message was "The Joy of the Resurrection" based on John 20:20. The speaker stated that this is a sea-
