To his many patients and passers-by, it's a shock this week to see a notice on Dr. W.G.C. Kenney's office door that he is temporarily away. Dr. and Mrs. Kenney seldom took holidays and then only half a day at a time, even though he had been cutting down on his office hours lately. He is a patient in Toronto General Hospital, where he has sent so many others to be examined by specialists, many of them personal friends of his. He was on the staff of the Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto, before coming to Acton. Three years ago the doctor, a favorite with the children, was named Action's Citizen of the Year. Best wishes for a prompt recovery and return to his practice are extended this week.

Friends and relatives who at one time lived in Winnipegosis, Manitoba, enjoyed their annual reunion Sunday at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Rognvaldson, No. 25 highway. There were 40 there from Niagara Falls, Owen Sound, Toronto and districts and Acton.

A friend the Rognvaldsons met in Toronto at the Icelandic-Canadian Club, Mr. Guðnindur Sigurdjorgson, who came from Iceland in 1969 and works at De Havilland Aircraft, came and brought with him Mr. Hjartar Torssson, a lawyer from Iceland who is here on a post-graduate fellowship. (Many of the people in the Winnipegosis area are of Icelandic descent.)

One family, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Medd and children, had been neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Casburn in Scarborough and dropped over to visit them too.

Mr. Gordon Rognvaldson took part in a ceremony in Elliot Lake on Saturday at which his brother, Mr. H.C. Rognvaldson, received a Masonic degree.

There was a social evening at Bruxville school for teachers, husbands, and wives, friends, school board and transportation employees. Currie's orchestra supplied music for dancing and Calvin McIntyre was the caller for square dancing. Mrs. McStorey and Mrs. Tom Mans conducted a gift hunt for teachers to be married and one already married. They are Shirley Mason, to be married to James Zehr, Miss Lee Barrett, who is to marry Robert Wood and Miss Lois Jamison, who is now married to Russell Teeple. All three couples received a host of miscellaneous gifts.
