Presentation to Minister, Wife Marks Farewell United Church Party

A large crowd from Ebenezer congregation journeyed to Arkel last Monday evening on the occasion of a surprise farewell presentation for Rev. and Mrs. Bob Hudcock.

Mr. Starkey was master of ceremonies, and presided over an interesting and varied program.

Mrs. Hayward and Joy delighted with a duet, accompanied by Sandra Blyth, who also rendered a vocal selection.

Carl Harris of Eden Mills, played a violin solo. The Taylor girls, Mariah, Barbara and Joan, sang a quartette with Anne Burrows. Mr. Edwin Watson was the accompanist for these numbers.

Mrs. Stephens, the Arkel organist, played two pleasing piano numbers, and Mrs. Harmer, Eden Mills gave some amusing readings.

Made Presentation
Mr. Horace Blyth read the address to the Hudcocks and Ralph Thomson and Jim Allen made the presentation.

Mrs. Malcolm Moffat presented Mrs. Hudcock with a pair of picture plaques on behalf of Ebenezer U.C.W.

Bob and Jean Hudcock, though taken by surprise expressed their appreciation, saying how many good friends they had made during their two years here.

An enjoyable evening closed with good wishes to the Hudcock family in their future life.

On Sunday, we had our last service with Rev. Bob Hudcock as pastor. His sermon was inspiring, based on the story of God's testing Abraham's faith, by asking him to give up his most precious possession, his son Isaac (Genesis 22) at Mount Moriah.

When we come to the Mount Moriah in our lives, if we have faith, we will be able to say with Abraham, "Jehovah-jeshch" the Lord will provide.

Miss Joy Hayward and Miss Eunice Norrish sang "Have You Been in the Garden with Jesus?" Mrs. Wm. Early presided at the organ.

Next Sunday, the service will be in charge of the session. Mr. Horace Blyth will speak.

On the following Sunday, (July 14) the U.C.W. will have change of the service.

Induction services for our new pastor, Rev. Walter Leeman, from Burks' Falls, will be held on Aug. 1st.

U.C.W. members are reminded of the joint picnic to be held at Beatties' Eden Mills, at 2 o'clock, July 10.

New traffic lines have been painted on the Mill - Main corner.

Several members of the choir of St. Alban's church are planning to be in the huge 700 voice choir which will sing in Maple Leaf Gardens during the Anglican congress in the middle of August.

FOUR ACTON MINISTERS complete plans for a Drive-In Community Church in Acton during a meeting at the Pentecostal church Friday morning. Left to right are Jerry Hoytema of Beth-El Christian Reformed church; Rev. S. M. Thoman, Acton Pentecostal church; Rev. J. H. Wilson, Evangelical Baptist church and Rev. Stanley Gammon, Acton Baptist church. The first service is scheduled for Saturday evening at 8:45 p.m. at the parking area of Bill Toth's Shell Service Station, Queen Street East.

115 Children Attend Summer Bible School

Over 115 children returned to classes at the Robert Little school this week attending Beth-El Christian Reformed church Bible school.

The children are divided into four groups. On the curriculum are the completion of drawings, the teaching of Bible texts and a play and games period in the grounds.

The school is being operated for two weeks under the supervision of student minister, Jerry Hoytema, and assistants from Beth-El church. The following are helpers, Mrs. Billie Timmerman, Miss Anke Oetendorf and Mr. Hoytema in the intermediate grades; Miss Herne Stulph, Miss Tivy Vos, Miss Nellie Huisman and Mrs. Alle Louweng, beginners; Mrs. Kruil and Janet Hofstede, primary; Mrs. Ina Kremer and Mrs. Elly van Barneveld, junior.

Drive-In Church Begins Saturday

Beginning Saturday evening, four local churches will sponsor a service at a Drive-In Community Church, on the parking area at Bill Toth's Garage.

The outdoor services will be conducted under the supervision of Rev. S. M. Thoman of the Pentecostal Tabernacle; Rev. Stanley Gammon, Acton Baptist church; Rev. J. H. Wilson, Evangelical Baptist and Mr. Jerry Hoytema, Christian Reformed church.

The service will basically be of a musical format with a brief message from one of the participating ministers. From time to time out-of-town musical talent will be featured but normally each church will alternately supply the musical leadership.

This Saturday guests will be the Open Air Campaigners of Toronto who will provide a versatile program of sacred music and messages. The four ministers have adopted the slogan "Come as you are and sit in your car" for the Saturday services.

June Bad Month Crashes Injure 29

In 33 accidents in the North Halton O.P.P. district during June, 29 persons were injured and $16,300 worth of property damage was caused.

Police noted it was a bad month for injuries - the worst to date in 1963. Two accidents on one weekend accounted for 14 of those injured. Six of the 33 accidents were non-reportable, with less than $100 total damage.
