High School

Jan. 28: For the time being at least, Mashing Monsters' reign as league leaders is over. Blue Bombers bombed 'em with a three game loss and replaced them in the top spot. Jill Hurst 221 and Jackie Bulough 220 headed up the Bomber win. In a lost cause for Mashing Monsters were Murray Smith 212 and Ted Walthe 222. Despite a hot 705 tricot from Keith Andrews, Gutter Files only managed one game from Choo-Choo Puffs. At that it was a squeaker, they won the middle canto by 12 pins. Mary Gricchow's new triple record of 300 for the girls placed the Choo-Choo Puffs with Bludy Dinks won the first game from Red Devils by 16 pins, won the second by a point margin then dropped the last game by 6 pins. They had no trouble in grabbing the odd point for totals. Bludy Dinks and Red Devils retained the unalterable League standing: Blue Bombers 67, Mashing Monsters 65, Gutter Files 63, Red Devils 57, Rinky Dinks 54, Choo-Choo Puffs 51.

Boardwalk

Jan. 28: Pipers have company in the top spot. Lucky Seven with a two and total win from Hot Shots, set up for a share. The Sevens' sides were paced by Beavilles 976, Harry Rogers 257-25, Ed Parent 202-250 and Pat Weidie 211. "Big Al" Pavil hit the smoothie from Huntsville hit 62 for Hot Shots with Hec Lambard singling a 238. Dare Devils did their best to knock Pipers out of first place. They won the first two and only dropped the last spasm by 16 pins. Sparking the Dare Devils' win were Helen LeSueur 708, Bea Anderson 661, Kay James 215, Helen Yatieman 20-225, Millie Fabian 206. Jim Bulough 609, John Dennis 238 and Arlie White 201 saved face for the Pipers. Red Devils got there with the mostest in the first game against Toppers with enough pins to grab totals. Toppers grabbed the next two games for the edge in a 4-3 go. Phil LeSueur for Red Devils, started off with a neat 323 then was handed to finish with 627. Roger Murray popped a couple of solos 225-225 and Dennis Crooks took this out from his presidential duties to snare a 220. In the solo zone for Toppers were Jake Vandergroot 227, Fred Kentner 213 and Lyle Crripps 148-213. League standings: Pipers 71, Lucky Seven 70, Hot Shots 70, Dare Devils 54, Red Devils 51, Toppers 40.

League Leaders

Jan. 28: Bombs made a big gain on the first place Ugly Ducklings when they made every game a winning one from said Ducklings. Joyce Buchanan's 631 tricot stood out in the Sevens' trio. Louisa Toth's 678 triple for the Ducklings was in a lost cause. Squirts grabbed off some much needed points when they came up with a three game win from the Swans. Phyl Angell's 233 solo for Swans was tops in this go. League standing: Ugly Ducklings 66, Squirts 72, Swans 59, Squirts 35.

Tri-State

Jan. 29: High Flyers were flying for points. Got five of 'em from Hillbillies. Almost 800 for the but lost out in the middle canto by 16 pins. Top tricot for the High Flyers were Phyl Jarvis 430 (189), Edith Bryant 574 (216) and Lil Evans 357 (121). Hillbillies' best trio were Florence Mahon 413 (190), Shirley Roberts 413 (183) and Earl McLaren 226 (149). After losing the first game to Grannies, Jetsons got cooking with gas or whatever octane fuel they're using these days and won two and total. Last game was close. Jetsons got it by 8 pins. Top trio for Jetsons were Don Jennings 449 (193), Bob Jones 360 (133), Linda Jarvis 360 (133). Getting the big one for Grannies were May Dennis 552 (214), Edith Jennings 465 (165) and Jean Neave 354 (141). League standing: Hillbillies 52, High Flyers 49, Grannies 49, Jetsons 46.

Blue Springs

Jan. 30: Roses lightened up the league somewhat when they hit Asters with a three game loss. The front-running Asters tried to salvage the last game but missed it by 12 pins. Linda Gordon's 600 triple stood out for Roses. For Asters it was Shirley Hunter 641, Marj Hufnagel 212. Carnations contributed to the league tightening with a triple win from Violets. No Mentionables in this affair. A one pin margin saved the middle game for Glads against the Mums who had no trouble in winning two and total. Sharon Owen's 208 solo was Mums' best. For the Glads, Maxie Gough 211 and Mary Daley 214 soloed. League standing: Asters 63, Glads 63, Mums 59, Carnations 58, Roses 58, Violets 56.

Micro Plastic

Jan. 29: After getting clobbered in the first, Blowers blew up a bit of a wind-storm and made it a two and total win from Trifles with Bob Drinkwater tripling a 714. Heinz Haefner 207, Ed Vertneck 342, and Hubbard 255 got the solos. Trifles failed for the singles and triples. Lamp-lighters took Moon Glows by 13 pins in the first and sailed away the second by plenty but failed for a clean sweep when Moon Glows grabbed the last canto by 12 pins. Lighting the triple and single lamps for Lamp-lighters were Earl Waller 601, Ann Morton 212, Thelma Jordan 201, George Gidman 248 and George Moore 225. Moon Glows went with Leo McGilloway 689 (323), Fred Allen 260, Herb Schubert 222. Sputniks made it two from Squawks who had the nerve to win totals by 6 pins. Sputniks managed a couple of solos, Vicky Schubert 212 and Herman Beasem 226. Squawks' nuptials was Joan Knight 631, Kurt Haefner 208, Bruce Carrill 205.

Industrial-Commercial

Jan. 30: Oddy in the I-C League, all the teams that won two games dropped totals. Ridley Carriage with Wayne Ridley 602, Ken Hulford 440 (double) won two from Station Hotel who cashed in for totals when Don DeForest hit 611. No tricot on the City Electric. Al's Snack Bar got but also took the odd point for totals with a big third game after dropping the first two. Ledger's I.G.A. missed out on regaining top spot when they won two games from Lindsay Orfuns. Orfuns grabbed the total point with Joit Fryer 735 and Fred Kemler 745 highlighting. The "Igas" top trio were Jim Bulough 683, F. Irvine 655 and "Billy-Boy" McMullen 630.

Acton Ladies

Jan. 30: Lovell Bros. first place spot is rather shaky with dropping a two and total defeat to Acton Creamery. Creamery's first game win was close, 5 pins being the margin. Joan McPhail 220 with Marion Pope 211 singling for Lovell Bros. Paulettes were rolling for a triple win from McCallum Services, but missed the third chucker by one pin. Dianne Spielvogel's 621 and Janice Withers' 226 stood out for Paulettes. Nan Hurst's 217 solo was the mentionable for McCallums. DeSpite Marnie Mellor 671 and Doreen McIntyre 615. Cameos hard to be content with a one game win from Masales Dairy who collected on the solo of Ruth Masales 208, Vera Arbie 218, Anne Moore 204-202 and Donna Manes 247.

Acton Mixed

Feb. 1: No-Goods were up to no good and won all games from Snow Birds. Birds made a bid for the final game but were 20 pins shy. Three hot triples were the payoff for No-Goods. Ivy Martin 694, Verma Arbie 629 and John Foley 628. Snow Birds tripled and singled with 664 and George Gidman 224. Raiders vacated last place in a hurry with a three game win from Jumpers. Jumpers apparently lost heart after losing the first by 46 pins. Martin Gehrich 672 and Tom Knoch 204 tripled and singled for Raiders. Jackie Bulough's 210 solo was Jumpers' best. Clippers clipped Hitpins in the first, then Hitpins hit them with a two and total win with Ron Whitham 600 and Maria Funk 224. Tripling and singling in the win. Ron McCausland's 210 single was tops for Clippers. League standing: No-Goods 82, Jumpers 75, Hitpins 71, Raiders 67, Clippers 64, Snow Birds 61.

Jan. 31: Could be Adams' Gold Stripe have ambition to lap the field. Anyway they added another three game win to their impressive win-total. Firefighters tried to stop the spirited rush of the Gold Stripers but missed the last game by 21 pins. In the strike parade for Gold Stripe were Leo McGilloway 713 (321), Jeff Fryer 634 and "Spikie" Splres 628. For Firefighters it was Dennis Crooks 641 and Bill Shannon 620. Looking the first game to Dominion Hotel by 7 pins must have irked the Pros somewhat because they came back strong to annex the next two and total with Gord Coulligan 802, Jim Lindsay 763 and Ken Johnson 695 (306) pacing the win. Spilling 'em for the "Wasowicz Wallopers" were Hank Eric 670, Big Al Pavil 607 and DeForest 648. "Tiger-Cats" paced by Bill Williams 659 and son Andy 646 made with a two and total win from Soccer Club. Ed Parent, the fugitive from the Beardmore League spun a 663 for the Soccer Club.

Acton Friends

Jan. 31: Untouchables touched off a two game win against the top spot Headhunters but missed the singleton for totals by 7 pins. This was done without a mentionable. With Don DeForest 620, Anne Thomson 612 and Sally Thomson 201 'tis not surprising Headhunters grabbed the totals. Don't know what words of wisdom or encouragement Syd Lamb was pouring into his team's ears but it took effect, 'cause they thumped the Swingers for the works. Ray Atkinson 205 and Heather Galbraith 214 soloed for the winning Lazy Bones. Ed McMillan 227 and Stu McConnell 248 differed for Swingers. Nappers enjoyed a 28 pin advantage over Twisters in the first then folded and Twisters were in for two and total. In the solo zone for Twisters were Hartley Coles 220, Jim Gibson 254, Alice Wilkinson 234 and JoAnne Doyal 205. Like with Nappers were Murray Harrison 217 and Had DeForest 213. League standing: Headhunters 78, Twisters 75, Nappers 74, Swingers 72, Untouchables 71, Lazy Bones 71.

St. Alban's Vestry Meeting In Church on Sunday Morning

For the first time the annual vestry meeting of the congregation of the Church of St. Alban was held in the morning after the service of morning prayer. Children were taken to the parish hall where a program of instruction and entertainment was arranged for them while their parents attended the meeting in the church Sunday morning, January 27. About 60 attended.

Regular elections and appointments were made and reports presented. Mrs. Les Doby acted as vestry clerk and the rector, the Rev. Donald West, conducted the meeting.

Turkey Dinner For Institute

Acton Women's Institute enjoyed their annual dinner meeting held in the Luxton Memorial Hall on Tuesday, Jan. 29, highlighted by a delightful turkey dinner served by St. Alban's Guild convened by Mrs. Cecil Nellis. Mrs. Cecil Macleod presided. Mrs. George Fryer proposed a toast to the Queen and Mrs. M. McCauley proposed a toast to Acton W.I. paying tribute to their work over the past years. Mrs. Macleod expressed the thanks to the Guild for their lovely meal. The guests remained for a few games of bingo with mysterious prizes donated by the members. Mrs. Nellis served tea and cookies with Mrs. Fryer and Mrs. Hargrave from the committee.

Elected to the advisory council were Charles Leatherfield, Jim Graham and Jack Rol, and appointed by the rector were Peter Masson, Eric Johnston and Les Doby.

$13,600 Budget
Reports were given on insurance, assets and liabilities, the financial statement for the past year, and the proposal for 1963, totalling $13,600 was accepted.

Financial reports were presented by the Brotherhood of Anglican Churchmen, Luxton Young People's Association, the Women's Auxiliary, the Ladies' Guild, the Altar Guild and the choir.

According to statistics from the church register, St. Alban's Anglican Church has a total membership of 725. Including 225 parish families. During 1962, there were 4,064 communicants, and Sunday school membership is just one student short of the 100 mark.

The rector last year officiated at 16 baptisms and 11 burials were recorded in the church register.

Envelope secretary Gus Clifford was commended for his faithful service and reappointed to begin his 20th year in charge of church envelopes.
