

Remembrance Day Service

It was a clear day and bright sunshine picked up and reflected the gleam of the paraders — the gold braids and buttons on uniforms, the instruments, the silk flags and the glossy leaves of the wreaths.

Knox church was filled with paraders seated in the entire section of the downstairs. E. A. Hansen played the organ, the regular choir led the singing and Mr. McKenzie conducted the service with Legionnaire R. M. Storey reading the scripture, the 11th chapter of Hebrews, on which the sermon was based.

Those Who Returned
"We recognize the gallant acts of those who fought and died," declared Mr. McKenzie. "We also recognize the gallant acts of those who fought and came back."

Referring to the scripture, he said, "We are the heirs of a great legacy. We are proud of our comrades, but each new generation must insure its own freedom. The future they look for in faith, we are building on the foundation stones of the past. We move ahead by standing on the shoulders of those who have gone before."

Although Canada has separation of church and state, "we have always associated religion with our national life," he said. "We can't have democracy without Godly men and women... the only reason a man has rights is because he is the son of God by creation. Freedom is not achieved — it is a gift of God to men; it is an unalienable right."

Nominations Set for Nov. 22 Four Decline Further Term

Reeve Jack Hargrave, 11 years on council, "I am willing to stand for office again as I like the work and only hope I have done a successful job for the public."

Deputyreeve William Denny, who is completing his second term stated "I haven't completely decided at the present time whether I will stand for nomination or not."

Councillor Frank Toth, served the past two years. "I fully intended to run for council again this year but in view of my recent fire I am so disheartened I cannot think about politics at present so will not run."

Councillor George Barbeau, completing six years, "I intend to let my name stand for the office of councillor if nominated."

Councillor J. Bert Wood, one year on council. "At the moment I am willing to let my name stand for office. I am of the opinion more businessmen should take an interest in municipal government if they can find the time."

Councillor Alec Johnston, who filled the vacancy in the middle of the year when Frank Prouse resigned, stated, "I do not intend to stand for nomination this year as I am working out of town and feel I cannot devote sufficient time to municipal government."

Councillor Les Daby is completing his third term as councillor and stated, "I intend to allow my name to stand for nomination and will run for office again if allowed to. I feel I have an obligation to the people who supported me in the past."

Councillor Hamilton Peal, who served on council in 1959 and again this year is at present undecided whether he will stand for nomination or not.

Hydro Commission
Hydro Commissioner G. Beaty, three years, "I intend to run for office again if nominated. It is my opinion there are several items of unfinished business in the program started since I first took office."

Hydro Commissioner Ted Tyler 12 years service, "At the moment I am undecided whether to let my name stand for election or not."

School Board
Trustee C. Bradley completing his 10th term in office. "I do not intend to stand for office again this year. I feel I have served the public to the best of my ability and after ten years of service with a good record I intend to step down this year."

Trustee Doug Manning three years on school board. "I intend to let my name stand for election if nominated."

Trustee Ernie Marks completing four years on school board.

Must Act
We must act with conviction or democracy will die, Mr. McKenzie continued. "Do nothing and evil will take over. Subservient inaction could ruin the world," he said, referring to the spread of communism.

Recalling the wars, he said, "The men we remember today were not philosophers, but they had an instinctive love of heritage. They gave us our opportunity to live a free people."

He declared, "The past is not barren. Our strength comes from the past."

Rockwood Service
The Remembrance Day Memorial service at Rockwood, also at 11 a.m., was under the direction of Acton Legion, the reeve and council of Eramosa township. After the service at the cenotaph, there was a service in Rockwood Presbyterian church.

Nassagaweya Service
At the soldiers' memorial at Haltonville, Elmer Smith sounded the Last Post and Reveille and the names of Nassagaweya men killed were read. Abide With Me was sung and Rev. R. Hadcock pronounced the benediction.

The service followed at four o'clock in Nassagaweya. Presbyterian church and the sanctuary was almost filled. Mr. Hadcock was in charge; the Rev. R. P. E. Jeffares read the lesson and preached the sermon. The hymns suitable for the day of remembrance — They Trusted God, O God of Love, O King of Peace and O Valiant Hearts — were followed by the national anthem.

Lost Wallet Returned $64 Cash, Cheque

A lost wallet containing $64 and a cheque was returned immediately after eight-year-old Bonnie Cannon found it on the street Friday.

The Robert Little school pupil took the wallet to Acton O.P.P. constable Mervin Harness who in turn discovered the lost article belonged to Miss Alma Braida, co-owner of Acton Home Furnishings store. Both Corporal Ray Mason and Miss Braida commended the eight-year-old girl for her honesty and prompt action in returning the wallet. She is in grade four. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Stratton Cannon.

Bob Drinkwater Heads Acton New Democrats

Acton's New Democrats elected their executive at a general meeting in the Y.M.C.A. on Wednesday evening, November 7. Named for a term of a year are president, Bob Drinkwater; vice-president, Louis Dick; secretary, George Gidman; treasurer, Hugh Lowe; executive officers, Charles Blake, John Last and Michael McMillan.

Halton county organizer Bill Campsie addressed the meeting and outlined the progress that had been made in re-organizing the riding. The speaker went on to say "This program of re-organization which was started after the June election is now 80% complete, and when completed will involve the voluntary work and co-operation of over 200 members."

He is teaching now in the chemistry department at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Elliott he travels to Guelph each day and still makes his home here. He is organist and choir leader of the United Church and plays with the Citizens' Band. He attended Acton schools, then the University of Toronto and Ontario College of Education. He has been associated with the food chemistry department at the university while working on his M.A. and Ph.D. degrees.

Hitler's Tactics
Guest speaker at the meeting was Halton's federal candidate Carl Rouleau. His address covered first, explanation of the American constitution, second, the present political trends in the U.S.A. and third, the impact of Social Credit on rural Quebec. Mr. Rouleau pointed out that Social Credit in Quebec had told the people that their program was hard to explain, and that it explained to them they would not understand it. However they were after their needs. The speaker continued, "These were the tactics of Hitler in the early thirties and everyone knows what happened in Germany."

Mr. Rouleau said that during the election campaign last spring he had encountered a large number of people, especially home makers, who expressed a desire to know more about the political set up in Canada and the U.S.A. A number of his own workers also had stated that they felt they would have done a better job of canvassing if their political education had been complete.

The speaker stated that in the light of the demand for some sort of political education, he had decided to set up in various Halton areas, political education classes in the near future, which will be open to everyone regardless of their political party leanings.

Alex Korzack, assistant organizer of Halton North, was in the chair.

The world's largest living bird is the ostrich.

School Teacher Gondolier on TV

Grade six teacher Wayne Bateman reverts to a gondolier for one night only next Monday.

During the summer he was assistant stage manager and an extra in the Stratford Opera Company which produced Gilbert and Sullivan's operetta, The Gondoliers, in the Avon Theatre in Stratford. The show was all taped for the Bell Telephone Hour next Monday and Mr. Bateman has a small part.

The Robert Little teacher does not think his friends (and any pupils, if they're up, that late) could recognize him. He explains he comes on near the beginning in a group of four or five and sings a few lines. But the section was cut to fit into the hour and a half and he suspects he won't be seen long even if he could be recognized.

The show was taped August 28. His students are disappointed the popular young teacher will be on so late. His home is in Stratford and he's a Stratford Teachers' College graduate. This was his first venture into theatre.
