

CAROL ANNE WOOD, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Bert Wood, was feted during a banquet in Hart House for the graduating class in the physical health education course of the University of Toronto. She was presented with a plaque for being the woman student in the graduating class who has been most outstanding in scholarship, athletic ability and leadership. She also received a silver award for her athletic achievement. The presentation was made Thursday of last week during the banquet at Hart House.

Plaque, Silver Tray Presented Carol Anne Wood-at U. of T.

Attractive 20-year-old Carol Anne Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Bert Wood, Acton, was engaged at the university's outstanding female student teaching physical education student in her class at the University of Toronto, where she is completing her third and final year.

In honor of her achievement, the pretty blonde was presented with an engraved school plaque at the class banquet in Hart House by Miss Z. Slack, Director of Physical Education for Women. The large plaque will have her name inscribed on a crest and remain the property of the school. She will keep a smaller plaque.

Silver Tray
During the banquet, addressed by Gordon Wright, champion of the National Fitness Council, she also received the Silver Award, a small silver tray with the school crest mounted in the centre.

Miss Wood is the third student to obtain this honor from the Physical Health and Education Women's Undergraduate Association. The award was given for her outstanding qualities in scholarship, athletic ability and leadership.

Miss Wood received her education in Guelph at the G.V.T. High. During 1962 she stood third in a class of 89.

ENGAGEMENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Gordon Rockwood wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Doreen Ruby, to Donald Frederickson of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Lindsay, Acton. The marriage is to take place early in April.

Wellesley Street, Acton, was struck and killed by a car last

Thursday night as she comforted her family dog, hit a few minutes earlier by another car, the dog recovered.

Knelt In Road

Kneeling in the middle of the road to help the temporarily paralyzed pet, Miss Elsie Cash, 50, was struck by a car driven by Howson Ruddell, 32, of R.R. 2, Georgetown.

Miss Cash saw the dog Nicky, hit by a car which failed to stop, as she walked down the hill after babysitting for a neighbor. She ran into the home of her brother Ronald Cash, the owner of the dog, then she dashed into the road to help the pet.

Ruddell was travelling north. Police said he braked and skidded but they said the woman jumped in the wrong direction, into the path of the car. She suffered head injuries and was dead on arrival at Georgetown District Memorial Hospital.
