Goal Reached
Gratifying reports were received of the year's work. The goal for world outreach had been met. Several projects had been completed for the local church, one of which was the painting of the church floor, and woodwork in the Sunday school room.

During the serving of refreshments by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. A. Fox, plans were outlined for the catering for a summer wedding.

Radio, Kettle Won in Draws
Local businessman Dave Maney, will be able to keep abreast with world-wide news events, Saturday evening at Legion dance his name was picked during the Acton Firefighters' Rantam hockey team draw. Mr. Maney received a radio as first prize.

Charles Townsley was the second place winner and as a result has a new electric kettle.

Women's Fellowship Names New Officers

Mrs. Allan Little was hostess for the meeting of the Christian Women's Fellowship of the Church of Christ Disciples, at her new home on the Everton Line. Mrs. D. G. Robertson presided and Mrs. Duncan Kingsbury read the minutes and correspondence, including notes of thanks for floral gifts during illness.

An invitation was accepted for the executive to attend a dinner meeting on April 30 at the Guelph Church when Mrs. V. Bauchin will be guest speaker.

It was decided to hold the summer meetings in the evenings on a trial basis.

For the worship portion of the program Mrs. H. Horrip chose as her "Easter meditation," "Where Mission Begins."

Mrs. D. Kingsbury was in charge of the study continuing the theme, "Easter." The speaker stated "Spring and Easter are akin, as each brings a new message of hope and rejoicing, as God is re-creating, Christ changes our lives when He comes in—filled with brotherly love."

In closing, a poem, "Blessings of Easter" was read. The "missionary news" was given by the president—who told of the work of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Bicks in India, especially with those suffering from leprosy, and the great need for more workers.

Bible Workshop Sessions Feature Displays, Talks

Last week, Rev. Francis Vipond of Toronto conducted a workshop session of Bible study in the Sunday school room of the United Church. He had on display a large variety of Bible helps for those present. His talks were very helpful to those in attendance, as well as remarks during discussion periods.

Following an illness of some duration, Mr. Floyd K. Fox passed away Saturday in Kitchener, Waterloo hospital. He was predeceased by his wife and leaves to mourn his loss, a son, Stuart of Kitchener, and daughter Mrs. J. Huxley of London. Funeral services were held Tuesday at the Rundles Shoemaker Funeral Home in Acton with interment in Rockwood cemetery. The late Mr. Fox was a former station agent at the C.N.R. station, Rockwood. His numerous friends will regret his passing.

As a result of heavy rains Friday, the river through the village and Valley Road has risen considerably. If the weather should keep up, laws about the village will soon be ready for lawn mowers. There is a pleasant green appearance already.
