Rainbow Room Opens Friday Many Changes in Roxy Show

Tomorrow evening (Friday) the former Roxy theatre will again open its doors to the public and once more it is an entertainment centre — this time for dining and dancing. It will be known as the Rainbow Room and is owned and operated by Jack McMullen.

For almost a year, Mr. McMullen has been pouring a new cement floor, installing booths, renovating the stage area, installing a kitchen, painting, decorating and getting everything in shape for the grand opening this week.

From Monday to Friday during the afternoons there will be teenage dancing and again Friday evening family dinners will be served as well as luncheons throughout the week. Saturday evenings the owner plans western style dancing.

Mountie Ross Shortill Weds Mary Lou Carter

Bouquets of white shasta mums sprayed with blue, decorated First Baptist Church, Brampton, on July 6 for the double-ring ceremony which united in marriage Mary Lou Carter and Ross Shortill, of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carter of R.R. 1, Brampton, and the groom, who is stationed at Powell River, B.C. is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shortill of R.R. 1, Limehouse.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk organza over peau de talle with an overskirt of silk organza, accented with rose-point lace. A headpiece of silk organza roses held her veil of French illusion tulle in butterfly styling. Her bouquet of white tea roses was interlaced with scarlet ribbon to match the traditional bright red jacket of the groom's uniform.

Attendants in Blue

The matron of honor was Mrs. David Myles, a cousin of the bride, Acton, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. John Wilcox, Brampton; Miss Karen Turner, Brampton; and Miss Anne Shortill, a sister of the groom, R.R. 1, Limehouse.

They wore summer dresses of cornflower blue silk organza over tulle with bell-shaped skirts and jackets of cornflower blue lace. They carried bouquets of white shasta mums brushed with blue.

Givingsman was George Robinson, R.R. 1, Campbellville, and the ushers were John Wilcox, Brampton; Jack Webster, Hilltownville; and Duncan Gibson, Brampton, a cousin of the bride.

The Rev. I. K. Daniel of Brampton officiated at the marriage. Ross Brock of Brampton was organist and accompanied.

Returns to England Given Silver Locket

An attractive silver locket engraved "To Pauline from Acton (Canada) Town Staff 1963," was presented last Thursday evening to Mrs. Jim Preston, a stenographer in the town office, who has resigned and is returning to England. She joined the staff in September, 1957.

Town assessor Bill Erskine and Mrs. Erskine, were host and hostess at their home on Westcott Road, bidding farewell to Mrs. Preston and Mr. Preston as well as the Erskines were Mr. and Mrs. Jack McGeachie, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Turnbull, Mrs. Bert Urquhart, Mrs. Lorna Clark, Miss E. Hester Taylor, Joe Hunt and Doug Mason.

Mr. McGeachie made the presentation of the locket and Mr. Hulse followed it up with a poem written for the occasion.

A delicious buffet lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston are returning to live with her mother at Weymouth, Dorset. Their daughter Christine has been in England for over a year attending school there. Mr. Preston was employed with Ontario Hydro. Their home on Lake Ave. has been sold. They are sailing in mid August.

Many Changes

The proprietor purchased the building from the Gregory estate and began immediately making alterations to accommodate the entertainment centre.

While renovations were still going on, patrons were able to purchase soft ice cream, pop and chips from a special opening in the front of the building.

The interior of the building is now bright and cheery with colorful "rainbow" markings across the ceiling and on the floor. The former stage area is being maintained to accommodate entertainers and dance bands.

Mr. McMullen is hopeful of obtaining amateur entertainers for talent shows in the near future. Few changes have taken place with the marquee over the entrance and the proprietor is hoping to advertise coming talent in this manner.

Halladay-Hammond Wedding In Nassagaweya Saturday

Colorful bouquets of summer flowers decorated  Ebenezer Church, Nassagaweya, Saturday for the marriage of Evelyn Margaret Rose Hammond and William John Halladay. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hammond, R.R. 1, Campbellville, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Halladay, Main St. N., Acton.

The Rev. Kenneth Griffith officiated at the double-ring ceremony and Mrs. William Early played the wedding music on the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional full-length gown of white nylon over tulle, its lace bodice beaded with pearls, and featuring long sleeves of lace and scalloped neckline. Her shoulder-length veil was caught by a white rose fashioned of nylon. She carried red and white roses with fern.

Three Attendants

Her three attendants were a friend, Miss Darlene Lambert, Acton, as maid of honor, a sister, Miss Carol Hammond and sister of the groom, Miss Judy Halladay, as bridesmaids. All wore dresses of mint green nylon over tulle, matching headresses of net centred with nylon roses, white accessories and corsage bouquets of yellow-centred daisies with yellow ribbons.

Leo McGilloway, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man. The ushers were Brvan Hammond, brother of the bride and Bert Halladay, brother of the groom.

The wedding reception was held in the Sunday School room of the church. Mrs. Hammond chose for her daughter's marriage a two-piece dress of beige brocade with pure white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Halladay wore a cream two-piece dress with yellow accessories and a corsage of yellow daisies.

George Kerr of Burlington proposed the toast to the bride.

Guests were present from Welland, Springfield, Paris, Orangeville, Toronto, Burlington, Guelph and the immediate district.

The couple left on a motor trip from the bride's home. She wore a pink dress with contrasting white accessories and pink carnations.

They are making their home in Georgetown where the groom is employed.

Showers

The couple received many lovely gifts before the wedding. There was a family shower at the bride's home. The sister of the groom was hostess for a shower in Acton. Neighbors and friends in Nassagaweya congregated at a shower at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Tuck.
