St. Alban's Holds Picnic

St. Alban's annual congregational picnic was held on Sunday, June 24.

The sun broke through the rain and cloudy skies, making a perfect day. After the church service at 10 a.m. everyone proceeded to Stanley Park in Erin. There, the children and adults took part in races and games, topped by a pie eating contest and an egg catching contest which proved the adults are still good sports. The picnic concluded with Laurie Duby conducting Evensong Service.

The striking difference in weight is obvious.

The Touch-Stone

Jer. 6:30 No. 2

If God promised Abraham THE HOLY LAND "for an everlasting possession" (Gen. 17:8—Acts 7:5), and Jesus promised his disciples: "Ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging (ruling) the TWELVE TRIBES OF ISRAEL" (Matt. 19:28), and if we read in Revelation 2:26—"He that overcometh... to him will I give POWER OVER THE NATIONS"—why does the Church speculate over non-existent "immortal souls" and Elysium Glory "beyond the skies"?
