Outdoor Service For Anglicans

Sunday was a big day in connection with the congregations of St. John's Anglican Church, and All Saints' Church, Erin, when they met together at the farm of Dr. Anthony Kingscote adjacent to Old Indian Trail for an outdoor service, followed by a picnic and later with sports. The weather was ideal for the occasion, and the service was quite impressive. Toward the close of service, Holy Communion was celebrated.

Mr. Monty Root had charge of sports assisted by others in the group. A few showers interrupted the program of sports, but continued when rain stopped.

New Storekeeper
We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lahn, lately of Drayton, who moved to Rockwood recently to take over the Red & White Store recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kirby and family, who moved back to Kitchener. Mr. Lahn started off with a full line of groceries last Wednesday. Miss Carol Nelson, Rockwood, is in the store staff with Mrs. Don Hillis assisting.

With warm weather returning since first of the week, young people have been in swimming at the mill dam.
