children dressed again in their First Communion attire marched into the church while the organist, Miss Irene Mulholland, played "Tis the Month of Our Mother", sung by the Junior Choir under the direction of Mrs. E. Heffernan. This was followed by a hymn to our Lady, "Bring Flowers of the Fairest, Bring Flowers of the Fairest," while little Mary Frances Marcoux assisted by Joanne Doherty and Pauline Wasowicz, placed a garland on the head of our Lady's statue. Little Gregory Dowling placed a bouquet at the feet of the Madonna.

Following the crowning of our Lady ceremony Father Frank Morgan of Preston preached on the crowning of our Lady's statue as a symbol and an honor that mankind shows to Motherhood and to the Mother of God, Our Blessed Lady.

The children were then enrolled in the Brown Scapular of Our Lady and received certificates of their First Holy Communion. The Catholic Women's League also presented each child making his or her First Communion with a Scapular Medal and Chain.

Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was given by Father Frank Morgan assisted by the pastor which brought the ceremonies to a close.

During both morning and afternoon services, the following young ladies assisted the children, Kathy Kenney, Laurie Bennett, Rosemary O'Rourke and Mary Kay Gibbons.

Pair Quietly Wedded At Church Saturday

The marriage of Miss Viola Jane Sprowl, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Sprowl, Nasagaweya-Esqueving Townline, to Griffin Sprowl, Acton, was quietly solemnized at the Acton United Church Chapel on Saturday afternoon at 3 p.m. Rev. Dwight Engel performed the ceremony.

The bride's nephew, Harvey Sprowl, and Mrs. Sprowl of Guelph attended the bride and groom. A reception was held later at the College Inn, Guelph, following the ceremony.

After a short motor trip, the couple will make their home at 281 Peel St., Acton.

Car Flips in Ditch Occupants Not Hurt

Damage was extensive to a car owned and operated by Thomas Perkins, Longfield Road, early Tuesday morning, when it rolled over in the ditch after the brakes seized. He was accompanied by his wife Freida. Both were unhurt.

The driver of the car told constable Ron Rupert, investigating officer, he was driving east on Longfield Road when he tried to apply the brakes and for a moment they failed to catch. When they did catch they seized, the driver stated. Police were told this caused the car to pull to one side, hitting the shoulder and tossing the car out of control.

Constable Rupert reported damage to the roof, hood, both fenders and both sides scraped.

MARY JANE FORCE and Peter Robinson were married by the Rev. Dwight Engel in the United Church Saturday afternoon. They will live in Cooksville.

Robinson-Force Wedding Vows Exchanged in United Church

Spring flowers were an effective setting for a pretty wedding in Trinity United Church, Acton, for the marriage of Miss Mary Jane Force, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar S. Force to Peter D. Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Robinson.

Reverend Dwight Engel officiated at the double ring ceremony and Mr. Force gave his daughter in marriage.

For her wedding, the bride chose a gown of peau de soie and silk organza, fashioned with a basque bodice, the scalloped neckline outlined with embroidered motifs. The floor length, bouffant overskirt was scalloped around the hemline with embroidery and featured a small bustle sprayed with motifs and caught with two handmade roses at the waist. Her short tulle veil was held by a tiny crown and she carried a cascade of American Beauty roses.

Miss Elizabeth Force was maid of honor for her sister, and the bridesmaids were Miss Ruth Landborough and Miss Susan Robinson, sister of the groom. Their bouffant gowns were of Cerulean blue silk organza, featuring softly draped necklines, and a front panel of white lace. They carried bouquets of pale pink carnations.

Robert Miller, Port Credit, was best man and ushers were Carl Cook, King City and William Osmand, Richmond Hill.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at Mississauga Golf and Country Club, Port Credit.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson will live in Cooksville.
