

MARRIED SATURDAY in Trinity United Church, Acton, were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Letheren. The bride, the former Carol Anne Wood, is the daughter of councillor J. Bert Wood and Mrs. Wood, Churchill Road.

Letheren-Wood Vows Exchanged on Saturday

In a traditional June wedding ceremony, Carol Anne Wood and Raymond G. "Skip" Letheren were married Saturday afternoon, June 1, at five o'clock in Trinity United Church, Acton. Baskets of flowers were placed on the altar and white bouquets marked the pews for the guests. The Rev. Dwight I. Engel officiated and George Elliott played the organ.

The bride is the daughter of Acton town councillor J. Bert Wood and Mrs. Wood, and has just graduated from the University of Toronto. She will teach on the university staff next fall.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Letheren of Guelph. He is in the interior design department of Vogel Furniture, Toronto.

The bride's aunt, Mrs. P. G. Fletcher, sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "O Perfect Love."

Made Gown
The bride had fashioned her own full-length wedding gown of white peau-de-soie with long sleeves, its graceful four-foot train flowing from an array of unpressed pleats. Her headpiece of peau de soie held her long veil of silk net.

She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid, ribbons adorned with white stephanotis.

Five Attendants
Maid of honor was her close friend Miss Mary Wilson of Cannington and the bridesmaids were Miss Marilyn Fletcher, Toronto, a cousin; Mrs. D. Wood, Oshawa, her sister-in-law; and Miss Ruth Letheren of Kitchener, sister of the groom.

Their attractive, street-length gowns of peau de soie were in a green shade with turquoise overtones; their shoes and pretty flower headpieces with full circular veils of tulle matched. They carried cascade bouquets of shrimp and white carnations.

A niece of the bride, Miss Barbie Wood, wore a similar blue-green dress of organza and tulle with a headpiece of small flowers. She carried a little white basket filled with flowers in shrimp and white shades.

Mr. Wood gave his daughter in

Steam Train Trip Passes Here Sunday

Steam train enthusiasts will have a holiday Sunday. The CNR is running one of the few remaining steam engines from Toronto to Hamilton, Galt, Guelph, Palmerston, Stratford and back to Toronto. It will pass through Acton between 8:30 p.m. and 9 p.m.

Members of the Upper Canada Railway Society are expected to make the trip on the steam-powered train or else keep a bit ahead of it in order to catch photographs as it puffs along the rails near curves or over bridges.

Local steam engine enthusiasts include Harry Otterbein, Ron Holloway and Owen Morales. Mr. Otterbein and Mr. Holloway are both members.

NURSING GRAD
Jacqueline Dawe, 19-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Kelly of Speyside, graduated from St. Joseph's Hospital School of Nursing, Hamilton, on May 22.

Trousseau Tea Showers Held

Before her marriage Saturday Miss Carol Anne Wood was the guest of honor at several gatherings and a trousseau tea was held by her mother, Mrs. J. Bert Wood, at their Churchill Road home.

A bathroom shower was held in April by Mrs. J. Mahabey, a friend of the groom's mother, in Guelph. Early in May a miscellaneous shower was held in Oshawa by her aunt, Mr. W. P. Fletcher. College friends in Toronto gathered Thursday, May 23, and presented her with an electric fry pan.

125 Guests
For the trousseau tea a week before the marriage, Mrs. Wood and the groom's mother, Mrs. N. G. Letheren of Guelph, received with the bride-to-be. Gifts and the trousseau were shown by Ruth Letheren of Guelph, Marilyn Fletcher of Oshawa, Mrs. Don Wood of Oshawa and Miss Mary Wilson of Cannington.

Mrs. W. P. Fletcher welcomed the many guests into the living room where tea was served by four university friends, Sue Fountain, Sue Thomson, Caroline Grigg, Joan Hare and Sue Harwood.

Pouring tea were the bride's great aunt, Mrs. Howard Wilson, Oshawa, the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Hazelwood, Guelph, the bride's aunt, Mrs. Hedley Wood, Agincourt, Mrs. J. Mahabey of Guelph, Mrs. W. P. Fletcher and Mrs. William Thomas of Guelph.

About 125 guests attended.

ELLA JANY
Ella Jany, daughter of Mr. Joseph Jany and the late Mrs. Jany, and formerly of Acton, received her Bachelor of Arts degree at the University of Toronto spring convocation.

Guelph Repeals Closing By-Law

While Acton council is still pondering a store closing by-law, Guelph city council Monday evening repealed its store closing by-law affecting all retail business places with the exception of butchers and grocers.

Guelph's former by-law stated store closing hours for all retail business places and action taken Monday frees all but grocers and butchers to remain open as they wish.

During recent Acton council meetings it was learned the store closing by-law passed by the town of Cobourg had been ruled invalid. Guelph's by-law was copied from the Cobourg by-law.

Join Church

Baptized at the United church Sunday were Helen Margaret Middleton and John Peter Tatton. Joining the church were Kathryn McKenzie, Jeanette Mines, Jean Little, Pat Blondell, Mrs. Jack Tatton, Hans Van Witzenburg and Mrs. Oville Chapman. The Rev. Dwight Engel performed the ceremony and the right hand of fellowship was extended by clerk of session Orwell Johnston.

H.S. Addition...

Mrs. McCrae and Mr. Mitchell had submitted their resignations and Miss Dianne McConnell and Patrick Sullivan had been engaged for next term.

On recommendation of Inspector F. Vickers the lockers in the east hallway will be painted before the opening of next term. The board agreed to have tenders for this called.

Finance chairman Chester Anderson disputed the way accounts were being approved for payment before his final signature of approval. Members wondered if a change to allow Mr. Anderson to review all bills prior to payment would involve too much of his time. They were informed by the finance chairman he thought a possible solution might be reached and Mr. Anderson was empowered to work out a suitable method.

Accounts totalling $33,507.90 were approved for payment.

Decorate Graves...

While geraniums were planted in Fairview cemetery, beautiful wreaths were taken to other places of remembrance.

Mayor Doby placed the wreath at Pioneer cemetery (behind Knox church) on a temporary stand, draped with a Union Jack which had been prepared by neighbor W. J. O. Oakes who with W. J. Graham for many years tended this lovely small area. This year the town men put the cemetery in order for Decoration Day to relieve the two faithful volunteers of the duties they had so willingly taken on in the days when the cemetery was neglected. Decoration Day committee chairman Albert Irwin, assisted by Vic Fagick and Hamilton Peal, decorated graves at Dublin cemetery.

Later refreshments were served in the Legion hall to those who had taken part. Ab Irwin is chairman of the committee this year with Mrs. A. Orr the secretary, as she had been since the inception of the idea, and the treasurer is Mrs. George Hargrave.

Mrs. Hargrave was also on duty with the St. John Ambulance Brigade with Mr. Hargrave and superintendent Robert Hart.

Member of Parliament Dr. Harry Harley and provincial Conservative candidate George Kerr of Burlington with his two sons joined the group for the service.

The fact that people of good will are capable of bad decisions is illustrated by the Christmas necktie.
