

S. G. Bennetts Host 4-H Calf Club for Judging

Scotsdale Farm, R.R. 1, Georgetown, was the scene of youthful activity on Tuesday, August 7, when Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Bennett and farm manager Emerson Clark played hosts to the members of the Acton 4-H Calf Club for their fourth regular meeting.

Club leader Nino Braida, introducing the hosts, congratulated Mr. and Mrs. Bennett and their staff on the outstanding showing record of their shorthorn herd and praised them for making available top breeding stock to purebred and commercial breeders to upgrade the quality of their beef herds. He told club members and guests that Scotsdale Farm was one of the foremost breeding establishments of Scotch Shorthorn cattle on the North American continent.

President John Kranendonk conducted the business portion of the meeting and Janet Aitken handled the secretarial duties.

Excellent Class

Prior to the judging by members of an excellent class of yearling shorthorn heifers and a class of yearling bulls. Mr. Bennett gave the contestants a detailed type demonstration of a Shorthorn heifer pointing out the desirable characteristics to look for in a beef-type animal. Mrs. Bennett also acted as official judge, giving reasons for his placings. Mr. Clark and Mr. Braida heard oral reasons from the members on their placings of both classes.

The club leader led the members in a discussion on the common diseases of cattle placing special emphasis on the importance of early diagnosis and prevention measures. He also gave members detailed instructions on the proper methods of training and grooming their calves in preparation for achievement day and pointed out that personal neatness and training were of primary importance in the showing.

Following the meeting the hosts served refreshments on the spacious lawn of their home. Russell Murray expressed the appreciation of the club members and leaders and Mr. Bennett replied by extending a cordial invitation for a return visit to Scotsdale Farm.

Immigration Laws Questioned

Ebenezer U.C.W. August meeting was held in the church with a fair attendance.

President Mrs. M. Hayward opened the meeting with prayer and Mrs. H. Blyth conducted the devotional portion, "Praise Ye the Lord for His Wisdom" was the devotional theme.

Man's real wisdom lies in exercising all the powers of heart and soul and mind in learning to know God's wisdom.

"We all admire the fluent speaker or the woman who knows how to keep the wheels of the organization well oiled and running smoothly, but all her wisdom and efficiency, are of no avail within the work of God's Kingdom except they be rooted in and nourished by the living springs of God's wisdom."

Mrs. W. Bewley read a passage of scripture and Mrs. G. Thomas read a lovely poem.

A paper carefully prepared by Mrs. M. Thomson on the study book chapter was read by Mrs. W. Early. This chapter dealt with old and new Canadians. Evidently our present immigration laws accept only the skilled in crafts or professions.

Should Canada take only the young and the strong and leave the sick and the old to be cared for by other countries?

While Canada is closing sanitariums because of lack of patients, some of the 600,000 cases of tuberculosis in Korea alone would give all they possess for one of the empty beds.

In Canada farms are being vacated and many a Korean farmer would think he was in heaven to be a hired man of a tenant on some of these deserted farms.

These are a few things to think about when we ask for only the skilled.

The business period was conducted by Mrs. H. Hayward and after singing a hymn, Mrs. H. Blyth closed the meeting with prayer.

Refreshments were then served

County Council

Halt County councillors, at their July meeting:

- Approved a survey for possible buildings that could be utilized as fallout shelters in the event of nuclear explosions. A man has been engaged to make the survey, with the co-operation of municipal councils. The $800 cost is subject to a 90 per cent government subsidy.
- Learned a recent heavy rain had flooded the basement of the Court House and damaged two motors; and that water had also leaked into the clerk and engineer's office. Prices on repairs are to be obtained.
- Met the new Museum curator, Major Harold J. Newman, who was introduced to his "bosses" by museum board chairman Herb Merry of Oakville. Major Newman reported close to 600 people had viewed the museum at the "unofficial" opening on a recent weekend.
- Awarded the following firms tenders: Holman Construction Co., one tender on granular base at $21,996 and four for crushed gravel totalling $11,563; Hayward and Pickett Ltd., two granular base tenders at $4,410 and $2,610; and W. R. Greenley, one crushed gravel tender at $1,027; Browne and Louth, posts and wire fencing at the Bowe at $4.15 per rod; and Halton Paving and Contracting Co. Ltd., a concrete bridge

Auction of Baking, Sewing Highlight of W.I. Meeting

The lawn at the home of Mrs. George Fryer was the pleasant location for the meeting of the Acton's Women's Institute on Thursday when guests included members of Georgetown W.I. and several from town. In the absence of president Mrs. Maplesden, Mrs. Fryer, first vice-president, presided and welcomed the guests.

The business included plans for the annual bus trip to Toronto exhibition on Music Day. The roll call was answered with a cure for wrinkles. The motto was presented by Mrs. Cameron Winn, "happiness is a perishable fruit which must be used every day as it will not keep." Mrs. Dan Livingstone of the Georgetown group brought greetings; she and Luena Campbell presented a contest and gave prizes to the winners. The highlight of the program was an auction sale with Mrs. Anderson auctioneer. Members had donated articles which included baking, needlework, pickles and various other things. They realized a nice sum.

A delightful lunch was served at tables on the lawn and Mrs. Maddox expressed the thanks to the hostesses and to the visitors who had come.

Kitchener Man Preacher Sun.

A former Actonian, Ernest West, now a lawyer in Kitchener, preached at the outdoor religious service in the park last Sunday evening, and the Rev. K. T. Reid conducted the service.

This coming Sunday the Citizens' Band will be back to play a brief concert and accompany hymns. Their ranks were seriously cut by holidays but they expect to have enough players on hand for each service from now until the last one on September 2. This week the Rev. Jelle Nutma will preach and the Rev. J. H. Wilson will conduct the service.
