TV Set, Radios Presented To Sunnybrook Patients

Patients at Sunnybrook hospital in Toronto look forward to the annual visit by representatives from the Legion Ladies' Auxiliary in Acton. Sunday afternoon, eight members distributed four mantle radios and a 23-inch TV set.

Once a year the members make a visit and at one time distributed cigarettes, candy and fruit at Christmas time. Recently the ladies changed plans and make their annual visit later on account of the vast number of parcels received at Christmas time.

Visiting the hospital last Sunday were Mrs. Charles Shultis, Mrs. William Buchanan, Mrs. Bert Fowler, Mrs. Frank Toth, Mrs. Del Jordan, Mrs. Gordon James, Mrs. Pete Turkosz and Mrs. William Williams.

Public Film, Church Service Highlight Community News

Another sound film sponsored by the young people of Emmanuel Bible Church was shown Saturday evening in the Town Hall, west of Moody Bible Institute. "City of the Bees" showing how the little insects go about their work to produce Nature's sweet meats for the public.

Mr. Ray Wiseman spoke briefly preceding the film showing and also offered prayer. At one period during the evening Mr. Wiseman had his talking doll for a demonstration which was interesting to those present. Toward the finish of the film someone appeared to give a talk in connection with the bees and their work, in relation to knowledge of the Bible along with work in the laboratory of the Moody Bible Institute.

In the absence of Rev. Dr. George Aitken on Sunday due to illness, two men from Kitchener took charge of the service which was much appreciated. No service next Sunday due to the anniversary services at Eden Mills Presbyterian church.

The monthly meetings in connection with the Presbyterian Church, among the men of congregations in the Guelph Presbyterian are drawing to a close.

Open Church Service
Sunday evening, an open service was held in Knox Church, Preston, which was well attended. The service opened with Organ Prelude. Invocation Prayer and the Doxology. Praise selection "Take My Life and Let It Be." Scripture reading, Acts 4: 21. by O. Riddale. Prayer by

A. Scott, followed by the Lord's Prayer. Quartette selection by Campbellville Men's Double Quartette. "All In The April Evening" Praise selection "How Great Thou Art." Offering and organ offertory. Sermon by Rev. A. H. Vair, Moderator of Guelph Presbytery, subject, "The Witness for God in Action."

Sacrament of Holy Communion, Benediction hymn by the Double Quartette and Organ Postlude.

Following the service all adjourned to the Church School room for refreshments and social time.

Next Monday evening, according to previous announcement, will be Ladies' Night at St. David's Presbyterian church, Campbellville. Mr. Gordon Bish, guest speaker, will give an address in connection with Canadian Keswick-site of the Presbyterian Men's Council, Central Conference. Mr. Bish's address will be accompanied by colored slides.

Previous to anniversary services at the United Church, June 9, renovations have been undertaken, with the vestibule finished off in panel material and adjustments in electric lighting. Mr. Arthur Diamond and Mr. Duncan Kingsbury have been doing the work.

Wedding bells are ringing for a popular couple, the event will take place the latter part of June, in the United Church.

More lights have been broken along Valley Road recently.
