ROCKWOOD

Remembrance Day Services At Cenotaph, Church Sunday

The annual Remembrance Day service was well attended Sunday morning, with a brief service at the Cenotaph. The parade formed up at the public school with Cornelia Hamilton Peal as marshal of parade.

Following a brief period of silence, placing of wreaths took place and reading of names by Mrs. Gellatly, Last Post by Elmer Smith of Acton, two minutes' silence, then Reveille, during which time flags were lowered. Benediction was by P. O. Robert C. Leslie.

Wreaths placed at Cenotaph were in behalf of Pte. John D. Hills, Province of Ont., Township of Eramosa and Canadian Legion.

Parade formed up and headed for Presbyterian Church where Remembrance Day service was held with Rev. George Aitken in charge; call to worship with congregation singing Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty; invocation and hymn, "Lead on O King Eternal"; scripture reading by H. Peal followed by choir selection, "How Great Thou Art"; announcements and offering; hymn, "O God of Bethel"; sermon and prayer; closing hymn, "God of Our Fathers," followed by National Anthem and benediction.

Weather conditions were ideal for all Remembrance Day services after a wet weekend. Mrs. John Freeman, organist, had charge of choir music for the service.

Successful Supper
The ladies of St. John's Church held a successful smorgasbord supper in the Parish Hall Wednesday evening. Many from a distance were present for the occasion.

Despite unfavorable weather during the weekend, there was a good attendance at the bazaar at the Presbyterian Church in the Sunday School room.

Hydro Work
In connection with work being done at hydro station, men are busy with removal of section of wire fence at the front and also removal of three small transformers. A new fence has been erected in front of main section of the hydro station. Two new poles were erected to convey new wires to main section of hydro station. Much improvement is noticed in the approach to the station.

Park Underwater
As a result of Saturday's heavy rain, the river adjoining the highway is full and Riverside Park is under several inches of water. Water going over the dam at the wooden mill presents a miniature Niagara Falls.

Visitors in town Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Ross Allen of Toronto, Mr. John Lynch of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Downes of Elara.

Friday, first day of Royal Agricultural Winter Fair, was largely attended. Richard Harris in company with Mrs. Fred Hosking and Miss Elva Peason motored to Dixie to meet Rev. C. Gordon Har-

Budding Orators, Graduates $15 for UNICEF in News Here

(intended for Last Week)
In the township public speaking contest, held Thursday night at Hillsburgh, two pupils of the local school placed second and third respectively, Fred MacDonald second, speaking on "Trains," and Bobby Bruce third, with his speech on "Irrigation."

In the semi finals for this locality, Marjorie Dickson of Nichol placed first; Linda Dickson of Erin Village was second, and Fred MacDonald was third. Congratulations to these budding orators!

Congratulations are also extended to Georgina Wragg and Garnet Bruce, who received awards at John Ross Vocational Institute on Friday evening. In addition to a Dominion-Provincial Rotary Scholarship and an English award, Georgina received the Canadian C.V.I. teachers' award, the Canadian Life Underwriters (Guelph Branch) award; best student stenography Grade 12; and also a form award. Georgina is employed as a stenographer in an insurance office in Guelph and Garnet is a first year student at OAC.

Good Posture For 4-H Girls

The fourth meeting of the Limehouse Slumberettes was held at the home of assistant leader Mrs. Ted Brown with eight members attending. They opened the meeting with the 4-H pledge and then Miss Eleanor Karu read the minutes of the last meeting.

The discussions were based on "Posture." Mary Wilson and Doris Brown demonstrated the different ways of posture. The meeting closed with a light lunch.

Fractures Wrist

While moving bales of hay around the barn, Ken Stubbington had the misfortune to fracture his left wrist, when he lost his footing and fell. Following examination by a doctor, the injured arm was put in a cast.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Clifford Storey in the recent passing of her sister in England, following a lengthy illness.

Called for UNICEF

Public school children collected $15.65 for UNICEF on Halloween night.

Due to numerous events nearby, attendance at the euche on Friday evening was smaller than usual. Prizes were awarded to Ross Ferguson, E. Archibald and Mrs. De Haan and Mrs. A. Tanley.

Mr. and Mrs. K. Klooster visited their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Boersma and family at Huttonville.

Dr. and Mrs. Walter Wylie of Redvale were Sunday visitors at the McEwan home.

Rev. Stuart McIntyre of Caledon East was guest speaker on Sunday morning at the local Presbyterian Church. Mrs. McIntyre accompanied her husband to the service and sang a solo "Alone," which added to the service.
