

Spilling Five Plus

AT THE ACTON Bowling Lanes

by Ken Hestford

High School
Nov. 19: Red Devils took on the first place Mashings Monsters and with Harvey Taylor's 217 edging out Murray Smith's 204, took the major portion of a 5-2 go to move up for a share of top spot. Gutter Files with Ann Vale's 244 as a pacer, took a strange hold on second place with a three game win from Blue Bombers. The Bombers almost made with a win in the finale but missed it by 14 pins. Rinky Dinks vacated the cellar by winning two and totals from Choo-Choo Puffs who missed winning the middle canto by 18 pins. A new single record of 294 rolled by "Slingin' Sandra" Slingerland featured the Rinky Dinks win. June Walthe 228 and Terry Hamilton 211 soloed for the Puffs.

League standing: Mashings Monsters 40, Red Devils 40, Gutter Files 38, Rinky Dinks 25, Choo-Choo Puffs 24, Blue Bombers 22.

Boardroom
Nov. 19: Lucky Seven are still hanging out top spot. Winning two and totals from Toppers after dropping the first game keeps 'em up there. Pat Waldie 658 (306), Chuck "Drummer Boy" Sunter 212 and Ed Parent 211 had the big ones for the "Seven".

Micro Plastic
Nov. 20: Squawkers were hard pressed to hang onto first place when they met the Terribles, they won the middle canto by enough pins for a single win plus totals. Terribles grabbed the first by 17 pins and the third by 10. Dave Woodward's 64 stood out for Terribles. Joan Knight's 201-212 soloed were the high winners of the night, they snuffed out the Lamp-lighters with a three game win. Lamp-lighters almost had the middle chucker but missed it by 4 pins. Four solos for Blowers, Bob Drinkwater 214, Andy Pidem 200, Bill Verbeek 222 and Ina Verbeek 217. Terry Heblen 205-207 and Earl Waller 203-289 tried to light the win lamp for Lamp-lighters. Sputniks lost the first game to Moon-Glows, won the second by 2 pins and the finale by 32. Moon-Glows cashed in on the big first game win for the odd totals point, Leo McGilloway 752 (309) and Judy Halliday 209 highlighted for Moon-Glows.

Legion Ladies
Nov. 19: It was all or nothing with the ladies of the Legion. Ugly Ducklings handed Swans a zero count and Squibs did likewise to Squirts. In the Ducking Swan go, Dot Earle 638, Phyl Angell 629, Louise Toth 206, Helen Grant 239, Pat Camp 216 took triple and single honors. Swans almost had a winner in the second, they lost out by 4 pins. In the Squibs-Squirts go it was an all Squib affair both in the matter of wins and individual honors. Helen Jocque 223-222 highlighted this go.

Industrial-Commercial
Nov. 21: Al's Snack Bar are still in first place but Gitto Electric reduced their lead somewhat with a two and totals win. Nino Gitto had another hot line going for the Electricians with a 760 (315). Al's top trio pipped up in Pete Rudland 634, Don Grein 668 and Ross Morton 646. Jim Lindsay's "Orfuns" are still gaining ground, taking Ledger's I.G.A. for a two and totals romp didn't do them any harm pointwise. Jeff "Schoolboy" Frer 780 paced the "Orfuns" win. Wayne Mason 695 (318) and Martin Oehrich 632 humped the pins for I.G.A. Thirtysone pins was Ridley Cartage's first game margin win over Station Hotel who didn't fool about getting even in the second. The Cartage crew won the third by enough to grab totals by 3 pins. Ken Hulford 725 and "Dapper Don" Lindsay 657 spearheaded the Ridley win. Don DeForest 646 and Cy Swim 645 were best for the "Mill St Tavern."

Tri-State
Nov. 20: Granites regained first place with a three game win from the incumbent Hillbillies. Edith Jennings' 209 solo in the first game started Granites on the win path. Jetsons were in full flight for a two and totals win from High Flyers who couldn't get off the ground until

League standing: Al's Snack 42, Ledger's I.G.A. 38, Ridley Cartage 36, Gitto Electric 35, Station Hotel 22, Lindsay Orfuns 16.

Action Ladies
Nov. 21: Doris Townsley 209, Peggy Lawson 220-203 and Marion Pope 209 paced Lovell Bros. two game win from Paulettes. The "Fashion Shoppe" countered with Diane Spielvogel 653 and Dodie McGilloway 214 to annex the odd point for totals. The win put Lovell's in first place. McCallum's Service was another team to win two games and lose out on totals when Masales Dairy pulled a big win in the finale to grab the odd point by 15 pins. Arlene Bruce 637 and Marion Storey 240 were best for McCallum's. For Masales Dairy it was Ruth Masales 204, Verma Arbie 217 and Helen Holmes 254. Action Creamery won two games from Cameos and picked up the totals' singleton for good measure. Joan McCristall soloed a brace, 206-258 while for Cameos, Marne Mellor, the league's current high average hit a 685.

Action Friends
Nov. 22: Headhunters were gunning for the works against the Twisters, but after winning the first two, missed the third chucker by 14 pins. Singling for Headhunters: Don DeForest 249, Ann Thomson 205. Hart Coles stood out for Twisters with 677 (306). Nappers squeezed out a six pin win from Lazy Bones in the first, then went into a decline and the Bones were in for two and totals. Ray Atkinson 630, Barney Featherstone 226, Rosemary Flatt 268 tripled and singled for the winners. Had DeForest 616 and Orv Chapman 213 were in a like vein for Nappers. Swingers swung along with Bill McMullen 218, Eddie Lesperance 203 and Ernie Lawson 220 for a two and totals win against Untouchables, who woke up in time to touch off enough pins to win the final go. "Big Jaws" Cunningham 693 and "Beaver" Baxter 227 tripled and singled for Untouchables.

Thursday Toppers
Nov. 22: Busy Bees buzzed a seven pin win from Strikes in the first then zoomed home to the five with the next two for a triple win, which shot the Bees into top spot. Tiger Cats missed out in the first game with Cameos, then came back to win the next two and totals. Chumps picked up seven needed points, courtesy Happy Gang and are eyeing a higher standing as a result. Triple honors went to Verma Arbie 597 (234-202), Kate Turkosz 481 (168), Jenny Clendenning 495 (178) and Ada Peal 480 (175).

Acton Mixed
Nov. 23: No-Goods are on the first place Jumpers' heels as a result of a three game win over Snow Birds. No-Goods had a good night with Ivy Martin 605, Verma Arbie 641, Elmer "The Green" White 694 and Joe Lawlers 220-205. Snow Birds fluttered briefly with Nancy Jensen 637, Lil Wagner 256 and Jules Fryters 217. Jumpers jumped on the Raiders for the first two games with Fred Landry 615, Jack Bullochie 636, Chris Jensen 215 and Sophie Oehrich 231 being the triplers and singlers. Raiders took a dim view of losing two games so, headed up by Martin Oehrich's 297, grabbed the finale. Tom Roach soloed 213 in the first. Clippers clipped off the major portion of a 5-2 go with Hilpines, with Pearl Jackson 644 and Ed Browne 227 being the clippest. Ron Whitman saved Hilpines' face individually with a 218.

Teen-n-Under
Nov. 24: Flintstones made a determined effort to stop Top Cats but in vain. The Cats won both games. Fireflies also made it a double win when they met up with the Jetsons, as did Hillbillies against the Blue Bombers. Coming up with the doubles to make the "Big 10": Len Varies 134-200 (334), Harry Oehrich 189-143 (332), Helen Harris 136-190 (326), Brian Dunn 152-174 (326), Bob Turkosz 205-107 (312), Craig Perkins 157-147 (304), Bob Browne 170-115 (285), Bob Anderson 178-106 (284), Sally Deck 139-134 (273), Cavell Marshall 115-150 (265).

Headpin Hilites
All quiet on the Inter-County front. Could be the hill before the storm, which may or may not have erupted before this family journal comes off the press. Marne Mellor clicked for the Streetville Cleaners' award with a triple of 685. No shemate topped Sandra Slingerland's 294 single and the High School League wins the Ledger's I.G.A. voucher. Jeff Frer repeats again this week for the Paul's Clothing award with a 780 triple. Wayne Mason will probably strut around with his strides hiked up
