A trio of solos headed up the Bombers' win. Jill Hurst 261, Ricky Henderson 228 and "Ducky" Harris 219. Rinky Dinks were minus solos and triples. Red Devils settled for a two- and totals win in their go with Choo-Choo Puffs. The last game was close, Red Devils getting the nod by 9 pins. They handed the erstwhile league-leading Squawkers a three game loss with the "Flying Dutchman" Terry Hobden 633, Thelma Jordan 213, Joe "Smitty" Poltrangeli 208 and George Gilman 241 pacing the win. Squawkers tried to stem the tide with Joan Knight 629 (206), Mike McMillan 212, John Welch 204 but no dice. With "Shanny" Shannon setting a hot pace with 776 (321), Terribles got into the all-or-nothing act and took the works from Sputniks. Sputniks put up a battle in the first, they lost out by 11 pins then faded from contention. Gino DeBarollo 639, Nini Gitto 620 and Elsie Schmidt 515 tried to get Sputniks into the win orbit in vain.

Ken Johnson's 610 triple for the Pros was a loner. To the accompaniment of Chester Pevcha's tumbled toothing, Dominion Hotel blasted Firefighters out of any hopes of winning a game. The "Wasowicz Wallpapers" triples of Phil LeSueur 747, Ivan Kilby 632 and Chester Pevcha 606 completely overshadowed Dennis "Firefighters" Crook's 621 for Firefighters.

These past three months, we have enjoyed lovely weather and on the evening have even needed a sweater out-of-doors. We can now notice the midday sun becoming warmer. Language students go to a higher altitude for three months of the year to study and to escape the heat, so from the first of April until the first of July, our address will be: Fairmount Villa, Southamund, Nilgiris, South India.

Warm Weather

We will share this house with the girls and their two boys, aged seven months and three years. Do remember that air form letters reach us in about a week's time and sea mail takes about six weeks.

Yours sincerely,

Jim, Marion and Barbara Rudd. Ask of me and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession." (Psalm 2: 8)
