

C.W.F. Meeting, Bride's Party Highlight District News Events

Mrs. C. Fountain was hostess for the Christian Women's Fellowship meeting, with 10 members present. Mrs. D. G. Robertson presided and Mrs. J. McDougall, assistant secretary-treasurer, read the minutes and business items. "A Biblical verse pertaining to home" was well responded to for the roll call.

Miss Jennie Tovell gave the missionary news, telling of a fund being set up in memory of the great "Kagawa" and some news of the American Bible Society's project in sending Bibles to Puerto Rico. The worship portion was led by Mrs. H. Hortop, who read Proverbs 19, and gave a few thought provoking items on "Make it a habit".

Program Theme
The theme of the program, "The home is the first school and the parent the first teacher", was the topic of a well prepared paper by a friend, Mrs. H. R. Howard of Ospringe, and read by Mrs. Robertson.

In this paper was stated, "The world marches forward on the feet of little children." The parents of small children hold the universe in their hands, she said. "If we mothers can teach them in the home to live together in love and understanding, to seek the solution of their problems through world power, rather than by wars, and all work together for the good of our neighbors and the peoples of the world, then we will have achieved a world at peace," the paper concluded.

Express Thanks
An expression of thanks was made to Mrs. Howard for the excellent paper. Thanks were also extended to Elizabeth Hortop and Linda Fountain for writing the year's programs.

Mrs. H. Jestin, treasurer of the service group, presented the financial report for the group and also conducted several items of business relating to the coming turkey supper.

A substantial sum has been received from the "Bakeless Bake Sale". Coupons are still urgently needed for the coffee urn and all were reminded to be alert to the need. The C.W.F. benediction was repeated in unison. The hostess, assisted by her daughters, Linda, Doris and Donna, served a delicious lunch.

Honor Newlyweds
On Thursday evening, around

50 neighbors and friends gathered in the Sunday school room to honor Mrs. Nelson Snow (nee Mary Fountain) of Cooksville, whose marriage took place recently.

Mrs. John Alton was mistress of ceremonies and called on Eileen Grimshaw, who entertained with accordion music, followed by a contest, "A floral love story" which was quite amusing.

Mary was asked to take the seat of honor behind a table decorated with white and pink streamers, wedding bells and balloons and flowers. She was assisted in opening the large array of gifts by her sisters, Linda and Florence McDougall.

Following thanks expressed by the bride, a bountiful lunch was served, during which all were invited to view the gifts.

China Missionary Guest Preacher

Guest minister this Sunday at the Evangelical Baptist church at the Y.M.C.A. will be Rev. John Bell, deputation secretary of China Inland Mission Overseas Missionary Fellowship.

Mr. Bell first went to China in 1921 and spent 24 years there until the C.I.M. and other societies were forced out of China by the communist regime. When he first went to China, Mr. Bell exercised the evangelistic and medical ministry, then Bible teaching and later administration coupled with continuous Bible teaching in churches all over the north-west of China.

Since being forced out by the communists, Mr. Bell with his understudies has taken up work in a number of countries around the perimeter of China. On Sunday, he will preach at both morning and evening services assisted by the church pastor Rev. J. H. Wilson.

At Funeral

Funeral service was held Thursday afternoon of last week for Douglas M. Dunk, conducted by the Rev. J. H. Wilson, Assisting Minister, and officiated in last week's obituary, were Major Alex Turnbull and Major Cyril Frayn of the Salvation Army in Guelph. Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Crossland of the Salvation Army sang.
