 Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Robertson attended a surprise party on Saturday night, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Robertson's 25th wedding anniversary held at their home on Eramosa Crescent, Guelph.

Church Crusade Attracts Many

During the first three days of the Evangelical Baptist Christ for All Crusade launched this week, a good number have heard guest speaker Rev. Deloss M. Scott preach at the Acton Pentecostal Tabernacle.

Since the services began Monday, attendance each evening has increased. Tonight (Thursday) is neighbor night and everyone is invited to bring a neighbor. Friday evening is youth night and the guest minister will preach a special sermon to the youth of the area.

The guest speaker until recently was the minister of the National Tabernacle in Watertown, N.Y. He is in demand as a speaker having preached in several countries in Europe. In 1951 he travelled to the Holy Land and brought back choice colored films of his visit which he uses in his work.

The special services are under the auspices of the Acton Evangelical Baptist church, of which Rev. J. C. Wilson is pastor.

Save for Us

A count of the labels being saved for a coffee urn shows a goodly number more needed and the ladies were reminded to save these carefully.

Mrs. Alex Kingsbury conducted a short evaluation period of the recent turkey supper and plans were formed whereby serving efficiency could be bettered and other details improved. Help was asked of the members, for the Young People's baking sale.

Following the CWF benediction the hostess assisted by Mrs. Duncan Kingsbury and Mrs. John Alton served refreshments.
