Dublin W.I. Holds Meeting At Former Member's Home

On the invitation of a former member, the members of Dublin Women's Institute, joined by the ladies, the beautiful farm home of Mrs. Norman Elliott at R. R. 3, Acton for their August meeting last Thursday evening. A picnic lunch with all the goodies was served on tables on the front lawn.

Later, the business meeting was held in the home with Mrs. C. McIntyre, the president, occupying the chair. Following the business the roll call was responded to by "It's a fact, or did you know that..." Mrs. Dunlop Moffat and Mrs. Clark Armstrong were chosen as the 411 Homemaking leaders for next season.

Wins-Award
Congratulations were extended to Miss Mary Moffat, who won the 411 girls award to attend the Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto, for three days. Plans were made for the exhibits for the Fall Fair and a committee of Mrs. D. Moffat, Mrs. J. Van Fleet, Mrs. N. Douglas, Mrs. C. Thomson, Mrs. H. Blyth and Mrs. W. McIntyre were named to look after the exhibits.

Plans were made to have a float at Acton Fair and a committee was named to make plans.

Program Presented
A reading "Some Things the Survey Said" was given by Mrs. J. Dennis. Mrs. McIntyre gave a very interesting and instructive demonstration on being a weld.

W.I. Social, Reunion, Visitors Highlight District News Events

(Intended for last week)
The Nassagaweya Women's Institute, along with friends and neighbors, gathered in Brixokville Hall recently to spend a social time with Mr. and Mrs. Art Padbury, who had been visiting at the Mullin home.

During the evening, a few games of euchre were enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Padbury were presented with a transistor radio. Those in charge served a dainty lunch of sandwiches, cake and cookies, which closed a pleasant social evening.

A number of Moffat residents attended the Smith reunion at James Robertson's on Civic Holiday. Don McMillan was elected president for a second year, with E. Howden as first vice-president and Delbert Henderson as second vice-president. Mrs. James Robertson was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. M. McPhail won the prize for the oldest one present. The Brown baby of Morrison won the prize for the youngest. The greatest distance prize was given to Mr. and Mrs. William Henderson.

Get-well cards were signed by all present for two shut-ins and a golden wedding anniversary card was signed to be sent to a cousin in Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan. The annual dance was planned for October.

Mr. and Mrs. Melner of Toronto visited Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Fraser.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Reynolds spent Civic Holiday weekend at Barrie. Mr. and Mrs. James Henderson, Carol and Patricia, Port Credit, visited Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Sloson and son of Port Credit were also guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Campbell on Civic Holiday.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. David Henderson were Mr. and Mrs. William Henderson and girls of Richmond, B.C.; Mr. and Mrs. Herb Haggarty of Kenney, Manitoba; Mrs. Rose Guthrie of Toronto and Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Henderson and family of Chippawa.

May Cancel Swine Show

In a move to prevent hog cholera from spreading, the Health of Animals Division of the Department of Agriculture has imposed a ban on the showing of swine at fairs and exhibitions. So far, the ban just extends to the end of August. The fate of Acton's swine show won't be known until more word has been received from the department.

The outbreak now involves seven counties in Ontario.

Brigade Starts Two Courses

St. John Ambulance Brigade has started additional First Aid and Child Care Courses close on the heels of ones finished recently.

A two-week course in First Aid is conducted at the town hall every Monday, Wednesday and Friday morning by St. John members. Five youngsters are present by enrolled. Each Tuesday and Thursday morning 10 girls and two boys are taking a month long course in Child Care.

Farm Engineer Goes to Hydro

Russ Milne, who has been the Agricultural Engineering Extension Specialist at the Halton and Peel Department of Agriculture since May, 1955, is leaving this position and will join the Ontario Hydro's Farm Sales Department. He will leave his present position in August.

Mr. Milne, a recognized authority on farm buildings and author of a pamphlet has made many friends for himself during his stay in Halton and Peel. He is Act's a decrease of eight per cent known for his ability to make use of the latest scientific information and yet keep plans very practical.

He and his wife Lorna, and children Robbie and Jeanne will continue to live in Brampton. He will be succeeded by Vern Spencer BSA P. Eng. Vern is a graduate of the OAC and the University of Toronto, and has been with the Ontario Department of Agriculture at Ridgeway for the past two years. Vern's home was on a farm in the Owen Sound area of Grey County.

During 1961 there were 2,600 business failures recorded under the Bankruptcy and Winding Up Act, a decrease of eight per cent from the preceding year.
