Emmanuel Bible School Ends With Program in Town Hall

The Vacation Bible School last week conducted by Emmanuel Bible Church concluded in a gathering in the town hall with a good attendance.

Mr. Ray Wiseman pastor, and Mr. W. T. Humphries of Guelph had a big part in the program. Mr. Humphries had charge of the program and also conducted a brief devotional period.

An interesting part of the program was the presentation of letters to some of the young people in connection with the Bible School, and when prizes were concluded, Mr. Humphries heartily commended those who did not come up to winning prizes. Mrs. Bridle of Eden Mills also had a part in the program.

Mr. Wiseman proved to be an artist of some effort with colorful crayons in a drawing on paper. During the evening Mr. Wiseman also had his talking doll which added much to the program. Anne and Jane Kirvan of Hamilton are spending some time with their grandfather Mr. Stuart Rocco and Miss Jill.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Harris of Matheson who were on their way home from a holiday to various points, called on Richard Harris Saturday.

The rains of the weekend were very beneficial to vegetation, also to farm crops. Lawns about the village received a refreshing soaking.

The new park area adjoining the highway west of the village is being well patronized this summer. Saturdays and Sundays there are large numbers who drive in for picnics.

Rev. Dr. George Aitken returned home last week and is gradually improving following an operation in June.

Mrs. W. Wilson W.I. Hostess Holidays, Camping in News

Mrs. Wilk Wilson was hostess for the Eden Mills Women's Institute on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. R. Roy opened the meeting with the Institute Ode and Mary Stewart Collect. Roll call was answered by naming an old-fashioned farm custom. A donation was sent to the county home in Fergus.

A project was proposed for September to make a rookery at the hall. Mrs. H. Buchan and Mrs. F. Cowell were appointed to attend the two-day course at the college in November on the subject.

It was suggested to start a Pollyanna Friend Fund and names will be drawn next meeting.

The meeting was turned over to Mrs. H. Buchan, convener of Agriculture and Canadian Industries, who conducted a contest won by Mrs. R. Roy. Readings were enjoyed by Mrs. H. Gilbertson and Mrs. C. W. Lashby. A social half hour followed.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thompson have returned after a week's holiday in Quebec and surrounding district.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. McLean Sr. for the next week are Mrs. J. Ashworth and daughter Betty, Toronto.

Mary Anne Kerr of Ottawa is here to spend the next week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Cole.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Wilson were Mr. and Mrs. C. Shaw, Brampton; Mr. and Mrs. W. Early, Salem.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Gilbertson were Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Noble, Guelph.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Marshall Sr. left Sunday to spend their holidays at Doe Lake.

Raspberries Saved

Showers were welcome in this district on Friday and Saturday. They will save the raspberry crop.

Excitement ran high here on Wednesday when a 12-year-old boy was the object of a search by about 25 volunteers, but is back home safe and sound.

Staying with Mrs. Gaudin for the past two weeks was Mrs. E. Taylor of Toronto. Also guests in the same home were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bewley and family, Trenton.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. McLean Sr. were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Francis and family, London.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Barden and boys have returned from a camping trip at Berford Lake.
