Christmas Tree Story Has Ancient History

The custom of bringing green boughs to the door and setting up a tree of kindred and loving gifts and ornaments is a very old one. It is found in the story of the birth of Jesus Christ. The first Christmas tree was set up in the year 1000 in the city of Strasbourg, France. It was made of a fir tree and decorated with apples, nuts, and other gifts. The custom spread to other parts of Europe and then to America.

Times Changed
When their parents took about 100 years ago, the children did not have Christmas trees. They had a different kind of celebration. They had a feast and a dance. The feast was made of simple food and the dance was a folk dance. The children were happy and the parents were proud.

Narrative of That First Christmas is Ageless

The man and his young wife looked no different than all other families. They were simple and kind. They lived in a small house in a small town. They were happy and content. They were the first to bring green boughs to the door and set up a tree of kindred and loving gifts and ornaments.
