Away Off Just how agricultural is Halton? Make a guess: what percentage of the population is farmers? Sandy Best asked this one at the Free Press office this week and got answers away off. "Only 39 percent," he announced.

Crown Attorney, County Judge Die W. I. Dick, 93, who had operated a legal practice for 59 years and was Halton crown attorney for 45 years, died at his home in Milton Sunday. A school there was named for him.

Retired Halton county judge Wilson Nelson Robinson, 68, a former mayor of Oakville and Halton county councillor, also died Sunday in Oakville. He retired in 1961 and was replaced by Judge George Elliott.

Calvary When Jesus went to Calvary To hang upon a cross, The triumph of the enemy Was but their deepest loss.

They tortured Him with nail and taunt, Their hatred black as hell, And, at fulfillment of their want, They murmured, "It is well."

They did not know the majesty Of His redeeming grace, Nor could they, in their blindness, see The beauty of His face:

But He, though standing on the brink Of an inglorious tomb, In agony could only think Of their impending doom;

And, selflessly, could not condemn The tragedy they wove, His supplication was for them, His heart so full of love.

SCOOPS

From Speyside School

On Tuesday, April 17, the annual Halton Music Festival was held in the auditorium of the Robert Little public school in Acton. Along with many other schools, Speyside joined in the spirit of friendly competition and outwitted representatives in four different classes.

The junior and senior choirs are to be heartily congratulated for bringing home the honors. Both groups were presented with shields for taking second place in each of their respective classes. Although they did not place, the members of the triple trio and triple duet are to be commended for their valiant effort on behalf of our school.

All who took part in the music festival should be proud of the showing they made for their respective schools.

Easter Story Room 1 - The class is putting forth a good effort in arithmetic. Mrs. Rogivaldsen read the Easter story and Mrs. McInerney acted it out on the flannel board, which everyone enjoyed. Each pupil made an Easter bunny out of paper pie plates, scraps and crepe paper, which turned out very well. They are all eagerly awaiting the 10 day Easter holiday.

Room 2 - This Friday for act, we made pussy willows. We cut out pictures of pussies, colored them and put them on colored paper. Some of the pictures were put up at the back. Paul Newell and Barry Breen have their pictures on the door. There is a chick right above them. I think it looks very attractive.

Baseball Teams Room 3 - For P.T., we have chosen four baseball teams. The names are Speyside Flyers, Sluggers, Halton County Giants and the Little Beavers. A schedule has been arranged and the best team will get a prize at the end of the year. The grade four pupils from our room who were in the junior choir were very happy when they won second prize at the music festival.

Room 4 - Last Thursday for art, we made Easter decorations. Most of them were very interesting. Lately, Mrs. Kidney has been paying us quite a few visits to practise for the festival. Room 4 is looking forward to the Easter holidays.

Room 5 - In history, grade 8 is learning about what the British North America Act states about education in Canada. Grade 7 is taking about the federal government of the United States in the late 1700's. Grade 7 is studying the topic of beef cattle in science, while grade 8 is learning about plants and gardens.

Two Dancers Guests Of Unit Four, U.C.W. Peter and Sharon Martingale danced for the members of unit four of the United Church Women Wednesday of last week. Mrs. Mel McCullough accompanied their two numbers.

Mrs. A. Orr took the devotional. Members were asked to bring articles for a bake-feeding packed this week. The group is raising money through a travelling basket.

Magazine Crackdown By District Police North Halton O.P.P. have been checking local newsstands, searching for and listing lewd or obscene magazines in a crackdown on objectionable literature.

Their findings are being reported to Crown Attorney P. K. McWilliams, and if objections are registered the books will be shown to a judge and a warrant for their burning will be issued. Crown Attorney McWilliams said this week that "most dealers have shown excellent co-operation by taking these magazines off the stands."
