POET'S CORNER

THE BELLS David E. Cohen Sweetly the sound of music And the choir softly sang.

Truly a love was pledged And two hearts made as one, Gently they held and kissed Yearly they heard the bells Which signified their love. That were given from above.

Sweetly the bells tolled For a Baptism chaste, Happy the parents Saw jow in each face.

Given to God to Look after the rest.

Years took their toll

Sweetly the belly tolled And cheery once more, A young man and a sweetheart Were wed as before.

Cheery the bells tolled. Joining the lovers So happy and gay!

So by the bells of this life Shall we live. Getting from life only -

667 Delegates Ready for Vote

There should be 677 voting delegates on hand Friday, January 25 when the Halton Progressive Conservation Association meets in Milton to choose its candidate for the Provincial election race. · There are 660 votes from the nunicipality representatives, plus five county officers, the Young P.C. president, the 10 past presidents, and one past election candidate. Burlington can send 222 delegates, Oakville 233, Georgetown 63, Esquesing 46, Milton 41 Acton 34, and Nassagaweya 21. Voting is based on the formula that there is one voting delegate for every, 30 Conservative votes cast in the last provincial election. At the last convention in 1959, when the late Stan Hall was nominated for his sixth term at Toronto, 672 were eligible as voters at the meeting. At that time voting was arranged on one vote, for every 50 cast in the previous election.

March Opening Ballinafad Hall

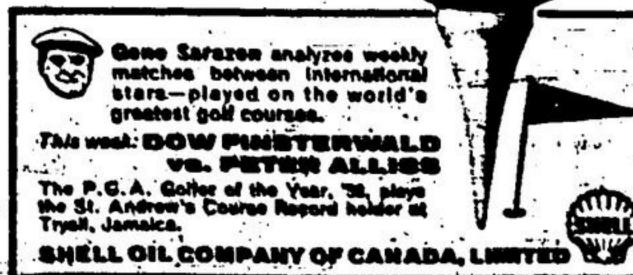

Ballinafad Community Hall committee is hopeful of a grand opening of the new community centre early in March. During a meeting Tuesday evening, members reviewed progress and established a March opening.

Exterior work has been compet ed, heating installed and details on wiring and plumbing are being wound up. Cherry plywood tinish will be installed in the auditorium section as soon as other work is competed.
