

Friends Pay Final Respects To Halton M.P.P. Stan Hall

Five hundred heads bowed in solemn, silent tribute to a man whose watchword was "service" Friday afternoon, as the body of the late Stanley L. Hall, 74-year-old Halton M.P.P. for the past 19 years, was laid to rest at Churchville Cemetery.

Relatives, friends, fellow Members of the House, Conservative and other party stalwarts from Halton and surrounding ridings, all joined together in the mute testimony to a man who had served his county diligently, both as a citizen and an M.P.P.

Premier Attends
Among the dignitaries in attendance were Ontario Premier the Hon. John P. Robarts, Attorney-General the Hon. A. Kelso Robarts, Highways Minister the Hon. W. A. Goodfellow and 17 other members of the Provincial house; nine members of Halton County council; Halton's Liberal M.P. Dr. Harry Harley and a

WARDEN WILFRID BIRD
In Warden's Robe, Chain

Among his many official duties was the official sod-turning ceremony for the new Halton County Court House being erected in Esqueving. He served on the 16 Mile Creek Conservation Authority, since its inception in 1958 and on the Halton Museum Board for the past year.

Farmer, Thresher
Successfully engaged in farming for many years, Mr. Bird also did custom threshing work and operated a sawmill until about a year ago.

He is survived by his wife Isabel Fisher, two sons Elmer and George; two daughters Marion (Mrs. James McPhail) and Evelyn, brothers Howard of Melville, Sask., Herbert of Kirkland Lake, and Lorne of Georgetown; and a grandson Douglas McPhail.

Funeral Monday
Over 300 were at the McClure Funeral Home, Georgetown, on Monday afternoon to pay their last respects. Most of the men stood silently outside during the service as the rooms were filled group from the Halton Liberal Association; former Conservative M.P. C. A. "Sandy" Best, and a large gathering from the county's Conservative organization; several members of the Halton Law Association; several Mayors; the county officials and part of their staffs; and friends and neighbors from the farming districts where the late M.P.P. was well known for his work.

"Stanley Hall was a man respected and looked up to by his colleagues . . . his word was as good as his bond," said the Rev. A. W. Downer, former speaker of the provincial house in his eulogy.

"Stanley Hall left a lot of things behind," he continued. "His good name, his solid reputation, and his years and years of service — these things will remain with us to inspire us for years."

"There was an ordinary man who always worked for the good of the ordinary people," the minister went on. "He thought always of the little people, the down-trodden, ordinary folks . . . they were his friends. A good husband, a good father and a good neighbor, he will be missed in this community."

"His task was to be in service to his fellow man," Mr. Downer concluded.

Rev. J. Lorne Graham of St. Paul's United Church and Rev. Ewart Madden, former minister of Eden United Church, conducted the service.

The funeral home was banked with flowers. The Rev. John C. Hill, minister of Ashgrove and Hornby United churches, led in prayer, read Scripture and spoke personally of Mr. Bird. "A tribute is paid by the number who have gathered here," he said. "He did not gain respect through his high office but through his genuine concern for people. A civic leader has passed on."

Const. Al McQueen of the OPP sang "The Lord's Prayer" unaccompanied.

Honorary Pallbearers
Honorary pallbearers were members of the Halton County Council. Active pallbearers were neighbours Bob Cunningham, Bob Alexander, Jack Hunter, Grandson Chester, John Ismond and Cecil Wilson. Over 20 men carried part of the many bouquets after the service. They included Esqueving councillors, officials, employees and neighbors. Interment was in Brampton cemetery.

A Masonic service on Sunday conducted by Worshipful Master Charles Fenwick was well attended.

Winners of L.O.L. 467 lucky draw at their meeting Tuesday were first, Mrs. G. Holmes, Acton; $50 voucher; second, Jack Noble, Georgetown; $15 voucher; third, Hilda Todd, Streetsville; $5

Debentures Not Selling so Well

County of Halton debentures are not selling as well as expected, county councillors learned Tuesday, August 21, at the August meeting in Milton. Further advertising and a better interest rate were ordered.

The finance committee explained only $36,000 of the $110,000 debentures had been purchased locally, through the treasurer's office. In order to move the issue as soon as possible, council approved upping the interest to six per cent from the present five and one-half per cent.

Order Material For New Hall

Plans have been set in motion for the construction of a new Community Hall at Ballinacred. The $21,000 building is becoming more of a reality and contractor William Hall of Guelph has been instructed to order materials for the proposed hall.

Wednesday evening, the building committee, under the chairmanship of Mrs. C. E. Know, met and made the decision to order materials after tabulation of the canvass for $10,000 from the community had been made. Although the entire amount of the canvass has not been reached, the committee is of the opinion sufficient progress has been made to warrant starting on the new hall.

Both committee and contractor are hopeful of a start within a month on the construction of the new Community Hall. Meanwhile, canvassers are still ringing doorbells for donations in their drive to reach the $10,000 goal.

Still Seek Players To Revive Pipe Band

The plea for new members to the Acton Pipe Band fell short of its mark last week and Dave Peal and Bill Patterson are still looking for recruits.

In an attempt to revive the Pipe Band, the two men are willing to train beginners on pipes and drums. Instruments are available and all that is necessary is people to blow air into the bagpipes and handle the drum sticks. Any volunteers?
