ROCKWOOD

Congregation of St. John's Hears Illustrated Address

Monday evening a congregational meeting in connection with St. John's Church was held in the parish hall and well attended. Rev. A. F. Cook announced the opening number, a singing with junior members of church choir with Mrs. Roffey leading and Mrs. Cecil Meredith at the organ, and a selection by the choir.

Mr. Harold Llewellyn of Hamilton, guest speaker gave an illustrated address on sheets of paper, dealing with relationship between God and mankind. At conclusion of the address Mr. M. Root spoke at some length followed by discussion. Mr. Hudson also spoke on similar lines. At conclusion of meeting refreshments were served and a social time by all enjoyed.

Following an illness of some duration, Mr. Thomas J. Diamond passed away in Guelph General Hospital Saturday evening in his 88th year. Surviving him are his wife and son Arthur of R.R. 2, Rockwood; grandchildren Gordon and William and sister Emma of Hespler. Funeral was Tuesday with service in United Church, Rockwood, at 2 p.m., and interment in Ebenezer Cemetery. Rev. R. R. Connor conducted the service. Among the pallbearers were

T. J. Diamond, A. Root, S. Stewart and J. Thompson. Following a hard frost Sunday night, there was a good coating of ice in river adjoining highway and Valley Road.

Mr. Charles H. Harris and son Arthur motored to London to visit their son and brother, who is in hospital, Sunday.

Richard Harris spent a few days in Toronto last week, renewing acquaintances with members of Lynch family who lived in Rockwood over 20 years ago. He also spent a few hours at Winter Fair in company with his nephew, Rev. C. Gordon Harris of Dixie, Thursday.

Several antique articles were on display as well as the Busy Bee Institute History books. Quite a number of local folk attended the opening of the new County building at Milton on Saturday and Sunday. Two weeks ago at the opening of the new Sunshine School at Hornby, which is a great credit to those in charge of this worthwhile work.

The roll call was answered by telling of an historical place I have visited. These were quite interesting.

Personal Notes . . .

Of Actonians Visiting Out-of-Town Points and of Visitors in Acton Homes

Miss Mary Ruddle, of Guelph, was a recent visitor with Acton friends.

Mr. Robert Lee of Port Hope is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Rose for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Matthews spent the weekend with the latter's sister, Mrs. R. A. Storey, at Brantford.

Bruce Andrews is home from Seion Hall, South Orange, New Jersey, for the American Thanksgiving holiday.

Some of the high school students went to the Winter Fair last Thursday with agriculture teacher Bill Patterson.

Last week clerk Jack McGeachie and water superintendent J. Lambert attended a one-day South and Central Ontario water conference at Preston.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Murch and Mr. George MacPherson of Toronto visited Sunday with Mrs. Marguerite Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. A. M. MacPherson.

Rev. McLeod from Guelph is lined up as guest speaker at the Y's Men's meeting tonight and visitors from Owen Sound are expected.

The Breezes has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. John B. Wood of Toronto, who are living there now. They intend to open it as a park, as Joe Jocke did.

Provincial Constable and Mrs. Archie MacPherson and sons of St. Thomas were recent visitors with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. MacPherson, Arthur St.

On Monday Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Gardner and their daughter Janice will leave for California. They'll be driving down, Saturday night friends of Janice held a surprise party for her at Susan Heard's home.

LAC Richard P. Gammon who has been stationed at Clinton has now been posted to the RCAF station at North Bay. Between postings he spent five days' leave here with his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Stanley Gammon. He joined the RCAF in 1961, and in a little over a year has been stationed at St. John P.O., Gimli Manitoba, Camp Borden, Clinton and now North Bay.

Friends of Robert Little teacher Wayne Bateman were watching television Monday night to try and spot him in the chorus of the Gondoliers. Just as he had predicted, it was a hard job. The CBC production was very enjoyable.

When Mr. and Mrs. Russell Patterson and Carol, Miss Kaye Roszell and Miss Bella-Maye Roszell went to Toronto Saturday to go out to dinner with former Actonian Miss Doris Wilson, they were sorry to discover she had fallen and broken a bone in her foot.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kirkwood celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage at their home in Erin on November 20. Those who attended from Acton were: Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Kirkwood and family, Mrs. John McLean and Miss Jean McLean, Miss Emma Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cole.

Acton's official representatives at the opening of the new county administration building Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Denny, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hargrave, who were guests at county councillors' luncheon; councillors Geo. Barbeau, J. Bert Wood and Ham Peal, clerk Jack McGeachie, office manager Joe Hurst and assessor Bill Erskine. Charles Leathersland was there as a member of the Halton County Law Association.

CHURCHILL

Mrs. Butler U.C.W. Hostess Bake Sale in Town Planned

The monthly meeting of the U.C.W. was held at Mrs. Butler's on Wednesday, Nov. 14. The opening prayer was given by the president, Mrs. McArthur. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Leitch. Mrs. R. Denny gave the devotions. The hymns were 399 and 263.

Business was discussed and plans completed for the bake sale to be held on November 30 at the United Church in Acton. A nominating committee was named, Mrs. Denny and Mrs. Damm. A delicious lunch was served and a vote of thanks given to the hostess, Mrs. Butler.

Friends and neighbours are sorry to hear Mrs. Shirley Ann Strong was hospitalized in Toronto and all wish her a speedy recovery.

Quite a few local people attended the Royal Winter Fair.

MAYOR JOHN GOY
Town of Acton

had a very successful banquet on Saturday evening. A good turn out enjoyed the guest speaker Rev. Rumble of Toronto who is a minister for the deaf. His sermon was indeed interesting. A hot turkey dinner was enjoyed by all.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cox on a gift of a son on Sunday morning, November 18.
