

Personal Notes

Of Actonians Visiting Out-of-Town Points and of Visitors in Acton Homes

Mrs. William Kemp of Sundridge visited last week with her friend Mrs. Robson and Mr. Robson.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hufnagle and Dorothy visited over the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Bill McHugh of Ottawa.

Mrs. J. King, Ridgedale Sackatshewan visited a few days this week with her daughter, Mrs. J. Laska, Mr. Laska and family.

Visiting on the weekend with Mrs. Mackie and Miss Phyllis Mackie were Mr. and Mrs. Stan Mackie and David and Mrs. Harding of Islington.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Robson attended the funeral in South Ruislip, Ontario, of Mr. Robson's brother, who was fatally injured in a car accident on February 8.

On Monday Mr. and Mrs. G. W. McKinnis were among the guests at the 25th birthday celebration of the daughter, Mrs. M. McKinnis, of International.

A series of four weekly meetings has been sponsored by the Acton Community of Halton.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Robson attended the funeral in South Ruislip, Ontario, of Mr. Robson's brother, who was fatally injured in a car accident on February 8.

A well-known Georgetown couple, Mr. and Mrs. James Mulholland will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary quietly at home Friday. They will be joined by three daughters, sons-in-law, and six grandchildren for a family gathering. They have lived in Georgetown 45 years, but Mrs. Mulholland came from Acton.

Mr. and Mrs. George Haggert, Roger and Max, Mr. and Mrs. Syd Newson, Vicki and Dorothy visited with Mr. and Mrs. Doug Tarrant, Burlington on Sunday. All attended the morning service at St. James Church, Hamilton to hear Rev. H. Stokreef, former rector of St. Albans Church after the service they visited with Rev. Stokreef, his wife and three children.

Mr. and Mrs. Newman Braddy were guests of the Chaaban Tigare Skating Club last weekend when Mr. Braddy spoke at a ceremony in memory of the late Sandra Tewkesbury Ritchie, Olympic skater who was killed in an accident near Guelph last summer.

Attending the 61 annual convention of the Ontario Association of Agricultural Societies at the King Edward Sheraton Hotel, Toronto, Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Arlison, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Swackhamer, Mrs. C. L. Stacey, Mrs. W. McDonald and Mrs. W. Thompson.

Mr. McDowell, inspector of elementary schools, Halton No. 1 was guest speaker when 15 teachers from Georgetown, Erin, Acton and Milton discussed curriculum and content of Geography at the elementary and intermediate level at Acton district high school on Tuesday evening of this week.

Much missed will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martingell and their three children who are moving this Saturday from Churchhill Road to their new home in Toronto. They'll be much missed by Sharon and Peter were talented tapdancers and took part in many programs. Mrs. Martingell was an exceptionally talented dressmaker and will be missed by her customers. There have been several farewell parties and dinners including with a class party for Sharon this Saturday at the Benkwalter home. The Martingell's new address is 15 Wheat Sheaf Crescent, Downsview.

Any books children have outgrown at home may be donated to this library. The staff would see the books reach the proper grade level.

Building Libraries In All Classrooms

To provide adequate books for reading, both public schools have in each room books from the public library. At the same time the school board has budgeted for books and from school funds this amount is matched so that the children may have better reading facilities.

Plan 60th Anniversary For Women's Institute

Mrs. Fred Kingsmill was hostess for the February meeting of the Acton W.I. at her home on St. Albans Drive.

President Mrs. J. C. Macpherson presided following the opening by Mrs. M. Stewart Collett. The secretary, Mrs. W. Maddox read the reports and correspondence including many thank you notes for members of the Christmas Season. The roll was called and each member read her favorite recipe and presented the finished product which was enjoyed with Mrs. J. Anderson acting as auctioneer.

The meeting was mostly taken up with the business of the month ahead. The 60th anniversary was discussed and the committee planned to meet next month to make the necessary plans.

The annual picnic sale and show to be held on Thursday night, February 21st was held at the home of Mrs. R. Algie, 41 Bower Avenue.

The president, Mrs. F. Anderson gave a reading on "Friendship" followed by prayer and the singing of "O Love Divine". The study scripture Colossians 1 Chapter III was taken by Mrs. A. M. Macpherson, after which a delightful solo was rendered by Mrs. A. H. McKenzie.

An interesting study of Korea was conducted by Miss Ruby Clark in which was stated "Protestants took Korea in the 17th century". The pioneer missionaries gave the church a solid foundation but today the majority of viewpoints is less apparent in Korean churches.

The meeting closed with singing the "Maple Leaf and The Cross".

Lunch was served by the committee and a pleasant time of social fellowship was enjoyed.

Mrs. Earl Lambart voiced the appreciation to the hostess and committee.

Three Injured Four Accidents

North-Halton O.P.P. investigated four accidents — in which three persons were injured — totalling $1,050 damage in this district over the past week.

Two passengers in a car driven by Carl Jackson, Acton, were injured when his car collided with another on Highway 7 just east of the Fifth Line Esquimaux on Saturday afternoon. Ronald McCausland of Acton and Terry Campbell of Glen Williams received face cuts, but two other passengers and the driver were unhurt.

Const. R. Hatch of the O.P.P. said a car driven by Jack W. Coleman of 333 Queen St., Acton, was making a left turn into B.J. Motors when the westbound car collided with it. Damage totalled $350.

Friday afternoon on the Nasagaweya-Esquimaux Town Line south of 15 Sideroad, cars driven by John C. McIntyre and Herbert N. Dredge, both of R.R. 1, Acton, collided when Mr. Dredge's car became stuck in ruts on the road. Damage was $350.
