Death, Car Accident, Euchre In District News This Week

Word was received last week of the death in Toronto of Miss Mary Strachan following a stroke. Miss Strachan was well-known here as a frequent visitor to the home of Mrs. James Strachan, which they resided on the second floor, prior to moving to Erie. A death certificate was filed in Toronto, followed by a service at Lachlan, where the family lived for a number of years.

card) Lionel Watson and Wilfred Avery. Messrs. H. K. Howard and Ross McEwan attended the Good Fair at the C.M.E. Grounds in Toronto on Friday. Sherlock Aitken, student at Western University, London, was home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Aitken for the weekend.

During the blizzard snow last Thursday morning, one driven by Mrs. Elna Tandy and Bob Adams, collided on the Truxell, just below the highway. Mrs. Tandy was taken to the Guelph Hospital, where it was found she had a broken leg and chest injuries. Her condition is stable. She was released, however, because her husband is unable to drive the other car. Bob Adams, was not seriously injured.

Mr. W. H. McEwan, who is residing in Orangeville, was a visitor on Monday at the home of his son and daughter-in-law, Ross and Mrs. McEwan and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Mann of Toronto who have purchased the farm, get possession early in February. Mr. and Mrs. De Vries and family have purchased a home in Rockwood and Mr. and Mrs. Frits De Haan and family have a home in Acton. George De Vries will be boarding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Vander Heide.

Mr. Norman McKenzie received word on Monday of the passing of her father, William Glassford of Hillsburgh.

His talks were in play at the school on Friday night at the bi-monthly euchre, sponsored by the Women's Institute. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. J. Hunter, Mrs. Fichman, (playing on a ladies Sympathy is extended to Mr. Frank Kelso in the passing of his mother, Mrs. Joseph Kelso, who passed away Sunday at her home, Mantoba St., Guelph.

Report on Church Repairs Given at Annual Meeting

During the cold weather last Thursday, the annual meeting of the Protestant Episcopal Church was not so largely attended as might have been.

Surviving are four sons, Wm. C. of St. Thomas; Frank, Rockwood; John at home; Fred of Detroit. Mrs. Kelso was predeceased by her husband five years ago. Five grandchildren also survive.

Financial reports, show a healthy condition in all departments. W.M.S. Twilight Auxiliary and Sunday School. At the conclusion of meeting, refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed.

Funeral was Tuesday with service at Towell Funeral Home, Yarmouth St. and interment in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Congratulations to Miss Janet

Despite cold weather Sunday church services were fairly well maintained.

Choose Tom Sawyer For School Operetta

The stage is being set for the annual public school operetta. "Tom Sawyer" has been selected as the title of the play with the Robert Little school pupils presenting the annual event.

Music supervisor Glenn Barke and a staff of teachers are busy this week selecting the characters to play and practice sessions are expected to begin immediately.
