A miscellaneous shower was given by Mrs. Jack Reid, Lake Ave., Acton, on June 27, which neighbors attended.

A presentation was made to the bride by the Baptist Church Sunday School.

NEWLYWEDS Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gordon Park are pictured following their wedding Saturday at Acton Baptist church. The bride is the former Norma Ruth Landsborough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Landsborough, Acton and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Park, Petrolia.

Park-Landsborough Vows Given In Pretty Church Wedding Sat.

A double-ring ceremony was solemnized in Acton Baptist Church at three o'clock on Saturday, July 6, when Miss Norma Ruth Landsborough became the bride of Lloyd Gordon Park, R. 2, Petrolia.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Landsborough, Lake Ave., and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Park, Petrolia.

The church was decorated for the occasion with baskets of salmon pink gladioli and white mums. Rev. Stanley Gammon officiated. Miss Helen Landsborough, sister of the bride, was organist. Soloist was Mr. Bob Lewis of London, who sang the Wedding Prayer and Heavenly Father.

Bridal Gown
Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white nylon organza over net and taffeta. The strapless fitted organza bodice had an Alencon lace over-bodice ending under the bustline with a narrow organza band. The dress had a scalloped square neckline and long, lively-point sleeves with lace appliques on the skirt. Her headdress was a scalloped crown edged with pearls and elbow length veil of silk illusion.

Attending the bride was Mrs. Pete Robinson, Cookville, as matron of honor. Mrs. Wayne Martin of Guelph, Miss Joanne Landsborough of Acton and Miss Nancy Siver of Sarnia were bridesmaids. Miss Joanne Beldom of Petrolia was flower girl and Mr. Ralph Landsborough of Acton was ring bearer.

Dressed Alike
The attendants wore aqua sheaths of peau-de-se with organza overskirts, with matching hair and shoes and white gloves. Their bouquets were white daisies.

Groomsmen were Mr. Doug Whitlock of Petrolia and Mr. Bob Sver, Sarnia. Ushers were Mr. Bob Landsborough of North Bay and Mr. Bob Alderman of Petrolia.

Rockwood United Church Setting For Patterson-Schneider Marriage

A pretty summer wedding was solemnized in Rockwood United Church on June 22 at 3:30 o'clock when Miss Patricia Louise Schneider became the bride of Mr. John Robert Patterson. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schneider of Rockwood and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Patterson, Guelph.

Officiating at the ceremony was Rev. R. Conner, organist was Mr. David Bonham of Guelph, who played "The Lord's Prayer."

White Gown
Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white nylon sheer over silk taffeta with a beige bodice and long (lily-point) sleeves. The scoop neckline was outlined with appliques of re-embroidered lace, dusted with seed pearls. Appliques of lace were repeated on the sides and back of the bouffant skirt, enhanced by sheer roses.

Her headpiece was a circle of peonies and orange blossoms with a scalloped veil of silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses and stephanotis.

Maid of Honor
The maid of honor was Miss Betty Allonby of Acton, a friend of the bride. She wore a gown of daffodil yellow sheer with a draped neckline, bouffant skirt and a floating panel of yellow and apricot sheer at the back. Her headdress was tiny yellow roses with a black veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of pale yellow carnations.

The best man was Mr. Allen Patterson of Guelph, brother of the groom. Ushers were Mr. David Schneider of Rockwood, brother of the bride and Mr. Harvey Patterson of Rockwood, cousin of the groom.

Bride's Mother Receives
For the reception at the church hall, the bride's mother received wearing a beige two-piece dress of lace, with beige and pink accessories. The groom's mother was in a pale blue ensemble with accessories in white.

Leaving on a honeymoon to Eastern Canada and The United States, the bride wore a two-piece

Findlay-Munn Vows Given In Double-Ring Ceremony

A delayed honeymoon trip to Scotland in August is planned by Mr. and Mrs. Glen Findlay, R. R. 4, Acton, whose wedding took place June 29 in Knox Presbyterian Church.

Baskets of pink delight roses and pink sensation roses formed a floral setting for the double-ring ceremony uniting Miss Mary Rosaline Margaret Munn and Mr. Glen Ian Findlay. Rev. A. H. McKenzie officiated.

Daughter of Mrs. Herbert Munn of Harrison, the bride taught at Limehouse Public School last term. The groom is the son of Mrs. Joseph Findlay, 471 Durie St., Toronto and the late Mr. Joseph Findlay. He was on the staff of Rockwood Public School.

Guest Soloist
Guest soloist, Mrs. Gordon Kidney of Georgetown, sang "The Lord's Prayer and O Perfect Love. She was accompanied by Mr. E. A. Hansen, church organist.

Charles Ferguson of Listowel, a family friend, gave the bride in marriage. She was lovely in a sweeping floor length gown of white satin and organza, styled with a Chantilly lace bodice and cap sleeves. Filigree lace gemmed with pearls and iridescent sequins outlined the scalloped neckline and the trim, was repeated on tiny sheer roses applique over the bouffant skirt.

Accentuating the princess waistline, a graceful rose-shaped bow at the back was also trimmed with pearls and sequins.

A crown of miniature organza roses held the bride's tiered elbow length veil of embroidered nylon. She carried a white Bible and a cascade of red roses and stephanotis.

MR. AND MRS. GLEN FINDLAY are pictured after their recent wedding in Knox church Acton. With them are the pretty flower girl Barbara Sproule, Brampton and ring bearer Stephen Herensberger, Speyside. The bride was the former Mary Munn and taught school last year at Limehouse. Mr. Findlay taught school at Rockwood.
