High School
Nov. 28: With Ted Walther packing them with 612, Maching Monsters mashed the Rinky Dinks for a three game win and hung onto their top spot. Gutter Files won handily from the Red Devils in the first, squeezed out a five pin win in the second, then collapsed in the third and the Devils rang up a big win, to grab the odd point for totals. Karen Curro 213 for the Files and Don Price 234 for the Devils solo. Choo-Choo Puffs huffed and puffed at the Blue Bombers, but couldn't blow 'em down and Bombers were on the win target for a triple win. Jill Hurst soloed for the Bombers with 209.

League standing: Maching Monsters 42, Red Devils 43, Gutter Files 42, Blue Bombers 29, Rinky Dinks 25, Choo-Choo Puffs 24.

Boardwalk
Nov. 28: Despite Pat Waldie's new league triple record of 788, which also included a new high single of 398, plus Ed Parent's 664 tripart, the front running Lucky Seven came off second best in a 4-3 go with Dare Devils, who were not backward in coming forward with Millie Fabian 662 and Helen LeSueur 604. Fivers topped the Toppers score-wise but good and wound up with all games to their credit with Jim Bullough 697, Sheldon Bennett 630, Arlie White 642, Stan Mages 200 and John Dennis 243, racking 'em up. Tinnie Masales 724, Elmer White 201 and Lyle Cripps 212 - 230 saw their scores go for Sweeney. It was two and totals for Hot Shots against the Red Devils, with Bill Buchanan 208, Hec Lambert 201 and "Big Al" Pavli 234 coming up with solos. "Roger Dodger" Murray 208 and Ed Jank 206 were in a like vein for Red Devils.

League standing: Lucky Seven 45, Dare Devils 42, Hot Shots 39, Fivers 38, Toppers 26, Red Devils 20.

Legion Ladies
Nov. 26: Phyllis Angell's 609 triple had the Swans going for a triple win against the Squibs, who saved face score-wise when Grace Agnew scored a single of 207 in the final canto. Squibs had high hopes of taking the Ugly Ducklings into camp when they won the first game, but Ducklings rallied and won the next two and totals. Louise Toth's 234 solo for Ducklings was top in this go.

League standing: Ugly Duckling 42, Squibs 40, Swans 32, Squirts 20.

Tri-State
Nov. 28: It's a two-way tie for top spot, what with Jetsons winning all three games from Grannies and Hillbillies doing the same thing to High Fivers. In the Jetson-Grannie go, top triple came from Edith Jennings 476 (196), Dor Jennings 469 (164), Linda Jarvis 435 (174) and Ed Roberts 404 (162). Taking top triple honors in the Hillbillies-High Fivers affair were Edythe Bryan 524 (221), Shirley Roberts 455 (178), Florence Mahon 451 (159), Mac Dennis 430 (159) and Pearl McLaren 416 (183).

League standing: Hillbillies 31, Jetsons 31, Grannies 29, High Fivers 21.

Blue Springs
Nov. 28: Roses gave it a good try to take Astors' top spot by winning two games from said Astors, but the latter made the middle chukker a big win, and took the odd point for totals. The first game was close. Roses grabbed it by one pin. Marj Hufnagel for Roses stood out in this go with 213-275 solos. Mums also won a big middle game from Glads, to annex the odd points, leaving it a two game win for the Glads with Maxine Gough 232 and Wanetta Smith 222 soloing. For Mums, Audrey Urquhart 211 and Agnes McGinnis 220 were the soloists. Carnations made it two and totals from Violets, with Violets winning the middle canto by 16 pins. Marjorie Gough 611 and Millie Sitt 2600 sparked Carnations' win. Cheryl Phillips did not do any shrinking for Violets. She tripled 664. Makes for a new league triple record.

League standing: Asters 42, Roses 41, Glad 40, Violets 38, Mums 36, Carnations 34.

Micro Plastic
Nov. 27: It wasn't exactly "Moon over Miami", but it was Moon Glows over Squawkers for a two and totals win, to take over top spot with a rousing 830.

(310) from Leo McGilloway to pace 'em. Squawkers had a couple of solos - Jerry Warren 211 and Joan Knight 230. Terribles, after dropping the first game to Lamplighters, won the next two and totals, to take over second place. Rosemary Cook 664 headed up Terribles' win. Earl Waller soloed a 200 for Lamplighters. Blowers didn't blow too many after losing the first game to Spunkits and wound up with the big share of a 3-2 go with Bob Drankwetter soloing a 222. Nino Gito went into orbit for Spunkits with 663 and Gino De Bartolo singled a League standing: Moon Glows 39, Terribles 37, Squawkers 37, Spunkits 36, Blowers 32, Lamplighters 29.

Industrial-Commercial
Nov. 28: Lindsay Orfuns are still gaining ground. They took Ridley Cartage into camp via the two and totals route with Terri Freer 687, Mike McCrystal 404 (double) and Fred Krenner 404 (double) and Fred Krenner 404 (double) of 441 hopping up the win. Ridley's were lucky to win the last game - they made it by four pins. Rookie Bob Martin made a good start for Ridley's - he came up with a 571 double. Station Hotel scored an impressive three game win from Al's Snack Bar with Bob Agnew 846 (338), C. J. Swin 661 and Mac Swin 624 (double) passing the win. Two tripartitions from Al's - Wilo Neat 654 and Ross Morion 605. Ledger's IGA, sneaked a two pin win from Gito Electric in the first, got clobbered but good in the second, then squeezed a one pin win in the third. The Electricians grabbed the odd point for totals. Martin Dehnich with 651 was Ledger's best with 625. The Pros, from Dominion Hotel got off the tomato juice with a two and totals win from the Firefighters. They were happy with their single win, inasmuch that it got them out of the cellar. Top trio for the "Waso" were "Big Al" Pavli 696 and Phil LeSueur 643. Going for the Firefighters was Bill Shannon 627.

League standing: Al's Snack Bar 42, Ledger's IGA 42, Ridley Cartage 38, Gito Electric 38, Station Hotel 29, Lindsay Orfuns 29.

Action Ladies
Nov. 28: Paced by Marion Storey's triple record of 809, plus the solos of Nan Hurst 206 and Bea Anderson 203, McCallum's Service came up with a three game win from Cameos and took possession of first place. Marnie Mellor 205 and Boreen McIntyre 235 singled for Cameos. Masales Dairy took a fall out of Lovell Bros. with a two and totals win. They were shooting for the works but Lovell's annexed the middle canto by 30 pins. Masales' cashed in on the solos of Ruth Masales 215, Verna Arbie 202, Donna Manes 231 and Helen Holmes 204. Lovell's best was Doris Townsend 611 and Peggy Lawson 211. Paulettes bested Action Creamery for two games, but the Creamery gals made their win a big one and picked up the odd point for totals. For Action Creamery: Ina Mellon 607, Norma Robinson 229, Joan McCristall 226. Paulettes failed for solos and triples.

League standing: McCallum's Service 42, Lovell Bros 40, Action Creamery 39, Paulettes 37, Masales Dairy 37, Cameos 36.

Action Friends
Nov. 29: For the first game it looked as if Headhunters might lose first place when Lazy Bones trounced them but good. However, the Headhunters equalized in the second and eked out a 17 pin win in the finale but failed to get the singleton for totals. They left that for Lazy Bones. Heading Thomson 613, Don De Forest 219, Alec Johnson 262. For Lazy Bones: Heather Galbraith 227 and Ray Atkinson 259. Untouchables, swept the pin decks clean for a triple win at the expense of Twisters and moved up into the second slot. Touching off the "Beaver" was "Beaver" Doris Townsend 611 and Peggy Lawson 211. Paulettes bested Action Creamery for two games, but the Creamery gals made their win a big one and picked up the odd point for totals. For Action Creamery: Ina Mellon 607, Norma Robinson 229, Joan McCristall 226. Paulettes failed for solos and triples.

League standing: Headhunters 49, Untouchables 44, Lazy Bones 43, Nappers 42, Swingers 39, Twisters 35.

Action Mixed
Nov. 30: Raiders were the big winners in the Action Mixed. They came away with a triple win from No-Goods. Leading the Raiders' point raid: Martin Dehnich 622, Tom Rouch 612, Gerry Funk 241. Ivy Martin soloed for it was Eleanor Goy 483 (187). No-Goods with 209. Snow Birds won the first two from Clippers, with Frank Maloney 628. Jules Friviers 321. Jules was so over the win-prowl and made it a two and totals win. On the prowl score-wise for Tiger Cats: Verna Arbie 581 (234) and Helen Bittorf 499 (207). Happy Gang's top shooters were 144. Martin 400 (207) and Anne Moore 457 (177). Strikers struck Cameos down for the first two games and were going for the third but Cameos nipped them at the finish by 14 pins, to save one game. On the beam for Strikers: Doreen Lander 520 (271), Ada Peal 473 (167) and Yvonne Hamilton 451 (191). Cameos' best was Nan Winter 417 (181).

League standing: Busy Bees 43, Tiger Cats 41, Strikers 38, Happy Gang 37, Cameos 37, Chumps 35.

Teen-n-Under
Dec. 1: Top Cats received a bit of a setback when they met the Hillbillies. The Hillbillies took 'em for both games. Fireflies were also a double winner from the Flintstones as were the Blue Bombers when they met up with the Jetsons. Up for the "Big 10" this Saturday were Jim Cooney 149-235 (384), Bob Anderson 184-130 (314), Bob Bittorf 188-119 (307), Harry Oehrich 147-143 (290), Ray Saitz 92-180 (272), Bob Browne 156-112 (268), John Emerson 166-99 (265), Mike Vale 163-95 (258), Allan McKenzie 122-121 (243) and saving face for the girls - Jackie Palmer 105-127 (232).

League standing: Top Cats 33, Fireflies 29, Blue Bombers 28, Hillbillies 27, Flintstones 22, Jetsons 11.

ing the clipping. Clippers got going in the third, to win by 24 pins. Clippers missed the solos and triples. Hillpins hit Jumpers with a two and totals win and missed making it three when they lost out in the middle canto by 15 pins. Getting the pins to fall the right way for Hillpins were Ron Whitham 639, Cy Ryan 201 and Gord Wagner 252. In a like vein for the Jumpers were Pearl Baker 221, Sophie Oehrich 240 and Joe Vostry 621.

League standing: Jumpers 42, Snow Birds 41, No-Goods 39, Raiders 38, Hillpins 37, Clippers 34.

Headpin Hitler
Marion Storey's hot 809 triple, which included a 281 single, had no trouble in winning both the Streetsville Cleaners and Ledger's I.G.A. weekly awards. Bob Agnew's 846 tripart cinched the Paul's Clothing award, while several good tries were made to beat Pat Waldie's 348 single. It stood up under the attacks and a pair of those McGregor socks via the Esquire Men's Shop will adorn his feet. With our Teen-n-Under, who now and again surprise the onlookers with their skill and scores, came up with some neat "best-over-average" to win the Reinharis, Seven-Up and Coca-Cola bottled beverages and it was Charlene Higgins, Barbara Browne, Bob Anderson and Bob Bittorf. All quiet on the Inter-County front. Being Grey Cup day, no action was scheduled. This Saturday, the Acton outfit trek to Georgetown in a resumption of pin-spilling. That winds it up once again, my friends, so adios, amigos.

League standing: Top Cats 33, Fireflies 29, Blue Bombers 28, Hillbillies 27, Flintstones 22, Jetsons 11.
