

Limehouse, Silverwood W.I. Hold April Birthday Party

The sweet sound of the voices of boys and girls in the combined churches of Limehouse and Silverwood W.I. filled the sanctuary on Wednesday night, April 17. These boys and girls are members of the junior choirs of these churches and had come to present a sacred concert. They wore their white choir gowns for the occasion.

Their minister, Rev. W. Wilkinson, came with them. Mrs. Wilkinson was the solo accompanist and Mrs. H. Carter directed the singing.

Mrs. S. Allen introduced the visitors to the residents and Kenneth Gorter extended greetings and announced the numbers on the program.

The choir sang in very commendable fashion three groups of songs, each group containing three separate selections very suitable for the Easter season. They ranged from the classical number I Know that My Redeemer Liveth to the lively and spiritual A Little Talk with Jesus. They also included the especially lovely song, Salvation, which was adapted to the melody of Hallelujah. The choir also led the audience in the singing of two hymns, All Creatures of Our Lord and King, and The Lord's My Shepherd.

Faye Ann Smith, who has won two public speaking awards at Kilbride, delivered a very fine speech on the privileges and advantages of being a Canadian. Her solo was played by Leo Fisher, Lynn Fisher, Owen Snow, Dawn Buzza and Cathy Bates. An accordion solo was played by Brian Smith and a solo on the electric guitar by Danny Smith. All these young people performed very well. To bring this very fine program to a close Mrs. Gorter sang the lovely and appropriate solo Open the Gates of the Temple, and Mr. Wilkinson addressed the audience briefly.

The choir mothers had provided very tasty refreshments, fruit bread, date loaf and tarts. During this refreshment hour a real carnation corsage was pinned on the dress or lapel of each resident by the girls and boys of the choirs. Altogether it was an enjoyable and inspiring evening, much in keeping with the joyous Easter season.

The April birthday party for those Halton Manor residents who celebrated birthdays in the month of April was conducted on Thursday night, April 18 as a joint enterprise by the Limehouse and Silverwood Women's Institutes. There were master decorations on the walls of the auditorium and two large hydrangea plants on the stage. The head table looked lovely with its Easter lily plants, mauve mums and yellow paper streamers. The presidents of the two Institutes, Mrs. J. Roughley of Limehouse, and Mrs. G. Burt of Silverwood, were present. While the visitors were arriving, Mrs. Roughley played a very fine piano solo, Chapel Chimes.

Mrs. George Ironside was the capable and entertaining mistress of ceremonies. She announced a very pleasing program, every number of which was very enjoyable. Mrs. Roughley was the piano accompanist for the vocal numbers. Mrs. Gordon

Milne Armstrong sang I Know being a Girl, Tom Trouton, Off to Philadelphia and Jim Turnbull, Danny Boy, as separate solos. Two Calypso songs, Jamaica Farewell and Angelico, and a modern popular song, Young River, were sung by Tom Darcie. Milne Armstrong and Tom Trouton sang a duet Make Believe. The program ended with Tom Darcie singing the leading part, and accompanied by the chorus, in a dramatic comedy of When the Saints Come Marching In. Every number had been beautifully sung and had been a delight to the audience.

The performers were thanked by Mr. Allen who spoke of the variety of shows at which the Georgetown Rotary Club musicians had entertained the residents over the past few years and how much pleasure these shows had afforded the residents. Pleasant chats with the members of the cast when tea, coffee and cookies were served, brought this very enjoyable evening to a close.

Fish Film
Two very attractive colored films were shown by Mr. Allen on Saturday night, April 20. The first of these was a fishing film called Cast of Three. It described the favorite fishing grounds of three separate fishermen, hence the title. The fishing in Minnesota and trout fishing in North Carolina and Wyoming were all described.

The second film, Westward Ho, was a travel film and took the audience in imagination to the lovely counties of Devon and Cornwall in England. The coastline and quaint towns like Torquay and Clovelly were shown very attractively.

Easter Message
The message of Easter Sunday was continued in an eloquent sermon by Rev. D. A. Powell on Sunday afternoon, April 21. After reading portions of Chapters 20 and 21 of St. John's Gospel, Mr. Powell described three occasions, among others, on which Christ showed Himself to His disciples after His Resurrection.

He appeared to Mary Magdalene in the garden and this means that He has a special message for those who mourn. He appeared to the disciples in the upper room and this means that he has a message for those who despair. From the fact that he appeared to the disciples who had returned to their occupation of fishing, we have the message that He can encourage us in our daily tasks. Mrs. Ray Waters was the organist.

Hong Kong Bride Feted At Nine-Course Dinner

A nine-course Chinese dinner complete with traditional green tea highlighted the wedding reception for Kong Wong and his week-long bride from Hong Kong, the former Shuet Chun Yee, Sunday evening at the Sai Wai Chop Sui House in Toronto.

A busload of guests from Acton attended with family friends from Toronto and Guelph. Senator and Mrs. David Croll were also present to congratulate the couple, as well as Mr. and Mrs. J. Fenning and son Mr. Fenning represented the Canadian Immigration Department.

Guests Welcome
Bill Wong, father of the groom, was host for the evening, welcomed the guests and thanked everyone for their hospitality to his son and new daughter-in-law. Acting as master of ceremonies was Paul Wong, head of the Wong Society, who also added his congratulations to the newlyweds. Bill Wong of Toronto, also a member of the Wong Society, explained to the Acton guests the Chinese custom of selecting brides and added his congratulations to the couple.

Paul Nielsen and Charles Leathersland expressed sincere appreciation for the invitation, and Acton guests accustomed to three or four varieties of Chinese food were astonished as waiters

Show on Thursday
On Thursday evening of last week, guests from Acton held a wedding shower at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McLeod and presented the bride and groom with two step-ladders, a coffee table, two desk lamps and a trillite lamp.

During the evening, Mr. McLeod showed colored slides of his recent trip to Hong Kong when he and his wife met the bride and her family. Everyone enjoyed a delicious lunch of dairy sandwiches and fancy desserts.

The meeting opened with O Canada after which Mrs. E. Zimmerman offered an eloquent prayer and the Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison. Mr. Thompson and Mr. Bradley then extended greetings to the audience. Mrs. B. Anderson and Mrs. N. Lawson played a piano duet, The Witches' Flight very expertly, and as an encore When You and I were Young Maggie, with variations.

While a small orchestra of four members played Scotland the Brave, a band of nine ladies and gentlemen playing toy instruments or improvised instruments, entered the rear of the auditorium and marched to the front. They wore distinctive black and white hats and the ladies wore white blouses and the men white shirts and black bow ties. Conducted by Mrs. Anderson, with Mrs. J. Mowat at the piano, the band and orchestra united their talents to play a number of favorite old ballads and popular songs. These ranged from Redwing to Smiles.

Secretary, Chairman Sell Wheat Overseas

A sale of 275,000 bushels of Ontario winter wheat owned by the Ontario Wheat Producers Marketing Board has been made to purchasers in the United Kingdom, it was revealed today.

K. A. Standler, secretary-manager of the marketing board, said the sale to the United Kingdom, traditional market for Ontario winter wheat, will clean out stocks purchased by the board last fall and held over the winter in Montreal and Kingston.

Looking for possible markets for future exports of Ontario soft winter wheat, Mr. Standler and Roy Coulter, Campbellville, Chairman of the marketing board, will have interviews this week with several Canadian Overseas Trade Commissioners who are attending a trade conference in Ottawa.

90 Dozen Boxes Of Cookies Sold

Ninety dozen boxes of cookies were sold Saturday to conclude one of the most successful Guide and Brownie Cookie Days yet. Orders were all taken in advance and the special boxes delivered by over 40 uniformed Guides and over 60 Brownies, under the direction of their leaders.

The public had placed plenty of orders, impressed with the improved quality of the cookies last year, and the girls did a very efficient job of calling at all the homes, the leaders said.
